Form RCYL Instructions

Definitions

Collect is the collection and delivery of reclaimed materials to a recycling or reclaimable materials processing facility.

Machinery or equipment is property having a depreciable life of more than one year. The machinery or equipment collects or processes reclaimable material or is used in the manufacturing of a product from reclaimed material.

Reclaimable material is material that has useful physical or chemical properties after serving a specific purpose and that is normally disposed of as solid waste by a consumer, processor or manufacturer. Material may not be considered reclaimed by the consumer, processor or manufacturer that generated the material.

Recycled material is a substance that is produced from reclaimed material. Reclaimed material collected, processed or used to manufacture a product may not be an industrial waste generated by the person claiming the tax credit.

Parts I, II and III - Recycling Credit Instructions

This credit is available to qualifying C corporations, S corporations, partnerships and individuals.

What costs do I use to calculate my recycling credit?

Use the costs of the investment that you have made in the qualifying equipment that you used to calculate your depreciation deduction for federal income tax purposes.

The tax credit is available only for machinery and equipment that is depreciable (defined in IRS Code Section 167). The machinery and equipment must be used in Montana, primarily for the collection or processing of reclaimable material or in the manufacturing of finished products from reclaimed material or to treat soils contaminated by hazardous wastes.

The basis for the credit is generally the cost of the property before consideration of trade-in equipment. An exception would be that the basis has to be reduced by any trade-in upon which this credit has previously been taken. The basis includes the purchase price, transportation cost (if paid by the purchaser) and the installation cost before depreciation or other reductions. This credit does not increase or decrease the basis for tax purposes.

Recycling machinery and equipment must be located and operating in Montana on the last day of the taxable year for which the credit is claimed. The machinery or equipment must be used to collect, process, separate, modify, convert or treat solid waste into a product that can be used in place of a raw material for productive use or to treat soils contaminated by hazardous wastes. This does not include transportation equipment unless it is specialized to the point that it can only be used to collect and process reclaimable material.

How do I claim my credit when I am a partner or shareholder in a partnership or an S corporation that invested in the depreciable property used for recycling?

Your partnership or S corporation will report the credit on its informational tax return and provide you with your share of the credit on Montana Schedule K-1.

If you are a partner, your share of the credit is based on the same proportion you use to report your income or loss from the partnership for Montana tax purposes unless the partners have an agreement providing for a different allocation. If you are a shareholder, your share of the credit is based on the pro rata share of the corporation's cost of investing in the equipment.

For example, if your business is an S corporation with four shareholders with equal ownership interest, each shareholder would be entitled to 25% of the total credit.

Only a taxpayer that owns an interest either directly or through a pass-through entity, such as a partnership or S corporation, and is operating the equipment as the primary user on the last business day of the year, may claim the credit.

If the credit exceeds my tax liability, can I carry any excess credit to another tax year?

No. The credit is limited to the amount of the taxpayer's individual or corporation tax liability. Any excess credit is not refundable, nor can it be carried back or forward to other tax years.

Are there other limitations concerning the recycle credit?

The Department of Revenue may disallow a credit resulting from a sale or lease when the overriding purpose of the transaction is not to collect or process reclaimable material or manufacture a product from reclaimed material.

The credit may not be claimed for an investment in property used to produce energy from reclaimed material.

What information do I have to include with my tax return when I claim this credit?

Individuals and C corporations filing paper returns must include a completed Form RCYL. S corporations and partnerships filing paper information returns must, in addition to including the completed Form RCYL, include a separate statement identifying each owner and their proportionate share.

In addition, if you are claiming a credit in Part II or Part III, you will also need to provide a copy of the sales receipt, any pamphlets on the equipment purchased, and any other information regarding what the equipment is and how the equipment is used in the collection, processing or manufacturing of a reclaimed material.

Part IV - Recycling Deduction Instructions

A taxpayer may deduct an additional amount equal to 10% of the taxpayer's expenditures for the purchase of recycled material that was otherwise deductible by the taxpayer as a business-related expense in Montana. The products have to contain recycled material at a level consistent with industry standards or, when the standards exist, with standards established by the federal Environmental Protection Agency.

Include a statement from the manufacturer or supplier stating the amount of recycled material contained in the material or product purchased.
