GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

Note: The use of federal Form 7004 or other forms is not allowed as a substitute for Form N-301, Application For Automatic Extension of Time To File Hawaii Return for a Corporation, Partnership, Trust, or REMIC.

1. Purpose. — Use this form to ask for an automatic 6-month extension of time to file Form N-20, N-30, N-35, N-40, N-66, N-70NP, or N-310. File this form to request an extension even if you are not making a payment.

An extension of time to file your income tax return will not extend the time to pay your income tax. Therefore, you must pay the income tax balance due (i.e., total income tax liability reduced by payments and credits) in full with this form.

Do not request an automatic extension if you are under a court order to file your return by the regular due date.

The extension will be granted if you complete this form properly, file it on time, pay with it the amount of tax shown on line 5 of the Income Tax Balance Due Worksheet and meet the conditions indicated on page 2.

Amount of Payment

In no case shall the extension be granted for a period of more than 6 months beyond the prescribed due date of the return.

For extension requirement purposes, Hawaii does not conform to Treasury Regs. section 1.1502-76. For Hawaii income tax purposes, a corporation shall not be allowed an extension beyond 6 months. Corporations required to file a short year federal return under the above regulation and not able to file their Hawaii return on time should request an extension for the short year on or before the twentieth day of the fourth month following the end of the short year. Attach a letter of explanation to the front of the Hawaii return when it is filed.

An automatic extension of time for filing a return shall be allowed upon the following two conditions:

- You complete this form properly, file it, and pay any or properly estimated balance due on line 5 of the Income Tax Balance Due Worksheet by the prescribed due date for the return for which the extension applies.
- Within the time specified by the automatic extension, the return shall be filed, accompanied by payment of the tax to the extent not already paid.

One hundred percent of the properly estimated tax liability must be paid on or before the prescribed due date of your return. Properly estimated tax liability means the taxpayer made a bonafide and reasonable attempt at the time the extension was submitted to locate and gather all of the necessary information to make a proper estimate of tax liability for the taxable year.

The Director of Taxation may terminate the automatic extension at any time by mailing a notice of termination to the entity or to the person who requested the extension for the entity. The notice will be mailed at least 10 days prior to the termination date designated in the notice.

Note: Only those taxpayers whose automatic extension has been rejected will be notified by the Department of Taxation.
