Revised 11/2015

PURPOSE OF FORM

Use this form to correct Form RI-1040NR. You must file a separate Form RI-1040X-NR for each year you are amending. DO NOT use this form to file an amended RI-1041. To amend Form RI-1041 make any changes on Form RI-1041 and check the amended box.

WHO MUST FILE AN AMENDED RETURN

RI Form 1040X-NR must be completed by those taxpayers who have to correct their Rhode Island return as a result of a change or correction on their federal income tax return; the filing of an amended federal income tax return; the filing of an amended out-of-state return or a notification of a change or correction on another state's personal income tax return.

WHEN TO FILE

Federal Audit Changes: If the Internal Revenue Service increases the amount of your federal taxable income for any reason, you should file an Amended Rhode Island Income Tax Return within 90 days after the final determination of the change.

Refunds: Generally a claim for refund must be filed within 3 years from the time the return was filed or 2 years from the time the tax was paid, whichever is later. In either case, the refund will be limited to the amount of payments made within the allowable period.

DECEASED TAXPAYERS

If the taxpayer died before filing a Rhode Island Amended Income Tax Return, the taxpayer's spouse or personal representative must file and sign a return for the person who died if the deceased was required to file a return. A personal representative can be an executor, administrator or anyone who is in charge of the taxpayer's property.

The person who files the return should write "deceased" after the deceased's name and show the date of death in the name and address space on the return.

If you are claiming a refund as a surviving spouse filing a joint return with the deceased, no other form is needed to have the refund issued to you. However, all other filers requesting a refund due the deceased, must file Form RI-1310, Statement of Person Claiming Refund Due a Deceased Taxpayer, to claim the refund.

COMPLETE YOUR 2015 AMENDED FEDERAL INCOME TAX RETURN FIRST

The Federal Amended Individual Income Tax Return is the basis for preparing your Amended Rhode Island Individual Income Tax Return. In general, the Rhode Island income tax is based on your federal taxable income. Accuracy and attention to detail in completing the return in accordance with these instructions will facilitate the processing of your tax return.

Name(s), Address and Social Security Number(s)

Make sure the name(s), address and social security number(s) on the return are correct. Incorrect entries could delay the processing of your return.

Deceased Taxpayer

If either you or your spouse, if a joint return, died during 2015, check the applicable "YES" deceased box.

New Address

If the address listed is different than the address used on your original return, check the "YES" new address box.

Federal Income Tax Return

If you are filing an amended federal income tax return or been advised your federal income tax return is under examination, check the "YES" box to the questions that apply to you.

Filing Status

Check the appropriate boxes to indicate your filing status on your original return and your amended return. Generally your filing status for Rhode Island is the same as for federal income tax purposes.

JOINT RETURNS: Generally, if married individuals file a joint federal income tax return, they also must file a joint Rhode Island income tax return. However, if either spouse is a resident and the other is a non-resident, they must file separate returns, unless they elect to file a joint return as if both were residents of Rhode Island. If the resident spouse files separately in RI and a joint federal return is filed for both spouses, the resident spouse must compute income, exemptions and tax as if a separate federal return had been filed.

If neither spouse is required to file a federal income tax return and either or both are required to file a Rhode Island income tax return, they may elect to file a joint Rhode Island income tax return.

Individuals filing joint Rhode Island income tax returns are both equally liable to pay the tax. They incur what is known as "joint and several liability" for Rhode Island income tax.
