CD-419 Application for Extension Franchise and Corporate Income Tax

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS North Carolina law provides for an extension of time to file a North Carolina corporate tax return (Form CD-405, CD-401S, or CD-418). When timely filed, Form CD-419 extends the due date of the return by six months. An extension of time to file the return does not extend the time to pay the amount of tax due. If the taxpayer does not pay the full amount of tax due by the original due date of the return, interest and penalties will be assessed. North Carolina does not accept the federal extension in lieu of Form CD-419. (Note: For North Carolina income tax purposes, an income year that ends on any day other than the last day of the month is considered to end on the last day of the month nearest to the last day of the actual income year.)

To obtain an extension and pay any tax due, a taxpayer must file Form CD-419 by the original due date of the corporate tax return. A taxpayer can use the Department's website or mail the completed application to the address provided. The Department's website offers two electronic options, (1) an online filing and payment system, and (2) an eFile program. For more information, visit www.dornc.com and search for online file and pay.

Attention! ALL Business Corporation Annual Reports Now Going Directly to NC Secretary of State's Office

North Carolina state law changed this year to streamline the business corporation annual report filing process.

- The new law requires that ALL corporate annual reports now be filed directly with the Secretary of State's office.
- This change begins on January 1, 2018 for tax year 2017.
- No 2017 corporate annual reports can be filed with your state tax return at NC Department of Revenue.
- Go to www.sosnc.gov/annualreports to access the Secretary of State's easy-to-use filing tool to maintain your "good standing" status without delays or breaks.

SPECIFIC INSTRUCTIONS Fill in the applicable circle if the corporation is determined to be tax exempt for State income tax purposes but required to report unrelated business income, a non U.S./foreign corporation whose federal statutory due date is the fifteenth day of the seventh month, a cooperative, or mutual association.
