Instructions

Who must complete this form

If you are required to file a joint Form IT-203 and only one of you had New York source income, the spouse with New York source income must complete this form.

Caution — Enter name and social security number (SSN) information as follows:

- On Form IT-203-C, you must enter the name and SSN of the spouse with New York source income first. Enter the name and SSN of the spouse with no New York source income second.
- On your Form IT-203, you must enter the name and SSN of the spouse with New York source income first. Enter the SSN of the spouse with no New York source income second (do not enter that spouse's name).
- If you are filing Form IT-201-V, Payment Voucher for E-Filed Income Tax Returns, enter on that form only the name and SSN of the spouse with New York source income. (Do not enter any name or SSN for the spouse with no New York source income.)

Purpose of form

Married nonresidents and part-year residents who are required to file a joint New York State return must use the combined income of both spouses to determine the base tax subject to the income percentage allocation, even if only one spouse has New York source income. However, a spouse with no New York source income cannot be required to sign the joint return and cannot be held liable for any tax, penalty, or interest that may be due. This form will allow the Tax Department to properly process your return.

How to file

Attach the completed Form IT-203-C to your Form IT-203. Keep a copy for your records.

Please file this original scannable attachment with the Tax Department.
