SENIOR CITIZENS REFUNDABLE CREDIT INFORMATION

If you recently received a WV/SCTC-1 in the mail from the West Virginia State Tax Department for the Homestead Exemption program administered at the county level, you may be entitled to claim a refundable state income tax credit. The credit is based on the amount of ad valorem property taxes paid on the first $20,000, or portion thereof, of the taxable assessed value over the $20,000 Homestead Exemption. Persons who pay the federal alternative minimum tax are not eligible to claim this credit.

The refundable income tax credit eligibility is restricted to those who participate in the Homestead Exemption Program through the County Assessor's office and meet the following criteria:

1. You must owe and pay a property tax liability on the homestead exemption eligible home (i.e. the assessed value of the eligible home must be greater than $20,000 prior to the application of the homestead exemption) and;

2. Your Federal Adjusted Gross Income must meet the low-income test. FEDERAL ADJUSTED GROSS INCOME means the income reported on your federal tax return (e.g., Form 1040, 1040A, or 1040EZ).

If you were NOT required to file a federal tax return, complete the following income worksheet to determine your income for the year. Do not include social security benefits.

EXAMPLE OF SENIOR CITIZEN DEDUCTION CALCULATION

John Doe, age 69, and Mary Doe, age 65, file a joint tax return. They received the following income in 2013.

|                                 | John   | Mary   |
|---------------------------------|--------|--------|
| West Virginia Police Retirement | 7,000  | 0      |
| IRA Distributions               | 4,000  | 1,000  |
| Wages and Salaries              | 0      | 10,000 |
| Interest (jointly held)         | 1,500  | 1,500  |
| US Savings Bond Interest        | 500    | 500    |
| Total Income                    | 13,000 | 13,000 |

Their federal adjusted gross income which they report on line 1 of their West Virginia IT-140 is $26,000. Property which John and Mary hold jointly is split between them according to their percentage of ownership. In this case, each taxpayer owned 50% of the joint income.

- Mr. Doe's total income is 13,000. However, he reported his police pension on line 40 and his share of their joint savings bond interest on line 39 of Schedule M. Therefore, he reports $5,500 on line 51(a) of Schedule M ($13,000 minus $7,000 minus $500).
- Mrs. Doe's total income is also $13,000. She enters $12,500 on line 51(a) of Schedule M ($13,000 less her share of their jointly-held savings bond interest reported [$500] on line 39).
- 3. Mr. Doe enters $7,500 on line 51(c) of Schedule M ($500 from line 39 plus $7,000 from line 40). He then subtracts line 51(c) from line 51(b) and enters the result ($500) on line 51(d).
- 4. Mrs. Doe enters the $500 from line 39 on line 51(c). She then subtracts line 51(c) from line 51(b) and enters the result ($7,500) on line 51(d).
- 5. Mr. and Mrs. Doe are each allowed the smaller of the amounts shown on line 51(a) and 51(d) as their senior citizen deduction. Therefore, Mr. Doe enters $500 on line 51 and Mrs. Doe enters $7,500 on line 51.

|       | John  | Mary   |
|-------|-------|--------|
| 51(a) | 5,500 | 12,500 |
| 51(b) | 8,000 | 8,000  |
| 51(c) | 7,500 | 500    |
