Calculation of Interest on Underpayment of Estimated Taxes – Short Method Worksheet

(If you made estimated tax payments, Form 2M or Form 2 would be a better option for you.)

Montana law requires you to pay your income tax liability throughout the year. You can make your payments through employer withholding, through installment payments of estimated taxes, or through a combination of employer withholding and estimated tax payments. You are not required to make estimated tax payments if one of the following conditions applies to you:

- Your combined tax liability after you applied your withholding and estimated tax payments is less than $500.
- You did not have a 2013 income tax liability and you were a citizen or resident of the United States the entire year.
- You retired in either 2013 or 2014 after reaching the age of 62.
- You became disabled in either 2013 or 2014.
- You are a farmer or rancher and 66-2/3% of your 2014 gross income is derived from your farming and ranching operation. Your 66-2/3% farming and ranching income is determined annually and is based on your 2014 gross income. Montana does not apply a "lookback" provision in determining farming and ranching gross income.

If you did not pay in advance at least 90% of your 2014 income tax liability (after applying your credits) or 100% of your 2013 income tax liability (after applying your credits), you may have to pay interest on the underpayment of your estimated taxes.

If you are required to pay interest on your underpayment, you can use this short method to determine your interest, but only if one of the following conditions applies to you:

- You made no estimated tax payments (in other words, your only payments were Montana withholding); or
- You made four equal estimated payments by the required due dates.

If you are not eligible to use this short method to calculate your interest on your underpayment, use Montana Form EST-1, Interest on Underpayment of Estimated Tax Payments. This form is available on our website at revenue.mt.gov, or call us toll-free at (866) 859-2254 (in Helena, 444-6900).
