2017 Schedule M1R Instructions

Am I eligible?

To qualify for this subtraction, you must meet the income requirements and you (or your spouse if filing a joint return) must:

- Have been born before January 2, 1953; or
- Meet the disability requirements.

If you are married and filing separate federal income tax returns, you are not eligible unless you and your spouse lived apart for all of 2017.

What are the disability requirements?

To meet the disability requirements, you (or your spouse if filing a joint return) must:

- Have been permanently and totally disabled by the end of 2017; and
- Have received federally taxable disability income in 2017.

You may be eligible if at any time a physician signed the statement in the instructions for Schedule R of Form 1040A or 1040 certifying that you are permanently and totally disabled.

If you are a veteran, you may qualify if you received a signed certification from the Department of Veterans Affairs stating that you are permanently and totally disabled.

If you have never filed federal Schedule R but believe you are permanently and totally disabled, ask your physician to determine whether you meet the disability requirements. If so, have your physician sign the statement, and keep it with your tax records. It is not necessary for you to file federal Schedule R with the IRS to be eligible for the Minnesota subtraction.

What are the income requirements?

If you (or your spouse if filing a joint return) meet the age or disability requirements, use the table below to see if you are eligible for the subtraction.
