Instructions

See the instructions for your tax return for the Privacy notification or if you need help contacting the Tax Department.

Who qualifies

You qualify as a nonobligated spouse if (1) you have income (such as wages or interest) and prepaid taxes (such as withholding or estimated tax payments) to report on a joint return, or (2) you are going to file a joint return for any refundable credit(s) and you want to disclaim your spouse's defaulted governmental education, state university, or city university loan, past-due support liability, or past-due legally enforceable debt to a New York State agency, or New York City tax warrant judgment debt because you do not want to apply your part of the joint refund or refundable credit to a debt owed solely by your spouse.

You cannot use Form IT-280 to disclaim your spouse's legally enforceable debt to the IRS or to disclaim a tax liability owed to another state. You must contact the IRS or the other state to resolve your responsibility for the asserted liability.

How to file

Place the completed Form IT-280 in front of your original Form IT-201, IT-203, IT-214, NYC-208, or NYC-210. We need the information on it to process your refund as quickly as possible. You cannot file an amended return solely to disclaim your spouse's debt after you have filed your original return. However, you will be notified if your refund is applied against your spouse's defaulted governmental education, state university, or city university loan, past-due support, or past-due legally enforceable debt owed to a New York State agency, or New York City tax warrant judgment debt and you did not submit Form IT-280 with your return. You will then have ten days from the notification of offset date to file Form IT-280.

Complete Parts 1 and 2 of this form, and sign and date Part 3 in the spaces provided. If you are filing Form IT-214, NYC-208, or Form NYC-210 and do not have to file an income tax return, fill in only your name and the social security number of both spouses, and sign and date this form.

Note: New York State Form IT-280 is used only to protect your portion of a joint refund from being applied against a debt owed solely by your spouse. This form should not be used to request innocent spouse relief.

There are three forms of innocent spouse relief: innocent spouse, separation of liability, and equitable relief. You may qualify for relief from full or partial tax liability on a joint return as an innocent spouse if (1) there is an understatement of tax on a joint return because of an omission or error involving income, deduction, credit, or basis; (2) you can show that when you signed the return you did not know and had no reason to know of the understatement; and (3) taking into account all the facts and circumstances, it would be unfair to hold you liable for the understated tax. You may also request a separation of liability for any understated tax on a joint return if you and your spouse or former spouse are no longer married, or are legally separated, or have lived apart at all times during the 12-month period prior to the date of filing for relief. If you don't qualify as an innocent spouse or for separation of liability, you may qualify for equitable relief if you can show that, taking into account all the facts and circumstances, you should not be held liable for any understatement or underpayment of tax. For more information, see Form IT-285, Request for Innocent Spouse Relief (and Separation of Liability and Equitable Relief).

If you pay someone to prepare your form, the paid preparer must also sign it and fill in the other blanks in the paid preparer's area of your form. A person who prepares your form and does not charge you should not fill in the paid preparer's area.
