Who can claim this credit?

A person may claim this credit for the certified expenditures of the following activities that are performed on land in Montana to determine the existence, location, extent, or quality of a mineral or coal deposit, regardless of who owns the land:

- Surveying by geophysical or geochemical methods;
- Drilling exploration holes;
- Conducting underground exploration;
- Surface trenching and bulk sampling; or
- Performing other exploratory work, including aerial photographs, geological and geophysical logging, sample analysis, and metallurgical testing.

A person must apply for the certification of expenditures incurred by submitting Form MINE-CERT to the department within 60 days after the close of the calendar year. The department will make a determination of the certification by September 30. Please see Form MINE-CERT and its instructions for more information on the application process. This form is available on our website at revenue.mt.gov.

How do I claim this credit when I am a partner or shareholder in a partnership or S corporation?

When the expenditures of a partnership or S corporation are certified, the entity will report the credit on its information return and provide you with your portion of the credit.

Your portion of the credit that your S corporation or partnership passes through to you is based on the same proportion you use to report your income and loss for Montana tax purposes.

When your S corporation or partnership passes through a credit, remember to enter the entity’s name, federal employer identification number and your portion of the credit in the space provided.

Can I carry any excess mineral and coal exploration incentive credit back to a prior year or forward to a subsequent year?

This credit may be carried forward 15 years.

What information do I have to include with my return when I claim this credit?

If you file your Montana tax return electronically, you do not need to mail this form to us unless we ask you for a copy. When you file electronically, you represent that you have retained the required documents in your tax records and will provide them upon the department’s request.

If you file your Montana individual income tax return or corporate income tax return on paper, include copies of Forms MINE-CRED and MINE-CERT (showing certified expenditures). A separate Form MINE-CERT needs to be completed for each entity with a distinct mining operation.

If you file your Montana partnership return, Form PR-1, or your Montana S corporation return, Form CLT-4S, on paper, include copies of Forms MINE-CRED and MINE-CERT (showing certified expenditures) and a supplemental schedule identifying each partner or shareholder and their portion of the credit.

What limitations apply to this credit?

The credit earned each year is limited to 50% of the certified expenditures for that year and may not exceed a total of $20 million for all years. The credit used each year is limited to 50% of that year’s tax liability.
