

2015 Instructions for Form FTB 3537

Payment for Automatic Extension for LLCs

General Information

California does not require the filing of written extensions. However, an extension of time to file is not an extension of time to pay the Limited Liability Company (LLC) tax, fee, or the nonconsenting nonresident (NCNR) members' tax.

LLCs treated as corporations (Form 100 filers)

LLCs electing to be taxed as corporations should use form FTB 3539, Payment for Automatic Extension for Corps and Exempts Orgs.

LLCs treated as partnerships (Form 568 filers)

If an LLC in good standing cannot file Form 568, Limited Liability Company Return of Income, by the due date, the LLC is granted an automatic six-month extension.

If the tax return is filed by the 15th day of the 10th month following the close of the taxable year (fiscal year) or by October 15, 2016 (calendar year), the automatic extension will apply.

LLCs treated as partnerships should use form FTB 3537, Payment for Automatic Extension for LLCs.

If the LLC does not owe tax, there is nothing to file at this time. Do not complete or mail this form.

Use form FTB 3537, only if both of the following apply:

- The LLC cannot file Form 568 by the due date.
- Nonconsenting nonresident members' tax is owed for 2015.

Do not use form FTB 3537 if you are paying the LLC estimated fee for the subsequent taxable year. Instead use the 2016 form FTB 3536, Estimated Fee for LLCs. Do not use this form if you are paying the $800 annual LLC tax for the subsequent taxable year. Instead use the 2016 form FTB 3522, LLC Tax Voucher.

Web Pay

Make payments online using Web Pay for Businesses. After a one-time online registration, businesses can make an immediate payment or schedule payments up to a year in advance. For more information, go to ftb.ca.gov.

Credit Card

Use Discover, MasterCard, Visa or American Express Card to pay your business taxes. Go to officialpayments.com. Official Payments Corp. charges a convenience fee for using this service. If paying by credit card, do not file form FTB 3537.

If the LLC owes tax and did not make a payment electronically, mail the form by the 15th day of the 4th month following the close of the taxable year (fiscal year) or April 18, 2016 (calendar year), to avoid late payment penalties and interest.

When the due date falls on a weekend or holiday, the deadline to file and pay without penalty is extended to the next business day.

Due to the Emancipation Day holiday on April 16, 2016, tax returns filed and payments mailed or submitted on April 18, 2016, will be considered timely.
