General information

For tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2014, and before July 1, 2019, a New York City resident individual, estate or trust (including New York City resident beneficiaries), whose city adjusted gross income includes a pro rata share of income, loss, and deductions from one or more New York S corporations or exempt qualified subchapter S subsidiaries (QSSS), may be eligible for a credit on their income tax return for their pro rata share of New York City general corporation tax (GCT) paid, plus Unincorporated Business Tax (UBT) credit.

The credit is not refundable, and you may not carry any unused credit forward to future years. In addition, the credit is only allowed against the following New York City taxes:

– the tax computed on taxable income;

– the separate tax on lump-sum distributions; and

– the tax on capital gain portion of a lump-sum distribution.

The amount of credit allowed if your city taxable income is $35,000 or less is 100% of your pro rata share of GCT paid plus UBT credit. The credit decreases gradually from 100% to 0% for taxpayers with city taxable incomes more than $35,000 but less than $100,000. For taxpayers with city taxable incomes of $100,000 or more, no credit is allowed.

Who qualifies

To claim this credit:

• you must be a full-year New York City resident individual, estate or trust, who received a pro rata share of GCT paid, plus UBT credit, as a shareholder of an S corporation or exempt QSSS, and

• your city taxable income must have been less than $100,000.

How to claim the credit

To claim the credit for New York City GCT paid, you must complete Form IT-222 using the information obtained from your New York S corporation, QSSS, or estate or trust (for beneficiaries), and submit Form IT-222 with your return.
