North Dakota 2013 Individual Income Tax

Ryan Rauschenberger, Tax Commissioner

Form ND-EZ Form ND-1

Dear Taxpayer,
There is no doubt that North Dakota has the fastest growing economy in the nation. In 2013, Forbes' ranked North Dakota as the second best state for business and careers, and the Bureau of Economic Analysis ranked North Dakota #1 in Economic Growth in 2011. In addition, North Dakota is in the top spot as #1 in personal income growth and per capita personal income growth, and continues to have the lowest unemployment rate in the nation - hovering right around 3 percent. On top of that, our income tax rate is among the lowest income tax rates in the country.

Just like our economy, the number of individual taxpayers using e-file is also growing. In 2013, nearly 365,000 (or about 83 percent) of North Dakota’s individual income taxpayers filed their income tax return electronically. With all of the e-file options available, there is one that should fit your needs. You can choose from IRS E-file, Free File, as well as a number of other services available online or through VITA and TCE sites. But, before you choose an e-file service, check out our online interactive tool. It will help you sort through the various e-file services to find one that is the best fit for you, and you will learn if you are eligible to e-file your return for free. See page 1 of this booklet for a summary of those options.

The forms and instructions contained in this booklet are generally unchanged from last year.
See page 2 of this booklet for information on the changes that were made and other important information that may affect you. Please note that certain credits and adjustments will require a specific schedule, such as the ND-1CR and the ND-1TC. To access these forms, or any other tax-related publications, visit our web site at www.nd.gov/tax.
Please let us know what you think we are doing well, and what we can do to improve our service to you. If you have any questions or need assistance in preparing your North Dakota income tax return, or have other state tax-related questions, you are encouraged to contact our office. You will find contact information on the back of this booklet.

Thank you,

Rauschenberger

You might be eligible for a refund of local sales tax!

Most city and county local tax ordinances contain a local sales tax maximum, which varies among the local tax jurisdictions. If you pay local sales tax in excess of the jurisdiction's maximum amount, you may apply to the Office of State Tax Commissioner to obtain a refund of the excess local sales tax paid. For example, if you purchase $$ 4,000$ of furniture in a city having a $1 \%$ sales tax and a local sales tax maximum of $$ 25$, the retailer will collect $$ 200$ in state sales $\operatorname{tax}($ 4,000 \times 5 \%)$ and $$ 40$ in local sales tax ( $$ 4,000 \times 1 \%$ ) at the time of purchase. You may apply to the Office of State Tax Commissioner to obtain a refund of $$ 15$, which is the excess of the $$ 40$ local sales tax paid over the $$ 25$ local sales tax maximum. You can obtain the application form, Claim For Refund - Local Sales and Use Tax Paid Beyond Maximum Tax, from our web site at www.nd.gov/tax, or you may call us at 701.328.1246 or e-mail us at salestax@nd.gov.

Do you owe use tax?

If you purchased goods from a source outside North Dakota that you use or consume in North Dakota on which you did not pay North Dakota sales tax, you may have to pay state and local sales taxes to North Dakota. Technically, what you have to pay is called a "use tax." The use tax applies to the same goods that are subject to North Dakota's sales tax. The use tax applies whether you purchased the goods in person at an out-of-state location, or by mail, phone, or over the Internet.
If you purchased the goods in another state and did not pay any sales tax to that state, you must pay the full use tax to North Dakota. However, if you did pay the other state's sales tax but paid less than what you would have paid in North Dakota, you must pay use tax to North Dakota equal to the difference. If you purchased the goods in another country, you must pay the full use tax to North Dakota regardless of whether you paid any tax to that country on the purchase.
If you owe use tax to North Dakota, you must file a North Dakota use tax return using the One Time Remittance Form. You can obtain it from our web site at www.nd.gov/tax, or you may call us at 701.328.1246.

In compliance with the Privacy Act of 1974, disclosure of the individual's social security number on this form is required under N.D.C.C. $\S \S 57-01-15$ and 57-38-31, and will be used for tax reporting, identification and administration of North Dakota tax laws. Disclosure is mandatory. Failure to provide the social security number may delay or prevent the processing of this form.

Changes affecting you and your income tax
Developments, updates, and items of interest relating to individual income tax

2013 legislative changes

I ncome tax rates

For tax years 2013 and after, the income tax rates for individuals were reduced by approximately 19.3 percent. The new tax rates-ranging from $1.22 \%$ to $3.22 \%$ are reflected in the tax table and tax rate schedules contained in this booklet.

Long-term capital gain and qualified dividend exclusion

 For tax years 2013 and after, the exclusion from North Dakota taxable income allowed for a net long-term capital gain and qualified dividend income was increased from $30 \%$ to $40 \%$. Also, the law governing the exclusion for qualified dividend income was changed to provide that, if federal tax law is changed to tax qualified dividends at ordinary income tax rates, the exclusion rate will drop to $30 \%$ and apply to all taxable dividend income.
Estimated income tax

For tax years 2013 and after, an individual does not have to pay estimated North Dakota income tax if the previous year's tax liability or the tax due on the current year's return is less than $$ 1,000$. (For tax years before 2013, this threshold amount was $$ 500$.) This change will result in some individuals no longer having to pay estimated North Dakota income tax.

Renaissance zone income exemption

Effective for new zone projects approved on or after August 1, 2013, the fiveyear income exemption allowed under the North Dakota renaissance zone tax incentive program is subject to the following limitations:

- Expansion project limitation-If a zone project consists of a physical expansion of an existing building, the amount of the exemption for a tax year is limited to an amount equal to the income eligible for the exemption multiplied by an expansion ratio. The expansion ratio is equal to the square footage added by the expansion project divided by the total square footage of the building after the expansion.
- Taxpayer limitation-No more than $$ 500,000$ of eligible income may be exempted in a tax year. This limitation applies to the total eligible income that a taxpayer derives from all business and investment interests held during the tax year.

Automation tax credit

Note: This credit was created by 2011 legislation, but its effective date was delayed until 2013.
The 2013 tax year is the first of three tax years in which a taxpayer is allowed an income tax credit for purchasing new or used machinery and equipment for the purpose of automating a manufacturing process. Eligibility is limited to a business that is certified as a primary sector business by the North Dakota Commerce Department's Division of Economic Development and Finance (Commerce Department). The credit is equal to 20 percent of the cost of the machinery and equipment approved by the Commerce Department. The credit is first allowed in the tax year in which the taxpayer takes title to the machinery and equipment. If the credit exceeds the tax liability in the first tax year it is allowed, the excess amount may be carried over and used on subsequent years' returns for up to 5 tax years. The total credits allowed for all qualifying purchases by all taxpayers is limited to $$ 2$ million per calendar year. To obtain the credit, taxpayers must complete and file an application form with the Commerce Department.

Abstract

Housing incentive fund credit The tax credit allowed for making a contribution to the North Dakota Housing Incentive Fund, administered by the North Dakota Housing Finance Agency, was extended for two additional years through the 2014 tax year. The credit is equal to the amount contributed to the fund. If the credit exceeds the tax liability in the first tax year it is allowed, the excess amount may be carried over and used on subsequent years' returns for up to 10 tax years. North Dakota taxable income must be increased by the amount of the contribution upon which the credit is computed to the extent the contribution reduced federal taxable income.

Angel fund tax credit

For investments made in a North Dakota certified angel fund on or after January 1, 2013, the lifetime limit on the total credits allowed to a taxpayer was increased to $$ 500,000$. Married individuals are considered one taxpayer for this purpose. This limit applies to the sum of the credits earned for investments directly made by the taxpayer in an angel fund and any credits the taxpayer receives as an owner of a passthrough entity that invests in an angel fund.

Mobile workforce exclusion for nonresident individuals  Note: This exclusion was created by 2011 legislation, but its effective date was delayed until 2013.

Starting with the 2013 tax year, compensation received by an individual for services performed in North Dakota is excluded from North Dakota source income and is not subject to North Dakota income tax if all of the following conditions apply:

- The individual is not a legal resident of North Dakota for the tax year.
- The individual has no other income from sources in North Dakota for the tax year.

Changes affecting you and your income tax (continued)

- The individual worked in North Dakota for less than 21 days during the tax year. For this purpose, presence in North Dakota for any part of a day constitutes presence for that day unless it is solely for traveling through North Dakota.
- The individual's state of legal residence either (1) does not impose an income tax or (2) provides a substantially similar exclusion.
"Compensation" means wages, salaries, tips, and other types of compensation that are subject to federal income tax withholding and reportable on federal Form W-2.

Certain individuals, as specified in the law, are not eligible for this exclusion. This exclusion does not affect the reciprocity agreements between North Dakota and the states of Minnesota and Montana. For more information, see N.D.C.C. § 57-38-59.3.

I ncome tax withholding from oil and gas royalty income

Starting in the 2014 calendar year, North Dakota income tax must be withheld from oil and gas royalty payments made to nonresident royalty owners with a nonworking interest in the production. A "nonresident royalty owner" means an individual who is a nonresident of North Dakota or a business entity with a commercial domicile outside North Dakota. A "business entity" includes a corporation, estate, trust, partnership, and any other entity subject to North Dakota income tax.

North Dakota income tax must be withheld at the highest marginal income tax rate applicable to the royalty owner. In the case of a royalty owner that is a nonresident individual, estate, or trust, tax must be withheld at the rate of $3.22 \%$. In the case of a regular corporation, the withholding rate is $4.53 \%$. In the case of a royalty owner that is a partnership or other type of passthrough entity, either the $3.22 \%$ or $4.53 \%$ rate, or both in some cases, will apply depending on the type of entities that own the passthrough entity.

Some royalty owners will not see any North Dakota income tax withheld from their royalty payments if the person making the payments is exempt from the new withholding requirement or the amount of the payments is less than minimum amounts specified in the law.

Oil and gas royalty payments based on oil and gas production in North Dakota constitute income from a real property interest in North Dakota and are subject to North Dakota income tax. Whether or not any North Dakota income tax is withheld from royalty payments attributable to North Dakota oil and gas production, a nonresident royalty owner is required to file a North Dakota income tax return and pay any tax due on the royalty income. Persons responsible for making oil and gas royalty payments are required to file a copy of the federal Form 1099-MISC issued to royalty owners with the North Dakota Office of State Tax Commissioner. This applies whether or not any North Dakota income tax is withheld from the royalty payments.

Other items to note

Maximum marriage penalty tax credit reduced

The maximum amount of the marriage penalty tax credit for the 2013 tax year decreased from $234 to $198. This decrease is attributable to the reduction in the individual income tax rates for the 2013 tax year. This and other changes to the marriage penalty tax credit have been incorporated into the credit calculation worksheet on page 14 of this booklet.

Filing by individuals in a same-sex marriage

A marriage of two individuals of the same sex that is validly entered into in a state whose laws authorize a same-sex marriage will be recognized for federal income tax purposes. For tax years 2013 and after, these individuals are considered married for federal income tax purposes and must use the filing status of married filing jointly or married filing separately on their federal income tax returns.

North Dakota law does not recognize a same-sex marriage, even if it was validly entered into under another state's law. Individuals who entered into a same-sex marriage recognized by another state may not file a North Dakota income tax return using the filing status of married filing jointly or married filing separately. Instead, the following rules apply to the filing of the North Dakota income tax return:

- Each individual must file a separate Form ND-1 using the filing status of single or, if qualified, head of household.
- Each individual must use the tax rates corresponding to the single or head of household filing status.
- If the individuals file a joint federal income tax return, they must complete North Dakota Schedule ND-1S. On this schedule, they must determine their separate shares of the adjusted gross income and taxable income amounts reported on their joint federal return. They will use their separate shares of these amounts to complete their separate North Dakota returns.

For more information, obtain the Income Tax Guideline: Filing By Individuals In A Same-Sex Marriage.

Who must file a return

Full-year resident

If you were a full-year resident of North Dakota for the 2013 tax year and you are required to file a 2013 federal individual income tax return, you must file a 2013
North Dakota individual income tax return. This applies even though you may have worked outside North Dakota (including employment overseas) during the tax year, or you have other income from sources outside North Dakota. You were a full-year resident of North Dakota if you were a resident of North Dakota for the entire tax year, or you meet the statutory 7-month rule-see Statutory 7-month rule on this page.

Definition of resident-In these instructions, the term "resident" refers to an individual who is a legal resident of North Dakota. Legal residence (which is also called domicile) means the place that is your permanent home to which you always intend to return whenever absent from it. If you have more than one physical place of abode, only one of them may be your legal residence. Legal residence is based on your intent and your actions.

Statutory 7-month rule-Even though you were not a resident of North Dakota for any part of the tax year-that is, you were a full-year nonresident-you must file as a full-year resident of North Dakota if you maintain a permanent place of abode in North Dakota and spend in the aggregate more than 210 days of the tax year in North Dakota. A permanent place of abode means a house, apartment, or other dwelling containing cooking and bathroom facilities that is suitable for year-round living and is maintained on a permanent or indefinite basis. This 7-month rule does not apply if you were (1) a part-year resident of North Dakota, (2) a full-year nonresident serving in the U.S. armed forces, or (3) a fullyear resident of Montana or Minnesota covered by reciprocity.

Residents in U.S. armed forces-If you were a resident of North Dakota serving in the U.S. armed forces in 2013 and you are required to file a 2013 federal individual income tax return, you must file a 2013 North Dakota individual income tax return as a full-year resident. This applies regardless of where you were stationed during 2013.

Civilian spouse of U.S. armed forces

 member-If you are a civilian spouse of a U.S. armed forces servicemember, you are subject to North Dakota income tax and must file a 2013 North Dakota individual income tax return if (1) you were a full-year resident of North Dakota for the 2013 tax year and (2) you are required to file a 2013 federal individual income tax return. This applies regardless of your military spouse's state of residence, where you resided, or the source of your income.
Full-year nonresident

If you were a full-year nonresident of North Dakota for the 2013 tax year, you must file a 2013 North Dakota individual income tax return if both of the following apply:

- You are required to file a 2013 federal individual income tax return.
- You derived gross income from North Dakota sources during the 2013 tax year. (See the box on page 5 for what is included in gross income from North Dakota sources.)

You were a full-year nonresident if you were not a resident of North Dakota for any part of the tax year and if you do not meet the statutory 7-month rule-see Statutory 7-month rule on page 4.

Nonresidents in U.S. armed forcesIf you were a full-year nonresident of North Dakota serving in the U.S. armed forces in 2013, you do not have to file a North Dakota income tax return unless (1) you have gross income from North Dakota sources other than your military compensation or (2) you are married and filing a joint federal income tax return with your spouse who is required to file a North Dakota income tax return.

Civilian spouse of U.S. armed forces member-If you are a civilian spouse of a U.S. armed forces servicemember, you are not subject to North Dakota income tax and do not have to file a 2013 North Dakota individual income tax return if (1) both you and your spouse were full-year nonresidents of North Dakota, (2) your military spouse's permanent duty station was in North Dakota, (3) your only gross income from North Dakota sources was wages for work performed in North Dakota, and (4) you resided in North Dakota only because you wanted to live with your military spouse. If you meet all of these conditions and your employer withheld North Dakota income tax from your wages, you must file a return to obtain a refund of the withheld taxes.

Minnesota or Montana resident-

 If you were a full-year resident of Minnesota for the 2013 tax year, you do not have to file a 2013 North Dakota individual income tax return if both of the following apply:- Your only gross income from North Dakota sources was compensation for personal or professional services.
- You returned to your home in Minnesota at least once each month during the time you worked in North Dakota.

If you were a full-year resident of Montana for the 2013 tax year, you do not have to file a 2013 North Dakota individual income tax return if your only gross income from North Dakota sources was wages.

See Reciprocity on page 6 for more information.

Gross income from North Dakota sources (for nonresidents only)

In the case of a nonresident, "gross income from North Dakota sources" includes the following:

- Compensation for services performed in North Dakota, such as wages, salaries, tips, commissions, and fees.
- Income from tangible property in North Dakota, such as rents, oil and gas royalties, and gain from the sale or exchange of the property.
- Income from a trade or business carried on in North Dakota, whether as a sole proprietorship, partnership, or S corporation.
- Income from an estate or trust, but only to the extent the income is derived from tangible property or a trade or business in North Dakota.
- Income from gambling activity carried on in North Dakota.
- Unemployment compensation attributable to previous employment in North Dakota.

Exceptions

Gross income from North Dakota sources does not include these items received while a nonresident of North Dakota: military pay, interest, dividends, pensions, annuities, gain from the sale or exchange of intangible property, compensation exempted under reciprocity with Minnesota or Montana, compensation exempted under federal military and interstate commerce laws, or compensation exempted under North Dakota's mobile workforce exemption.

Note: Interest, dividends, gains, and other income from intangible property are included in gross income from North Dakota sources if derived from a trade or business carried on in North Dakota, whether as a sole proprietorship, partnership, or S corporation.

Nonresident alien-If you were a nonresident alien of the United States and you received gross income from North Dakota sources during 2013, you must file a 2013 North Dakota individual income tax return. Except where an income tax treaty between the United States and a foreign country specifically exempts income from taxation by a U.S. state, income tax treaties between the U.S. and foreign countries do not apply for North Dakota income tax purposes. Therefore, you may have to pay North Dakota income tax on gross income from North Dakota sources even though the income is exempt from U.S. income tax because of a treaty. For more information, including the instructions on how to complete the North Dakota return, obtain the Income Tax Guideline: Taxation of Nonresident Aliens.

Part-year resident

If you were a part-year resident of North Dakota for the 2013 tax year, you must file a 2013 North Dakota individual income tax return if both of the following apply:

- You are required to file a 2013 federal individual income tax return.
- You derived gross income from (1) any source inside or outside North Dakota while you were a resident of North Dakota or (2) a North Dakota source while you were a nonresident of North Dakota. (See the box on this page for what is included in gross income from North Dakota sources while a nonresident.)

You were a part-year resident of North Dakota if you were a resident of North Dakota for only part of the year. This generally applies if you moved into or out of North Dakota and the move constituted a change in your legal residence. See Definition of resident on page 4.

Native Americans

If you are a Native American, you are not subject to North Dakota income tax and do not have to file a North Dakota income tax return if all of the following apply:

- You are enrolled as a member of a federally-recognized Indian tribe.
- You lived on any Indian reservation in North Dakota.
- You derived all of your income from sources on any Indian reservation in North Dakota.

If any of the above criteria are not met, you may be subject to North Dakota income tax. For more information, obtain the Income Tax Guideline: Income Taxation of Native Americans.

Which form to use

This booklet contains Form ND-EZ and Form ND-1. If you are required to file a 2013 North Dakota individual income tax return, see the box on this page to determine which of these two forms to use. However, if you are in a same-sex marriage that was validly entered into in another state, you must use Form ND-1. Obtain the Income Tax Guideline: Filing By Individuals In A Same-Sex Marriage for more information.

Reciprocity

North Dakota has income tax reciprocity agreements with the states of Minnesota and Montana. If certain conditions in the agreements are met, compensation for services is taxable only by the state of residence.

Minnesota and Montana residents

If you are a resident of Minnesota and you maintain a permanent home in Minnesota to which you return at least once each month during the time you work in North Dakota, the compensation you receive for personal or professional services performed in North Dakota is not taxable by North Dakota. If you are a resident of Montana, wages you receive for work performed in North Dakota are not taxable by North Dakota.

If you received wages covered by reciprocity, and your employer withheld North Dakota income tax from them, you must file a North Dakota individual income tax return at the end of the tax

If you received wages covered by reciprocity and your employer withheld Minnesota or Montana income tax from them, you must file an income tax return with the applicable state to obtain a refund of the amount withheld. If your wages are covered by reciprocity and you do not want your employer to withhold Minnesota or Montana tax from them, you must give your employer a properly completed Minnesota Form MW-R or Montana Form NR-2, whichever applies. This includes the automatic extension allowed for being outside the U.S. and Puerto Rico on April 15. You do not have to file a separate state extension form, nor do you have to notify the Office of State Tax Commissioner that you have obtained a federal extension prior to filing your North Dakota return. Fill in the circle next to "Extension" on Form ND-EZ or Form ND-1, whichever applies.

North Dakota extension

If you do not obtain a federal extension, but need additional time to file your North Dakota return, you may apply for a North Dakota extension by completing and filing Form 101. This is not an automatic extension-you must have good cause to request a North Dakota extension. Form 101 must be postmarked on or before the due date of your return. You will be notified whether your extension request is approved or rejected. If approved, fill in the circle next to "Extension" on Form ND-EZ or Form ND-1, whichever applies.

Extension interest

If you obtain an extension and file your North Dakota return on or before the extended due date, and you pay any tax balance due with the return, no penalty will be charged. Interest on any tax due on the return will be charged at the rate of $12 \%$ per year from the original due date of your return to the earlier of the date you file your return or the extended due date.

Prepayment of tax due

If you are applying for an extension of time to file, you may prepay the tax that you expect to owe to avoid paying extension interest. To do so, submit your check or money order along with a completed 2013 Form ND-1EXT on or before April 15, 2014. Alternatively, you may submit your payment along with a letter containing the following:

- Your name.
- Your social security number.
- Your address and phone number.
- Statement that you are making a 2013

Form ND-1EXT payment.
If you prepay your tax using
Form ND-1EXT, you must file
Form ND-1 and claim the payment on page 2, line 29; you may not file Form ND-EZ.

Penalty and interest

If you obtain an extension of time to file your return, you may pay the tax due by the extended due date of the return without penalty, but extension interest will apply-see Extension interest and Prepayment of tax due on this page.

If you file your return by its due date (or extended due date), but you do not pay all of the tax due on it by the return's due date (or extended due date), a penalty equal to $5 \%$ of the tax due or $$ 5.00$, whichever is greater, must be paid.
If you do not file your return by its due date (or extended due date), a penalty equal to $5 \%$ of the tax due or $$ 5.00$, whichever is greater, applies for the month the return was due, with an additional $5 \%$ of the tax due for each month (or fraction of a month) the return remains delinquent, not to exceed $25 \%$ of the tax due.

In addition to any penalty, interest must be paid at the rate of $1 \%$ per month (or fraction of a month), except for the month in which the tax was due, on any tax due that remains unpaid after the return's due date (or extended due date).

Federal income tax return

Certain information from your 2013 federal individual income tax returnForm 1040, 1040A, or 1040EZ-is needed to properly complete your 2013 North Dakota individual income tax return. Therefore, you must complete your federal return before you attempt to complete your North Dakota return.

In addition, you must attach a complete copy of your federal income tax return to your North Dakota return. A complete copy consists of Form 1040, 1040A, or 1040 EZ , along with any supplemental forms and schedules. You do not have to include depreciation schedules or any other statements that you may have prepared as supporting documentation to your federal return.

Changing your return

If you need to change your North Dakota return after you file it, you must file an amended return. There is no special form for this purpose. See How to prepare an amended return on page 8.

If you paid too much tax because of an error in your return, you generally have three years after you file your original return to file an amended return to correct the error and claim a refund of the overpayment. There are other time periods that may apply, such as in the case of a net operating loss carryback, an overstatement of tax of over $25 \%$, or an IRS audit. For these and other time periods that may apply, see North Dakota Century Code § 57-38-40 or contact the Office of State Tax Commissioner.

Penalty and interest apply to additional tax due on an amended return.

Change to federal return

By law, you must file an amended North Dakota return to report changes made to your federal return. This applies whether the changes are attributable to your filing of an amended federal return or an audit or correction by the IRS. The amended North Dakota return must be filed within 90 days after filing the amended federal return or within 90 days after the final determination of the IRS changes.

How to prepare an amended return

1. Obtain a blank North Dakota individual income tax return for the tax year affected by the changes. For tax years before 2009, use Form ND-1 or Form ND-2, whichever applies. For tax years after 2008, you must use Form ND-1.
2. Enter your name, current address, social security number, and other information required in the top portion of the return.
3. Fill in the circle next to "Amended return: General" or "Amended return: Federal NOL," whichever applies, in the top right-hand corner of the return. See "Amended return" on page 11 for more information.
4. Complete the return through the net tax liability line.
5. Leave the line for income tax withholding blank unless you are claiming an additional amount not previously claimed.
6. On the "Total payments" line, enter the net tax liability shown on your original return or previously filed amended return. If the net tax liability has not been fully paid at the time the amended return is filed, only enter the amount of tax that has been paid.
7. Complete the remaining portion of the return according to the instructions. On an amended return, you may not adjust the amount of any voluntary contribution to the wildlife or trees funds, nor the amount of an overpayment applied to the next year's estimated tax.
8. Attach a statement explaining why you are changing your return. If you are doing so because of changes you or the IRS made to your federal return, attach a copy of the amended federal return or IRS notice.

Estimated tax requirement (for 2014)

You must pay estimated North Dakota income tax for the 2014 tax year if all of the following conditions apply:

1. You are required to pay estimated federal income tax for 2014.
2. Your North Dakota net tax liability for 2013 is $$ 1,000$ or more. (If you are not required to file a North Dakota return for 2013, you do not have to pay estimated tax for 2014.)
3. You expect to owe (after subtracting any estimated North Dakota income tax withholding) at least $$ 1,000$ in North Dakota income tax for 2014.
4. You expect your North Dakota income tax withholding for 2014 to be less than the smaller of the following:
(a) $90 \%$ of your 2014 North Dakota net tax liability. Note: Substitute 66 2/3\% if a qualified farmer-see instructions for 2014 Form ND-1ES.
(b) $100 \%$ of your 2013 North Dakota net tax liability. If you moved into North Dakota during 2013 and had no income from North Dakota prior to the move, this $100 \%$ threshold does not apply; you must satisfy the $90 \%$ threshold in part (a).

In general, one-fourth (25\%) of the total estimated tax required to be paid for the 2014 tax year must be paid by April 15, June 15, and September 15, 2014, and January 15, 2015.
If you are required to pay estimated tax for 2014, obtain the 2014 Form ND-1ES, Estimated income tax-individuals.

How to file a return for a deceased taxpayer

If a final federal income tax return is required to be filed for a decedent for the year of death, a final North Dakota income tax return also must be filed. A court-appointed personal representative is responsible for filing the decedent's final return, even if there is a surviving spouse. The information from the final federal return is used to complete the final North Dakota return, and the North Dakota return is to be signed in the same manner as required for federal income tax purposes. If there is a personal representative and no surviving spouse, a copy of the court document showing the appointment must be attached to the final return. If there is a surviving spouse and the final return will be filed on a joint basis, a refund will be mailed in both spouses' names.

If a surviving spouse experiences any problem with depositing or cashing a refund check, or if there is no surviving spouse and no personal representative has been appointed for the decedent, contact the Individual Income Tax Section, Office of State Tax Commissioner for assistance (see the back cover of this booklet).

Fill in the circle for "Deceased" and enter the date of death next to the deceased taxpayer's name on Form ND-EZ or Form ND-1, whichever applies.

This authorization only applies to the individual whose printed name and signature appear in the preparer's signature area (and not to any firm). It only applies to your 2013 return and automatically expires on the due date (excluding extensions) for filing the 2014 return. \section*{Line 33 - Voluntary contribution of overpayment}

Account number (Item b)—Enter your account number. It may have up to 17 digits (both letters and numbers). Include hyphens, but omit special symbols. If depositing into a checking account, see the sample check on this page for where to find this number. If depositing into a savings account without a check writing feature, check your bank statement or ask your financial institution for the correct account number to use.

\section*{Please note:}
- Do not use the number shown on a deposit slip for the routing or account number.
- You will not receive notification of when the deposit is made by our office. Contact your bank or review your bank statement to see if your refund has been direct deposited.
- If the routing or account number is incorrect, or if your bank does not accept the direct deposit, a paper check will be issued.
- Due to changes in the electronic banking rules, the Office of State Tax Commissioner will not allow a direct deposit to or through a foreign financial institution. In this case, a paper check will be issued.

Line 36 - Penalty and interest Our office will notify you of any penalty and interest owed for late filing or late payment, or interest owed on tax due during an extension period. However, you may calculate the amount of penalty, interest, or both, that you owe and pay it with your return.

See Penalty and interest on page 7 for how to calculate penalty and interest. Enter the separate penalty and interest amounts, and the total of the two amounts, on the applicable lines.

Electronic payment options. Instead of paying by paper check or money order, you may pay the balance due electronically by phone or online through Link2Gov Corporation, a national electronic payment service. Through this service, you may pay by credit or debit card, or by electronic check. To pay electronically-
- go to www.ndtaxpayment.com, or
- call toll free 1-888-ND-TAXES
(1-888-638-2937).

\section*{Line 39 - I nterest on underpaid estimated tax}

\section*{Signatures}

Sign and date your return. If you are filing a joint return, both spouses must sign.

\section*{Disclosure authorization}

You may authorize the Office of State Tax Commissioner (Tax Department) to directly contact your tax return preparer to discuss your 2013 return by checking the box to the right of the signature area on the return. This allows the Tax Department to ask questions and request missing information needed to process your return. It also allows your preparer to respond to the questions and provide the requested information, to check on the status of your return's processing, and to respond to notices that you received. (Note: The Tax Department will only send notices directly to you.)

This authorization only applies to the individual whose printed name and signature appear in the preparer's signature area (and not to any firm). It only applies to your 2013 return and automatically expires on the due date (excluding extensions) for filing the 2014 return. It does not allow your preparer to receive your refund check, to bind you in any way, or to otherwise represent you before the Tax Department.

\section*{Before you file, did you-}
\(\square\) Write your social security number on return? We use this number to identify your return.

\section*{\(\square\) Check your math?}

This is one of the most common errors made.

\section*{\(\square\) Sign your return?}

An unsigned return is incomplete and will be sent back to you.
\(\square\) Include all Form \(\mathbf{W}\)-2s?
Also include a copy of a 1099 or Schedule K-1 showing North Dakota withholding.

\section*{\(\square\) I nclude a copy of your federal return?}

Your return is incomplete without it and will be sent back to you.
\(\square\) Use the right address?
Use the preprinted envelope or see page 7 for address.
\(\square\) Use the correct postage?
Avoid mailing problems and possible late filing charges by using the correct postage.
Missing a signature or copy of federal return? If your return is missing your signature or a copy of your federal return, it will be sent back to you. This may result in late filing and payment charges if you resubmit it after the due date.

\section*{The Trees for North Dakota Income Tax Check-Off}

The Threat: Emerald ash borer (EAB) is a highly invasive, exotic insect that attacks and kills all species of ash trees. It is as close as St. Paul, Minnesota. If EAB becomes established here, the economic and environmental impacts will be overwhelming. There are an estimated 78 million ash trees within North Dakota’s forests and woodlands. Ash is the most common tree planted in communities, reaching \(60 \%\) of the tree population in some towns. Ash also represents a large percentage of the state's 55,000 miles of field and farmstead windbreaks. Costs of removing, disposing and replacing trees lost to EAB, coupled with the economic benefits associated with trees lost, such as reduced energy costs and ecosystem services, the insect's impact could far exceed $1 billion dollars!

How You Can Help: Each of us has the ability to play an important role in the overall health and well-being of our forest resources by making a donation to the Trees for North Dakota Trust Fund. The "Community Family Forest" grant program, funded by private donations to the Trees for North Dakota Trust Fund, helps communities diversify their forest resources by planting a variety of trees adapted to North Dakota's climate. Our collective efforts can make incredible contributions to the quality of life in North Dakota for all who live and visit here. Please consider a donation today.

To contribute to the Trees for North Dakota Trust Fund, consult your tax preparer or enter a voluntary contribution on the 2012 North Dakota Individual Income Tax Return (see below):

Form ND-EZ: Refund return (Line 5)/Tax due (Line 8)
Form ND-1: Refund return (Line 33)/Tax due (Line 37)
"Community Family Forest" grants are awarded to purchase and plant trees on public property across the state. The grants help strengthen the tradition of annual tree planting.

\section*{2013 Tax Table}

Example. Mr. and Mrs. Brown are full-year residents of North Dakota and are filing a joint return. Their North Dakota taxable income is \($ 49,935\). First, they find \($ 49,900-\) \($ 49,950\) in the ND taxable income column. Next, they find the "Married filing jointly" filing status column and read down the column. The amount shown where the ND taxable income line and the filing status column meet is \($ 609\). This is their tax.

Note: If Mr. or Mrs. Brown (or both) were part-year residents or full-year nonresidents of North Dakota, they would enter the \($ 609\) on Schedule ND-1NR, line 20, and complete the remainder of that schedule to calculate their tax.
