GENERAL INFORMATION

K.S.A. 74-50,208 provides an income tax credit for any program contributor that contributes to an individual development account (IDA) reserve fund. The credit is 75% of the amount contributed. If the credit allowed exceeds the program contributor's tax liability in any one taxable year, the remaining portion of the credit shall be refunded.

Limitation. No IDA Credit (Schedule K-68) shall be allowed for any contribution made by a program contributor which also qualified for a community service tax credit claimed on Schedule K-60.

NEW! For tax year 2013, and all tax years thereafter, new credits shall be available to only corporations that are subject to the Kansas corporate income tax (i.e., C corporations). New credits shall no longer be available to individuals, partnerships, S corporations, limited liability companies, and other pass-through entities.

DEFINITIONS

Program Contributor: A person or entity who makes a contribution to an IDA reserve fund.

IDA Reserve Fund: The fund created by an approved community-based organization for the purposes of funding costs incurred in the administration of the program by the financial institutions and the community-based organizations and for providing matching funds for moneys in IDAs.

Community-based Organization: Any religious or charitable association or tribal entity that is approved by Kansas Department of Commerce to implement the IDA reserve fund.
