North Dakota Amended Corporation Income Tax Return Instructions

General instructions

Who must file

A North Dakota Amended Corporation Income Tax Return, Form 40X, must be filed if:

- An amended federal income tax return is filed;
- Federal taxable income or federal income tax liability is changed as a result of a federal audit;
- A corporation's North Dakota income is changed as a result of a North Dakota loss carryback (see instruction for line 13);
- The corporation wishes to correct an error discovered on a previously filed return; or
- The corporation receives a refund of federal income tax which was deducted on a previously filed return.

Information relating to an amended return can be found in North Dakota Century Code §§ 57-38-38 and 57-38-40.

How to prepare an amended return

In order to file a complete Form 40X, a corrected Form 40, page 1 and supporting schedules, for the year being amended must be prepared. Complete Form 40X using specific instructions below and attach the corrected Form 40, Page 1, and ONLY the North Dakota Schedules FACT, FACT-1, SA, CR, FTD, TC, WE, WW, AMT-C and/or AMT-R which have been corrected. Use forms and schedules from the tax booklet for the year being amended.

Preparer authorization

If the corporation wants to allow the North Dakota Office of State Tax Commissioner to discuss its tax return with the preparer who signed it, mark the circle in the signature area of the return. This authorization applies only to the individual whose signature appears in the "Signature of Preparer" section of the corporation's return. It does not apply to the firm, if any, shown in that section.

If the circle is marked, the corporation is authorizing the North Dakota Office of State Tax Commissioner to contact the preparer to answer any questions that may arise during the processing of its return.

The corporation is also authorizing the preparer to:

- Give the North Dakota Office of State Tax Commissioner any information that is missing from the return,
- Call the North Dakota Office of State Tax Commissioner about the processing of the return or the status of any related refund or payment(s), and
- Respond to certain North Dakota Office of State Tax Commissioner notices that the corporation has shared with the preparer about math errors and return preparation. The notices will not be sent to the preparer.

The corporation is not authorizing the preparer to receive any refund check, bind the corporation to anything (including any additional tax liability), or otherwise represent the corporation before the North Dakota Office of State Tax Commissioner. If the corporation wants to expand the preparer's authorization, North Dakota Form 500, Authorization to Disclose Tax Information and Designation of Representative, will need to be signed and filed with our office. North Dakota Form 500 can be found on our web site at www.nd.gov/tax. Click on Corporate Income and then Forms.

The authorization will automatically end 6 months from the date the amended return is filed.

Specific line instructions

Line 13

The North Dakota net operating loss deduction allowed on the Form 40X is the amount of the accumulated net operating loss less any previously deducted loss carryback or carryforward. Only a state net operating loss which occurs when a corporation does business in North Dakota is allowed as a state carryback or carryforward. Additional information is contained in N.D.C.C. § 57-38-01.3(3) and North Dakota Administrative Code § 81-03-05.1-07.

The state loss is carried back or forward as follows:
For taxable years beginning after December 31, 2002.

- Effective for a North Dakota net operating loss incurred in a taxable year beginning after December 31, 2002, a corporation may not carry the loss back to a previous tax year.

For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1993, and before January 1, 2003.

- A state net operating loss must be carried back and carried forward for the same period as a federal loss. However, a corporation may elect to forego the carryback period and carryforward the entire state loss. To elect to forego the carryback period for a North Dakota loss, a corporation must make the election on the original return that was timely filed for the year in which the loss was incurred. If an election is not made, the loss must be carried back.

For taxable years beginning before January 1, 1993.

- If a corporation incurs a state loss, in the same year it incurs a federal loss, the loss must be carried back and carried forward in the same manner as elected for federal purposes.

Consequently, a federal election to forego the carryback period also applies to the state loss.

- If a corporation incurs a state loss, but no federal net operating loss, the loss may be carried back and carried forward for the same period as a federal loss. The corporation may elect to forego the carryback period and carry forward the entire state loss. A corporation must make an election to carryforward the loss with an original return that is timely filed for the year in which the loss was incurred. If an election is not made, the loss must be carried back.

The following "Time for Filing" requirements have been summarized from the North Dakota Century Code. We have attempted to discuss the most common situations where an amended return would be necessary. However, if a situation arises that is not discussed below, refer to the North Dakota Century Code for the year being amended or contact the Office of State Tax Commissioner at 701.328.1249.

For Taxable Years Beginning After December 31, 1990.

- Form 40X must be filed within three years after the due date of the return or within three years after the return was filed, whichever period expires later, if a refund is requested.
 - If North Dakota taxable income or North Dakota income tax liability changes by an amount in excess of twenty-five percent, any refund may be claimed within six years after the due date of the return, or six years after the return was filed, whichever period expires last. (A similar provision related to assessments was not changed and may be found in N.D.C.C. § 57-38-38).
 - The filing of an amended return before the expiration of the time limitations provided for in N.D.C.C. ch. 57-38 allows the tax commissioner two years after the amended state income tax return is filed to audit the state income tax return and assess any additional state income tax found to be due, even though other time periods prescribed in N.D.C.C. ch. 57-38 for the assessment of tax may have expired. This time period does not limit or restrict any other time period prescribed in N.D.C.C. ch. 57-38 for the assessment of tax that has not expired at the end of the two-year period.
- If the federal change results in additional state income tax due and:
- ▶ the change is reported within ninety (90) days of final determination, the time period for issuing an assessment is limited to two (2) years from the date the change is reported, provided all other time periods for assessment have expired.
 - ▶ the change is not reported within ninety (90) days of final determination, the time period for issuing an assessment is unlimited.
- If the federal change results in an overpayment of state income tax and:
- ▶ the change is reported within ninety (90) days of final determination, the overpayment plus interest accrued through the date of payment will be refunded.
 - ▶ the change is not reported within ninety (90) days but is reported within two (2) years of final determination (or within any other unexpired time period for refund), the overpayment plus interest accrued through ninety (90) days after final determination will be refunded.
- ▶ the change is not reported within two (2) years after final determination, and provided all other time periods for refund have expired, the Office of State Tax Commissioner must deny any claim for credit or refund.
 - If all other time periods for assessment or refund have expired, an assessment or claim for credit or refund based on a change in federal taxable income or federal income tax liability is limited to adjustments directly attributable to the federal change.
 - If a taxpayer fails to file a return within three years after the due date of the return, no credit or refund of overpaid estimated income tax may be made.
 - If a taxpayer consents to an extension of time for the assessment of North Dakota income tax, the period of time for filing a claim for refund is similarly extended.

For Taxable Years Beginning After December 31, 1984 And Before January 1, 1991

- Form 40X must be filed within three years after the due date of the return or within three years after the return was filed, whichever period expires later, if a refund is requested.
- The time period for assessment of a taxpayer whose principal place for managing or directing a business is inside North Dakota is three years after the due date of the return or three years after the return was filed, whichever period expires later.
- The time period for assessment of a taxpayer whose principal place for managing or directing a business is outside North Dakota is six years after the due date of the return or six years after the return was filed, whichever period expires later.
- If there is a change in North Dakota taxable income or adjusted federal income tax liability by an amount which is in excess of twenty-five percent of the amount of taxable income stated in the return as filed, any additional tax determined due may be assessed any time within six years after the due date of the return, or six years after the return was filed, whichever period expires later.
- The filing of an amended return before the expiration of the time limitation provided for in N.D.C.C. ch. 57-38 shall add an additional time period of two years for assessment of a deficiency or the issuance of a credit or refund to the time limitation still remaining as of the date of filing of the amended return.
- Where a loss is being carried back from a taxable year beginning before January 1, 1987, Form 40X must be filed within the period which ends with the fifteenth day of the fortieth month following the end of the taxable year in which the net operating loss occurred.
- Where a loss is being carried back from a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1986, Form 40X must be filed within three years after the original due date for the taxable year in which the loss occurred, including extensions.
- The time period for reporting a change in federal taxable income or federal income tax liability to the Office of State Tax Commissioner is thirty days after final determination of any change made by the Internal Revenue Service. Failure to file within this time frame will suspend the running of the statute of limitations for assessment.

Calculation of interest and penalty for income tax purposes: Comparison of rates and calculation methods for pre-'98 years with those for 1998 and subsequent years

This table shows (in the right hand column) the interest and penalty rates and calculation methods in effect for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1997, as a result of passage of Senate Bill 2102 by the 1999 North Dakota Legislative Assembly. Because the rates and calculation methods in effect for taxable years beginning before January 1, 1998, remain in effect for those taxable years, you'll have to keep track of different rates and calculation methods. This table will help you do that. Please note that for refunds arising from loss years beginning after December 31, 1997, interest shall start accruing from the due date of the loss year to the date the refund is issued; however, no interest shall accrue if the refund is issued within forty-five days after the date the amended return is filed.
