Definitions

Human Capital Investment means the amount paid or incurred by a corporation on: in-state job training of persons employed in Connecticut; work education programs in Connecticut including but not limited to programs in public high schools and work education-diversified occupation programs; in-state training and education of persons employed in Connecticut provided by institutions of higher learning in Connecticut; donations or capital contributions to institutions of higher learning in Connecticut for technical improvements, including physical plant improvements; planning, site preparation, construction, renovation, or acquisition of facilities in Connecticut for the purpose of establishing a day care facility in Connecticut; child care subsidies paid to employees employed in Connecticut; and contributions made to the Individual Development Account Reserve Fund.

Training is the instruction, maintenance, or improvement of the skills required by the employer for the proper performance of the employee's duties that are conducted in Connecticut.

Expenditures are those amounts paid or incurred for the income year.

Additional Information

A corporation may not use the same expenditures that it used to claim the human capital investment credit in order to claim any other tax credit against any Connecticut tax.
