2012 FID-EXT - Fiduciary Income Tax Extension Payment Voucher

Purpose of this form. Use Form 2012 FID-EXT to make an extension payment towards a 2012 fiduciary income tax liability. An extension sion payment is made when either a federal automatic extension has been obtained or a New Mexico extension has been obtained, and a payment towards the tax liability is made to avoid the accrual of interest. By obtaining an extension of time to file your return, penalty for failure to file and pay is waived through the extension period, provided you file the return and pay the tax shown on the return by the extended due date. Interest accrues even if the taxpayer obtains an extension of time to file and pay the return. Interest is assessed daily at the quarterly rate established for individuals by the U.S. Internal Revenue Code on the amount of tax due. Annual and daily interest rates for each quarter are posted on the Department web site, www.tax.newmexico.gov.

If you expect to owe more tax when you file your 2012 return, make a payment using the 2012 FID-EXT payment voucher and avoid the accrual of interest on the principal tax due. Submit the bottom portion of this page with the check or money order.

About the Application for Extension of Time to File.

- Federal automatic extension filed. New Mexico recognizes and accepts an Internal Revenue Service automatic extension of time to file. If you have obtained the federal automatic extension by filing Form 7004, Application for Automatic Extension of Certain Business Income Tax for tax year 2012, you have the federal automatic extension period allowed by the IRS to file your New Mexico return. You do not need to file Form RPD-41096, Extension of Time to File. Detach the bottom portion of this document and submit it to the Department with your payment.
- New Mexico extension request filed. If you expect to file your federal return by the original due date or by the federal automatic extension of time to file allowed by the IRS, but need additional time to file your New Mexico return, you must obtain approval through the state. To request approval, you must submit Form RPD-41096, Extension of Time to File, on or before the due date of the return or the extended due date of the return. You may submit Form RPD-41096 at the same time you submit your extension payment. Detach the bottom portion of this document and submit it to the Department with your extension payment.
