General Instructions:

Any classroom teacher, including a classroom teacher at a South Carolina private school, who is not eligible for the teacher supplies reimbursement under Budget Proviso 1A.12, may claim a refundable credit on his or her 2013 individual income tax return for qualifying expenditures made on or after July 1, 2013, on an original or amended tax return filed on or before June 30, 2014.

The credit amount is $275 or the amount the teacher expends on teacher supplies and materials, whichever is less. The Department of Revenue may require whatever proof it deems necessary to implement the credit provided by this part of this provision.

Social Security Privacy Act Disclosure

It is mandatory that you provide your social security number on this tax form if you are an individual taxpayer. 42 U.S.C. 405(c)(2)(C)(i) permits a state to use an individual's social security number as means of identification in administration of any tax. SC Regulation 117-201 mandates that any person required to make a return to the SC Department of Revenue shall provide identifying numbers, as prescribed, for securing proper identification. Your social security number is used for identification purposes.

The Family Privacy Protection Act

Under the Family Privacy Protection Act, the collection of personal information from citizens by the Department of Revenue is limited to the information necessary for the Department to fulfill its statutory duties. In most instances, once this information is collected by the Department, it is protected by law from public disclosure. In those situations where public disclosure is not prohibited, the Family Privacy Protection Act prevents such information from being used by third parties for commercial solicitation purposes.
