When you file your income tax return, include both pages of this form.

Notes: Most individuals can use this form to compute the interest penalty due. However, some individuals may be able to compute a lower interest penalty if they complete the long method version of Ohio IT/SD 2210. Use Ohio IT/SD 2210 Long if any of the following circumstances apply to you:

- You made married filing jointly estimated income tax payments, but you don't file your income tax return as married filing jointly.
- You earned more than 75% of your income in the last nine months of the year.
- You made estimated tax payments after a required due date but before the next required due date.
- Your combined state income tax withholding and school district income tax withholding is either equal to or greater than (i) 100% of your year 2015 combined state and school district income tax or (ii) the sum of 90% of your year 2016 state income tax and 90% of your year 2016 school district income tax or (iii) your year 2016 combined state and school district income tax reduced by $500.
- At least two-thirds of your gross income was from farming or fishing.
