How do I determine what qualifies as my Montana source income when I am a nonresident of Montana?

In general, as a nonresident of Montana, your Montana source income is all the income that you receive for work that you perform in Montana, income that you receive from real or personal property located in Montana, and income that you receive from business conducted in Montana.

How do I determine my Montana source income when I am a part-year resident of Montana?

As a part-year resident, you are considered a resident for part of the year and a nonresident for the other part of the year.

In general, for the part of the year that you are a nonresident, your Montana source income is all the income that you receive for work that you perform in Montana, income that you receive from real or personal property that is located in Montana, and income that you receive from business conducted in Montana.

For the part of the year that you are a resident, all of your income that you receive, no matter where you earn it, is Montana source income.

Where can I find additional information on what is included in my Montana source income?

For additional information and a line-by-line description of what Montana source income is, refer to Form 2, Schedule IV instructions beginning on page 27.
