GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

A one-time credit is allowed against personal Income tax for nonfamily adoptions. "Nonfamily adoptions" means adoptions of a child or children by a taxpayer or taxpayers which child or children are not related to the taxpayer or taxpayers by blood or marriage. The credit is equal to two thousand ($2,000) dollars which may be taken in the year of the adoption of each nonfamily child, whose age at adoption is under eighteen years. This credit may, at the option of the taxpayer, be taken over a period of three years.
