Schedule K – Charitable Deduction

If the charitable character of the organization is not obvious by its name, attach a copy of the exemption letter received by the organization from the I.R.S., stating that bequests to the organization are exempt for federal estate tax purposes. Note that Ohio law differs from federal law in two aspects: (1) there are no unitrust requirements for an Ohio charitable deduction; and (2) if federal and state death taxes are payable out of the amount of property passing to the charity, the amount of the deduction is not reduced by such taxes.

For charitable deductions other than specific bequests, please attach a copy of the computation showing how the value of the charitable deduction was determined.
