Franchise and Excise Financial Institution Return Instructions to Captive REIT Disclosure Form

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

Purpose of Form

Public Chapter 1106 (2008) amended Tenn. Code Ann. § 67-4-2006(e) to require financial institutions to disclose dividends received from captive REITs for tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2008.

“Captive real estate investment trust” or “captive REIT” means an entity with an election in effect under § 856(c)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code, compiled in 26 U.S.C. § 856(c)(1), in which the taxpayer, directly or indirectly, has at least eighty percent (80%) ownership interest by value determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and whose shares are not traded on a national stock exchange (Tenn. Code Ann. § 67-4-2004).

Who Must File

Any financial institution that receives dividends, directly or indirectly, from one or more captive REITs must complete this form.

When to File

The Captive REIT Disclosure Form must be filed with the Franchise and Excise Financial Institution Tax Return (Form FAE 174). The tax return is due on the 15th day of the 4th month following the close of the taxable year.

Failure to File the Disclosure Form

Failure to file the required disclosure form will result in the disallowance of the dividends received deduction provided in Tenn. Code Ann. § 67-4-2006(b)(2)(A) with respect to any direct or indirect dividends received from a captive REIT.

Penalty for Failure to Disclose

Failure to disclose the captive REIT dividend will result in a fifty percent (50%) penalty on the amount of any underpayment arising from the disallowance of the eighty percent (80%) owned dividend received deduction.
