Contributions made on or after January 1, 2015 may be claimed as a credit on the corresponding Colorado income tax return. The maximum credit is 25% of the amount in Box A or $5,000, whichever is less. If multiple donations are made within a taxable year, the credit shall be the sum of all amounts contained in Box A of the certification forms, subject to the limitation described above.

Taxpayers cannot claim this credit if they claim the Corporate income tax credit for crop or livestock contributions [39-22-301(3), C.R.S.] or if they claim the Individual income tax deduction for qualifying charitable contributions [39-22-104(4)(m), C.R.S.]. Copies of this form must be submitted with any Colorado income tax return claiming this credit.
