Who must file

Section 77 of the Cooperative Corporations Law exempts certain cooperative corporations from franchise taxes or corporation taxes. In place of those taxes the following corporations must file this form and pay an annual license fee of $10:

- Agricultural cooperative marketing corporations, with or without capital stock, organized for the purpose of marketing agricultural products;
- Agricultural cooperative financing corporations, with or without capital stock, organized for the purpose of making loans to their members producing agricultural products;

- Cooperative corporations with annual sales of less than $500,000, organized for the purpose of purchasing food products for sale to their members;
- Heating/cooling cooperative corporations without stock, that have federal Internal Revenue Code (IRC) section 501(c)(12) status and are organized for producing and/or distributing district heating and/or cooling services solely for use by their members. The heating or cooling facility must be located in a city with a population of more than 200,000 but less than 300,000, and must have at least 35% of the service, as measured by relative thermal usage, distributed to and used by members who:
 - qualify as certain exempt organizations under the New York State Sales and Use Tax Law (for example, governmental, educational, charitable, religious); or
 - qualify as cooperative corporations without stock, that have federal IRC section 501(c)(12) status.
- Members of heating/cooling cooperative corporations as described above.

Types of cooperative corporations that are not exempt from franchise tax or corporation tax and therefore are not required to file this form, are:

- Agricultural cooperative corporations with capital stock organized for the sole purpose of raising crops are subject to the franchise tax imposed by Tax Law, Article 9, section 185. (See Form CT-185, Cooperative Agricultural Corporation Franchise Tax Return.)
- Cooperative corporations with capital stock that operate for a profit are taxable under Tax Law Article 9-A. (See Form CT-3, General Business Corporation Franchise Tax Return.)

Payment

Make your check or money order payable in United States funds. We will accept a foreign check or foreign money order only if payable through a United States bank or if marked Payable in U.S. funds.
