General information

New York State rural electric cooperative corporations or foreign non-profit or cooperative corporations doing business in New York State pursuant to the Rural Electric Cooperative Law are not liable for franchise, excise, income, corporation and sales and compensating use taxes. The exemption from the sales and compensating use taxes does not apply to the taxes imposed by Article 28, sections 1107 and 1108 of the Tax Law. The cooperative corporations are not exempt from collecting and paying sales and compensating use taxes on retail sales of tangible personal property and services made to purchasers required to pay such taxes imposed by Articles 28 and 29 of the Tax Law.

In place of the taxes listed above, a license fee of $10.00 must be paid annually on or before July 1.

Who must file

New York State cooperative non-profit membership corporations organized under the Rural Electric Cooperative Law and foreign non-profit or cooperative corporations that supply electric energy in rural areas must file this form.

Rural areas means any area of the state not included within the boundaries of any city or village having a population in excess of one thousand inhabitants.
