2015 Schedule M1LS Instruction

Should I file Schedule M1LS?

If you received a lump-sum distribution from a pension, profit-sharing or stock bonus plan in 2015, you must file Schedule M1LS if both of the following conditions apply:

- you filed federal Form 4972, Tax on Lump-Sum Distributions, and
- you were a Minnesota resident when you received any portion of the lump-sum distribution.

You must include Schedule M1LS and a copy of your federal Form 4972 when you file Form M1.

What if I moved into our out of Minnesota in 2015?

If you received the full amount of the distribution while you were a nonresident of Minnesota, you do not have to complete Schedule M1LS.

If you received a portion while you were a nonresident and a portion while you were a resident, you must complete Schedule M1LS and include the full amount from federal Form 4972 on your Schedule M1LS.

Five-Year Averaging Method

Even though federal Form 4972 allows you to use only the ten-year averaging method, you must use the five-year averaging method for Minnesota.

Capital Gain Election

Minnesota does not allow a capital gain election for lump-sum distributions. Therefore, any capital gain reported on federal Form 4972, line 6, must be reported as an addition to federal taxable income on line 12 of Schedule M1M.

Line Instructions

Line 2
