Oregon Fiduciary Income Tax Payment Voucher and Instructions

Online payments:

You may make payments directly online at www.oregon.gov/dor. Don't use this form with online payments.

Use this voucher to send the following payments:

- Tax due when you file your original return or an amended return for any year.
- Tax due by the original return's due date if you are filing your return on extension.
- Tax prepayments. Oregon doesn't require prepayments for fiduciary returns. Tax payment is due by the original due date of your return.

Don't use this voucher for payments on:

- Form OR-706. Instead, use Form OR-706-V.
- Form OR-706-R. Instead, use Form OR-706-R-V.
- Form IT-1. Instead, use Form IT-V.
- Form OR-40. Instead, use Form OR-40-V.

Required for accurate processing:

- Tax year: Fill in the beginning and ending dates of your tax year. This calendar year or fiscal year must match Form OR-41; and federal Form 1041.
- Payment type: Check the box that identifies the type of payment you're sending.
- FEIN (federal employer identification number): Fill in your FEIN assigned by the IRS.
- Name, address, and phone number: Fill in the exact name of the estate or trust as it will be shown on Form OR-41 and federal Form 1041 when filed. Fill in the name of the personal representative or trustee in the space labeled fiduciary, and the fiduciary's address and phone number.
- Make your check payable to: Oregon Department of Revenue.
- Write on your check or money order: The trust or estate name, FEIN, tax year, and a daytime phone number.
- Mail the voucher with your payment to: Oregon Department of Revenue

PO Box 14110

Salem OR 97309-0910

Note: This voucher may be used as an extension only if you are making a payment. If you are not making a payment, Oregon accepts the federal extension Form 7004. When you file your Form OR-41, check the "Extension to file" box. Keep a copy of your extension in your permanent tax records.
