

What is the purpose of Form IL-516-I and Form IL-516-B?

For tax years ending on or after December 31, 2014, Form IL-516-I and Form IL-516-B, Pass-through Prepayment Vouchers, allow taxpayers to

- voluntarily prepay pass-through withholding on behalf of their partners, shareholders, or beneficiaries, and
- voluntarily prepay their own tax liability from
  - Form IL-1065, Partnership Replacement Tax Return,
  - Form IL-1120-ST, Small Business Corporation Replacement Tax Return, or
  - Form IL-1041, Fiduciary Income and Replacement Tax Return.

Note Form IL-1023-C, Composite Income and Replacement Tax Return, and Form IL-1000, Pass-through Entity Payment Income Tax Return, have been eliminated for tax years ending on or after December 31, 2014. Amounts that would have been reported on Form IL-1023-C and Form IL-1000 will be reported on Form IL-1065, Form IL-1120-ST, or Form IL-1041. In addition, these amounts will be paid with those returns, with Form IL-505-B, Automatic Extension Payment, or voluntarily prepaid with Form IL-516-I or Form IL-516-B.

Form IL-1023-CES, Composite Estimated Tax Payments for Partners and Shareholders, and Form IL-1000-P, Prepayment Voucher for Pass-through Entity Payments, also have been eliminated and cannot be used for making prepayments for tax years ending on or after December 31, 2014. These vouchers have been replaced by Form IL-516-I and Form IL-516-B.

Should I use Form IL-516-I or Form IL-516-B?

Form IL-516-I is used to

- voluntarily prepay pass-through withholding on behalf of your nonresident individual and estate members only.

Form IL-516-B is used to

- voluntarily prepay your own estimated tax liability, and
- voluntarily prepay pass-through withholding on behalf of your partnership or S corporation, nonresident trust, and corporation members.

Depending on the types of your members and whether or not you wish to prepay your own estimated tax liability, you could file Form IL-516-I, Form IL-516-B, or both. Step 1 will assist you in determining which voucher(s) you should use.

Note Different entity types use different calculations to determine the amount of voluntary prepayment to be reported on Form IL-516-I or Form IL-516-B. Using the incorrect voucher may result in a delay in the processing of your annual Illinois Income Tax return (i.e., Form IL-1065, Form IL-1120-ST, or Form IL-1041). Follow the instructions on the Form IL-516-I and Form IL-516-B worksheets to ensure you are using the correct voucher for the entity type for which you wish to make prepayments.

Am I required to make prepayments?

No. A partnership, S corporation, or fiduciary is not required to make prepayments of its own estimated tax liability. It also is not required to make pass-through withholding prepayments on behalf of its partners, shareholders, or beneficiaries.

However, it may make voluntary prepayments of such amounts by filing Form IL-516-I or Form IL-516-B.

Complete the worksheets for Form IL-516-I and Form IL-516-B, as applicable, to figure your voluntary prepayment amounts.

What are the voluntary prepayment due dates?

Prepayments using Form IL-516-I or Form IL-516-B are entirely voluntary. There are no required due dates for making prepayments. However, we do provide a suggested payment schedule on Form IL-516-I and Form IL-516-B that you may follow if you wish to make your prepayments in four equal installments during the course of a year.

Can I use another voucher to make prepayments?

No. Using a voucher other than Form IL-516-I or Form IL-516-B to make these voluntary prepayments may result in your funds being misapplied to other tax types, and result in processing delays when you file your annual Illinois Income Tax return (i.e., Form IL-1065, Form IL-1120-ST, or Form IL-1041).

Can I make my prepayments electronically?

Yes. If you prefer to make your payments electronically, use MyTax Illinois or see Form EFT-1, Authorization Agreement for Certain Electronic Payments. These options can be found on our website at tax.illinois.gov.

Note If you make your payments electronically, do not send us your Form IL-516-I or Form IL-516-B.

Where should I mail my prepayments?

You should mail your payment, with your voucher, to the address listed on the voucher you are using.

Attach each payment to the Form IL-516-I or Form IL-516-B voucher. Do not send prepayments with your annual return. Make your check or money order payable to "Illinois Department of Revenue."
