Obtain a copy of the North Dakota Taxpayer Bill of Rights from our website at www.nd.gov/tax

If you need a form or document mentioned in this booklet, you may obtain it from our website at www.nd.gov/tax, or request it by phone, e-mail, fax, or letter-see the back cover of this booklet for phone numbers and addresses.

You might be eligible for a refund of local sales tax!

Most city and county local tax ordinances contain a local sales tax maximum, which varies among the local tax jurisdictions. If you pay local sales tax in excess of the jurisdiction's maximum amount, you may apply to the Office of State Tax Commissioner to obtain a refund of the excess local sales tax paid. For example, if you purchase $$ 4,000$ of furniture in a city having a $1 \%$ sales tax and a local sales tax maximum of $$ 25$, the retailer will collect $$ 200$ in state sales tax $($ 4,000 \times 5 \%)$ and $$ 40$ in local sales tax $($ 4,000 \times 1 \%)$ at the time of purchase. You may apply to the Office of State Tax Commissioner to obtain a refund of $$ 15$, which is the excess of the $$ 40$ local sales tax paid over the $$ 25$ local sales tax maximum. You can obtain the application form, Claim For Refund - Local Sales and Use Tax Paid Beyond Maximum Tax, from our website at www.nd.gov/tax, or you may call us at 701.328 .1246 or e-mail us at salestax@nd.gov.

Do you owe use tax?

If you purchased goods from a source outside North Dakota that you use or consume in North Dakota on which you did not pay North Dakota sales tax, you may have to pay state and local sales taxes to North Dakota. Technically, what you have to pay is called a "use tax." The use tax applies to the same goods that are subject to North Dakota's sales tax. The use tax applies whether you purchased the goods in person at an out-of-state location, or by mail, phone, or over the Internet.
If you purchased the goods in another state and did not pay any sales tax to that state, you must pay the full use tax to North Dakota. However, if you did pay the other state's sales tax but paid less than what you would have paid in North Dakota, you must pay use tax to North Dakota equal to the difference. If you purchased the goods in another country, you must pay the full use tax to North Dakota regardless of whether you paid any tax to that country on the purchase.
If you owe use tax to North Dakota, you must file a North Dakota use tax return using the One Time Remittance Form. You can obtain it from our website at www.nd.gov/tax, or you may call us at 701.328.1246.

Privacy Act Notification. In compliance with the Privacy Act of 1974, disclosure of the individual's social security number on this form is required under N.D.C.C. $\S \S 57-01-15$ and 57-38-31, and will be used for tax reporting, identification and administration of North Dakota tax laws. Disclosure is mandatory. Failure to provide the social security number may delay or prevent the processing of this form.

Changes affecting you and your income tax  Developments, updates, and items of interest relating to individual income tax

April 17 filing deadline for 2017 returns

North Dakota income tax filers with an April 15 due date will have until Tuesday, April 17, 2018, to file their 2017 North Dakota income tax returns and pay any tax due on them. The April 17 deadline also applies for purposes of paying the estimated income tax installment normally due on April 15, 2018.

The extra time for filing the state return recognizes the movement of the federal income tax filing deadline to April 17, 2018, because of the Emancipation Day holiday in the District of Columbia on Monday, April 16th.

Stillborn child deduction

Starting with the 2017 tax year, a new one-time income tax deduction is available to an individual who gives birth to a stillborn child. The deduction is equal to the federal income tax dependency exemption amount allowed for the tax year in which the stillbirth occurred. The amount of the federal dependency exemption generally changes each year because it is adjusted for inflation. For the 2017 tax year, this amount is $$ 4,050$. The deduction is allowed in the tax year in which the stillbirth occurs. An individual is eligible for this deduction if (1) a fetal death record has been filed with the North Dakota Department of Health, Division of Vital Records, and (2) the individual could have claimed the child as a dependent for federal income tax purposes if the child had been born alive.

To claim the deduction, an individual must first obtain a Certification of Fetal Death (or Certification of Birth Resulting in Stillbirth) from the North Dakota Division of Vital Records. Certain information from the certification form is required on the North Dakota income tax return to support the deduction. The parent(s) identified on the fetal death record or other person authorized under the law may obtain a certified copy from the North Dakota Division of Vital Records online at www.ndhealth.gov/vital, or by submitting a request form by fax or mail. It can also be obtained in person at the agency's office in the State Capitol, Judicial Wing, First Floor, Room 118.

Claim the deduction by completing Schedule ND-1SA (line 5) and attaching it to Form ND-1.

State and local tax clearances

Starting August 1, 2017, certain state tax incentives and local property tax exemptions may not be granted to, or claimed by, a taxpayer unless the taxpayer has satisfied all state and local tax obligations and tax liens of record for taxes owed to North Dakota or a political subdivision. In addition, a taxpayer may have to obtain a tax clearance record from the state or a county.

Property tax clearance record

requirement. Before certain North Dakota income tax deductions and tax credits may be granted or claimed, a taxpayer must obtain a property tax clearance record from each North Dakota county in which the taxpayer holds a 50 percent or more ownership interest in real property. Real property means property that is subject to property tax, such as a personal residence, land, apartment building, or office building. The property tax clearance record(s) must be attached to the application form or income tax return on which the incentive is applied for or claimed.
For an individual who files Form ND-1, the income tax incentives that are subject to these new requirements are identified on the following forms:

- For an income tax deduction, see Schedule ND-1SA.
- For an income tax credit, see Schedule ND-1TC.

The instructions to the above schedules explain how to satisfy the property tax clearance record requirement, if applicable.

More comprehensive information on the new requirements is provided in the Guideline: State and Local Tax Clearance Requirements, which is available on the Office of State Tax Commissioner's website at www.nd.gov/tax.

New Form ND-1PRV payment voucher for paper filers

Electronic filing and payment is encouraged. However, if Form ND-EZ or Form ND-1 is filed on paper, and a balance due on the return is going to be paid with a paper check, complete a Form ND-1PRV payment voucher and enclose it with the payment. Use of the voucher improves processing efficiency and ensures the payment is applied to the proper account.

Other payment vouchers. For other individual income tax payments made with a paper check, use the following payment vouchers:

- If paying a balance due on an electronically-filed Form ND-EZ or Form ND-1, use Form ND-1 V.
- If making an advance payment of a balance due expected on a Form ND-EZ or ND-1 for which an extension of time to file was obtained, use Form ND-1EXT.

Tax deduction or credit disclosure notification

If requested by the chairman of North Dakota's Legislative Management or a standing committee of the North Dakota Legislature, the Tax Commissioner must disclose the amount of any tax deduction or tax credit earned or claimed by a taxpayer. The taxpayer's name, social security number, or any other confidential information may not be disclosed. This applies to deductions and credits earned or claimed after July 31, 2017.

Changes affecting you and your income tax (continued)

Repealed or expired tax credits

Microbusiness tax credit. The microbusiness income tax credit was repealed, effective for tax years 2017 and after.

Housing incentive tax credit. The North Dakota housing incentive fund income tax credit expired on December 31, 2016. If there is an unused credit from a tax year prior to 2017, it may be carried over up to 10 years after the year the credit was earned.

Automation tax credit. The automation income tax credit has a December 31, 2017, expiration date. Eligible businesses that made qualifying purchases in 2017 have until January 31, 2018, to file an application for the credit with the North Dakota Commerce Department. Also, an unused credit from a tax year prior to 2018 may be carried over up to 5 years after the year the credit was earned.

Angel fund tax credit. The income tax credit allowed for investing in an angel fund expired on June 30, 2017. The credit is no longer allowed for investments made after this date in angel funds organized and certified before July 1, 2017. An unused credit based on an investment made before July 1, 2017, may be carried over up to 7 years after the year the credit was earned.

New angel investor tax credit

A new "angel investor" income tax credit is available to angel funds organized and certified on or after July 1, 2017. The credit is available to individuals who set up an angel fund for the purpose of pooling their monies to make qualified investments in qualified businesses. Special rules apply to a partnership or other passthrough entity that is a member of an angel fund, under which an allowable credit may be passed through to its owners who are individuals. To participate, both the angel fund and qualified business must be certified by the North Dakota Commerce Department.

The credit is equal to $35 \%$ or $25 \%$ of a qualified investment depending on whether the qualified business is based in North Dakota or outside North Dakota. The maximum annual credit is $$ 45,000$ per individual investor. Other conditions, limitations, reporting requirements, and penalty provisions apply under the new program. Complete details are available on the Office of State Tax Commissioner's website at www.nd.gov/tax.

Disaster remediation tax exemptions

Exemptions from state and local tax filing and payment obligations are available to out-of-state businesses and their employees who are in North Dakota on a temporary basis for the sole purpose of repairing or replacing critical infrastructure that is damaged, or under threat of damage, from a state- or presidentially-declared disaster or emergency. "Critical infrastructure" means real and personal natural gas, electrical, and telecommunication transmission property so vital that the incapacity or destruction of that transmission system would impact public health or safety and the economic and physical security of the state or region. For more information, go to the Office of State Tax Commissioner's website at www.nd.gov/tax.

Reminder: Consent to obtain Form 1099-G electronically

If there was an overpayment on the 2016 Form ND-EZ or Form ND-1 (last year's return), and the Form 1099-G consent statement was checked on that return, a paper 2017 Form 1099-G showing the overpayment amount will not be mailed to the taxpayer. If the taxpayer needs this information to complete the 2017 federal income tax return, the taxpayer will need to go to the Office of State Tax Commissioner's website at www.nd.gov/tax and use the 1099-G Lookup Tool to retrieve the information.

The 2017 Form 1099-G information will be available on the Tax Commissioner's website in January 2018. A taxpayer will not be able to print out the 2017 Form 1099-G from the website. A taxpayer may contact the Office of State Tax Commissioner to request a duplicate copy of the 2017 Form 1099-G that was filed with the Internal Revenue Service. See the last page of these instructions for contact information.

Mailing of estimated tax forms discontinued

The mailing of the individual income tax estimated income tax form, Form ND-1ES, is being discontinued. This means that individuals who paid North Dakota estimated income tax for 2017 will not automatically receive the 2018 Form ND-1ES in the mail. The following options are available to individuals for making North Dakota estimated income tax payments for the 2018 tax year:

- Pay electronically online at www.nd.gov/tax/payment. Paying electronically eliminates the need for a form.
- Print out a paper copy of the 2018 Form ND-1ES from the Office of State Tax Commissioner's website at www.nd.gov/tax. Then complete and mail the applicable payment voucher with the check to the address on the voucher.
- Contact the Office of State Tax Commissioner to request a 2018 Form ND-1ES. See contact information on the last page of these instructions.

Who must file a return

Full-year resident

If you were a full-year resident of North Dakota for the 2017 tax year and you are required to file a 2017 federal individual income tax return, you must file a 2017 North Dakota individual income tax return. This applies even if you worked outside North Dakota (including employment overseas) during the tax year or have income from sources outside North Dakota. You were a full-year resident of North Dakota if you were a resident of North Dakota for the entire tax year or meet the statutory 7-month rule-see "Statutory 7-month rule" on this page.

Definition of resident-In these instructions, the term "resident" refers to an individual who is a legal resident of North Dakota. Legal residence (which is also called domicile) means the place that is your permanent home to which you always intend to return whenever absent from it. If you have more than one physical place of abode, only one of them may be your legal residence. Legal residence is based on your intent and your actions.

Statutory 7-month rule-Even though you were not a resident of North Dakota for any part of the tax year-that is, you were a full-year nonresident-you must file as a full-year resident of North Dakota if you maintain a permanent place of abode in North Dakota and spend in the aggregate more than 210 days of the tax year in North Dakota. A permanent place of abode means a house, apartment, or other dwelling containing cooking and bathroom facilities that is suitable for year-round living and is maintained on a permanent or indefinite basis. This 7-month rule does not apply if you were (1) a part-year resident of North Dakota, (2) a full-year nonresident serving in the U.S. armed forces, or (3) a fullyear resident of Montana or Minnesota covered by reciprocity.

Residents in U.S. armed forces-If you were a full-year resident of North Dakota serving in the U.S. armed forces during the 2017 tax year and you are required to file a 2017 federal individual income tax return, you must file a 2017 North Dakota individual income tax return as a fullyear resident. This applies regardless of where you were stationed during 2017.

Civilian spouse of U.S. armed forces member-If you are a civilian spouse of a U.S. armed forces servicemember, you are subject to North Dakota income tax and must file a 2017 North Dakota individual income tax return if (1) you were a full-year resident of North Dakota for the 2017 tax year and (2) you are required to file a 2017 federal individual income tax return. This applies regardless of your military spouse's state of residence, where you resided, or the source of your income.

Full-year nonresident

If you were a full-year nonresident of North Dakota for the 2017 tax year, you must file a 2017 North Dakota individual income tax return if both of the following apply:

- You are required to file a 2017 federal individual income tax return.
- You derived gross income from North Dakota sources during the 2017 tax year. (See the box on page 5 for what is included in gross income from North Dakota sources.)

You were a full-year nonresident if you were not a resident of North Dakota for any part of the tax year and do not meet the statutory 7-month rule-see "Statutory 7-month rule" on page 4.

Nonresidents in U.S. armed forces-If you were a full-year nonresident of North Dakota serving in the U.S. armed forces during the 2017 tax year, you do not have to file a North Dakota income tax return unless (1) you have gross income from North Dakota sources other than your military compensation or (2) you are filing a joint federal income tax return with your spouse who is required to file a North Dakota income tax return.

Civilian spouse of U.S. armed forces member-If you are a civilian spouse of a U.S. armed forces servicemember, you are not subject to North Dakota income tax and do not have to file a 2017 North Dakota individual income tax return if (1) both you and your spouse were full-year nonresidents of North Dakota, (2) your military spouse's permanent duty station was in North Dakota, (3) your only gross income from North Dakota sources was wages for work performed in North Dakota, and (4) you resided in North Dakota only because you wanted to live with your military spouse. If you meet all of these conditions and your employer withheld North Dakota income tax from your wages, you must file a return to obtain a refund of the withheld taxes.

Minnesota or Montana resident-

If you were a full-year resident of Minnesota for the 2017 tax year, you do not have to file a 2017 North Dakota individual income tax return if both of the following apply:

- Your only gross income from North Dakota sources was compensation for personal or professional services.
- You returned to your home in Minnesota at least once each month during the time you worked in North Dakota.

If you were a full-year resident of Montana for the 2017 tax year, you do not have to file a 2017 North Dakota individual income tax return if your only gross income from North Dakota sources was wages.

See "Reciprocity" on page 6 for more information.

Gross income from North Dakota sources for nonresidents only

For a nonresident, "gross income from North Dakota sources" includes the following:

- Compensation for services performed in North Dakota, such as wages, salaries, tips, commissions, and fees.
- Income from tangible property in North Dakota, such as rents, oil and gas royalties, and gain from the sale or exchange of the property.
- Income from a trade or business carried on in North Dakota, whether as a sole proprietorship, partnership, S corporation, or limited liability company treated like a partnership or S corporation.
- Income from an estate or trust, but only to the extent the income is derived from tangible property or a trade or business in North Dakota.
- Income from gambling activity carried on in North Dakota.
- Unemployment compensation attributable to previous employment in North Dakota.

Exceptions

Gross income from North Dakota sources does not include these items received while a nonresident of North Dakota: military pay, interest, dividends, pensions, annuities, gain from the sale or exchange of intangible property, compensation exempted under reciprocity with Minnesota or Montana, compensation exempted under federal military and interstate commerce laws, or compensation exempted under North Dakota's mobile workforce exemption.

> Note: Interest, dividends, gains, and other income from intangible property are included in gross income from North Dakota sources if derived from a trade or business carried on in North Dakota, such as a sole proprietorship, partnership, or $S$ corporation.

Nonresident alien-If you were a nonresident alien of the United States and received gross income from North Dakota sources during the 2017 tax year, you must file a 2017 North Dakota individual income tax return. Except where an income tax treaty between the United States and a foreign country specifically exempts income from taxation by a U.S. state, income tax treaties between the U.S. and foreign countries do not apply for North Dakota income tax purposes. Therefore, you may have to pay North Dakota income tax on gross income from North Dakota sources even though the income is exempt from U.S. income tax because of a treaty. For more information, including the instructions on how to complete the North Dakota return, obtain the Income Tax Guideline: Taxation of Nonresident Aliens.

Disaster recovery tax exemptions-

Exemptions from state and local tax filing and payment obligations are available to out-of-state businesses and their employees who are in North Dakota on a temporary basis for the sole purpose of repairing or replacing natural gas, electrical, or telecommunication transmission property that is damaged, or under threat of damage, from a stateor presidentially-declared disaster or emergency. For more information, go to www.nd.gov/tax.

Part-year resident

If you were a part-year resident of North Dakota for the 2017 tax year, you must file a 2017 North Dakota individual income tax return if both of the following apply:

- You are required to file a 2017 federal individual income tax return.
- You derived gross income from (1) any source inside or outside North Dakota while you were a resident of North Dakota or (2) a North Dakota source while you were a nonresident of North Dakota. (See the box on this page for what is included in gross income from North Dakota sources while a nonresident.)

You were a part-year resident of North Dakota if you were a resident of North Dakota for only part of the year. This generally applies if you moved into or out of North Dakota and the move constituted a change in your legal residence. See "Definition of resident" on page 4.

Native Americans

If you are a Native American, you are not subject to North Dakota income tax and do not have to file a North Dakota income tax return if all of the following apply:

- You are enrolled as a member of a federally-recognized Indian tribe.
- You lived on any Indian reservation in North Dakota.
- You derived all of your income from sources on any Indian reservation in North Dakota.

If any of the above criteria are not met, you may be subject to North Dakota income tax. For more information, obtain the Income Tax Guideline: Income Taxation of Native Americans.

Which form to use

If you are required to file a 2017 North Dakota individual income tax return, see the box on this page to determine whether you should use Form ND-EZ or Form ND-1.

Minnesota and Montana residents

If you are a resident of Minnesota and maintain a permanent home in Minnesota to which you return at least once each month during the time you work in North Dakota, the compensation you receive for personal or professional services performed in North Dakota is not taxable by North Dakota. ## When and where to file

If you are filing on a calendar year basis, you must file your 2017 North Dakota individual income tax return on or before April 15, 2018. If you are filing on a fiscal year basis, you must file on or before the 15 th day of the fourth month following the close of your fiscal tax year. If the due date falls on a Saturday, Sunday or holiday, you have until the next day that is not a Saturday, Sunday, or holiday to file your return.

Mail your return to:
Office of State Tax Commissioner PO Box 5621
Bismarck, North Dakota 58506-5621

Extension of time to file

You may obtain an extension of time to file your North Dakota individual income tax return by obtaining either a federal extension or a North Dakota extension.

Federal extension

If you obtain an extension of time to file your federal return, it will be recognized for North Dakota individual income tax purposes. This includes the automatic extension allowed for being outside the U.S. and Puerto Rico on April 15. You do not have to file a separate state extension form or notify the Office of State Tax Commissioner that you have obtained a federal extension prior to filing your North Dakota return. Fill in the circle next to "Extension" on Form ND-EZ or Form ND-1, whichever applies.

North Dakota extension

If you do not obtain a federal extension, but need additional time to file your North Dakota return, you may apply for a North Dakota extension by completing and filing Form 101. This is not an automatic extension-you must have good cause to request a North Dakota extension. Form 101 must be postmarked on or before the due date of your return. You will be notified whether your extension request is approved or rejected. If approved, fill in the circle next to "Extension" on Form ND-EZ or Form ND-1, whichever applies.

Extension interest

If you obtain an extension and file your North Dakota return on or before the extended due date, and you pay any tax balance due with the return, no penalty will be charged. Interest on any tax due on the return will be charged at the rate of $12 \%$ per year from the original due date of your return to the earlier of the date you file your return or the extended due date.

Prepayment of tax due

If you are applying for an extension of time to file, you may prepay the tax that you expect to owe to avoid paying extension interest. For more information, including payment options, obtain the 2017 Form ND-1EXT. Alternatively, you may submit a check or money order along with a letter containing the following:

- Your name.
- Your social security number.
- Your address and phone number.
- Statement that you are making a 2017

Form ND-1EXT payment.
If you prepay your tax, you must file Form ND-1 and claim the payment on page 2, line 27; you may not file Form ND-EZ.

Penalty and interest

If you obtain an extension of time to file your return, you may pay the tax due by the extended due date of the return without penalty, but extension interest will apply—see "Extension interest" and "Prepayment of tax due" on this page.

If you file your return by its due date (or extended due date), but you do not pay all of the tax due on it by the return's due date (or extended due date), a penalty equal to $5 \%$ of the unpaid tax due or $$ 5.00$, whichever is greater, must be paid.

If you file your return after its due date (or extended due date), and there is an unpaid tax due on it, a penalty equal to $5 \%$ of the unpaid tax due or $$ 5.00$, whichever is greater, applies for the month the return was due, with an additional $5 \%$ of the unpaid tax due for each month (or fraction of a month) the return remains delinquent, not to exceed $25 \%$ of the tax due.

In addition to any penalty, interest must be paid at the rate of $1 \%$ per month (or fraction of a month), except for the month in which the tax was due, on any tax due that remains unpaid after the return's due date (or extended due date).

Federal income tax return

Certain information from your 2017 federal individual income tax returnForm 1040, 1040A, or 1040EZ-is needed to properly complete your 2017 North Dakota individual income tax return. Therefore, you must complete your federal return before you attempt to complete your North Dakota return.

In addition, you must attach a complete copy of your federal income tax return to your North Dakota return. A complete copy consists of Form 1040, 1040A, or 1040EZ, along with any supplemental forms and schedules. You do not have to include depreciation schedules or any other statements that you may have prepared as supporting documentation to your federal return.

Changing your return

If you need to change your North Dakota return after you file it, you must file an amended return. There is no special form for this purpose. See "How to prepare an amended return" on page 8 .

If you paid too much tax because of an error in your return, you generally have three years after you file your original return to file an amended return to correct the error and claim a refund of the overpayment. There are other time periods that may apply, such as in the case of a net operating loss carryback, an overstatement of tax of over $25 \%$, or an IRS audit. For these and other time periods that may apply, see North Dakota Century Code § 57-38-40 or contact the Office of State Tax Commissioner.

Penalty and interest apply to additional tax due on an amended return.

Change to federal return

By law, you must file an amended North Dakota return to report changes made to your federal return. This applies whether the changes are attributable to your filing of an amended federal return or an audit or correction by the IRS. The amended North Dakota return must be filed within 90 days after filing the amended federal return or within 90 days after the final determination of the IRS changes.

How to prepare an amended return

1. Obtain a blank Form ND-1 for the tax year affected by the changes.
2. Enter your name, current address, social security number, and other information required in the top portion of the return.
3. Fill in the circle next to "Amended return: General" or "Amended return: Federal NOL," whichever applies, in the top right-hand corner of the return. See "Amended return" on page 11 for more information.
4. Complete the return through the net tax liability line.
5. Leave the line for income tax withholding blank unless you are claiming an additional amount not previously claimed.
6. On the "Total payments" line, enter the net tax liability shown on your original return or previously filed amended return. If the net tax liability has not been fully paid at the time the amended return is filed, only enter the amount of tax that has been paid.
7. Complete the remaining portion of the return according to the instructions. On an amended return, you may not adjust the amount of any voluntary contribution to the wildlife or trees funds, nor the amount of an overpayment applied to the next year's estimated tax.
8. Attach a statement explaining why you are changing your return. If you are doing so because of changes you or the IRS made to your federal return, attach a copy of the amended federal return or IRS notice.

Estimated tax requirement (for 2018)

You must pay estimated North Dakota income tax for the 2018 tax year if all of the following conditions apply:

1. You are required to pay estimated federal income tax for 2018.
2. Your North Dakota net tax liability for 2017 is $$ 1,000$ or more. (If you are not required to file a North Dakota return for 2017, you do not have to pay estimated tax for 2018.)
3. You expect to owe (after subtracting any estimated North Dakota income tax withholding) at least $$ 1,000$ in North Dakota income tax for 2018.
4. You expect your North Dakota income tax withholding for 2018 to be less than the smaller of the following:
(a) $90 \%$ of your 2018 North Dakota net tax liability. Note: Substitute $662 / 3 \%$ if a qualified farmer-see instructions for 2018 Form ND-1ES.
(b) $100 \%$ of your 2017 North Dakota net tax liability. If you moved into North Dakota during 2017 and had no income from North Dakota prior to the move, this $100 \%$ threshold does not apply; you must satisfy the $90 \%$ threshold in part (a).
In general, one-fourth ( $25 \%$ ) of the total estimated tax required to be paid for the 2018 tax year must be paid by April 15, June 15, and September 15, 2018, and January 15, 2019.

For more information, including payment options, obtain the 2018 Form ND-1ES.

How to file a return for a deceased taxpayer

If a final federal income tax return is required to be filed for a decedent for the year of death, a final North Dakota income tax return also must be filed. A court-appointed personal representative is responsible for filing the decedent's final return, even if there is a surviving spouse. The information from the final federal return is used to complete the final North Dakota return, and the North Dakota return is to be signed in the same manner as required for federal income tax purposes. If there is a personal representative and no surviving spouse, a copy of the court document showing the appointment must be attached to the final return. If there is a surviving spouse and the final return will be filed on a joint basis, a refund will be mailed in both spouses' names.

If a surviving spouse experiences any problem with depositing or cashing a refund check, or if there is no surviving spouse and no personal representative has been appointed for the decedent, contact the Individual Income Tax Section, Office of State Tax Commissioner for assistance (see the back cover of this booklet).

Fill in the circle for "Deceased" and enter the date of death next to the deceased taxpayer's name on Form ND-EZ or Form ND-1, whichever applies.

Disclosure notification

Upon written request from the chairman of a North Dakota legislative standing committee or Legislative Management, the law requires the Office of State Tax Commissioner to disclose the amount of any deduction or credit claimed on a tax return. Any other confidential information, such as a taxpayer's name or social security number, may not be disclosed.

Account number (Item b)-Enter the account number. It may have up to 17 digits (both letters and numbers). Include hyphens, but omit special symbols. If depositing into a checking account, see the sample check on this page for where to find this number. ## Please note:

- Do not use the number on a deposit slip for the routing or account number.
- You will not receive notification of when the deposit is made by our office. Contact your bank or review your bank statement to verify the deposit.
- If the routing or account number is incorrect, or if your bank does not accept the direct deposit, a paper check will be issued.
- Due to changes in the electronic banking rules, the Office of State Tax Commissioner will not allow a direct deposit to or through a foreign financial institution. In this case, a paper check will be issued.

Line 34 - Penalty and interest

Our office will notify you of any penalty and interest owed for late filing or late payment, or interest owed on tax due during an extension period. However, you may calculate the amount of penalty, interest, or both, that you owe and pay it with your return.

North Dakota contracts with a national electronic payment service to provide this option. A fee is charged for this service, none of which goes to the State of North Dakota. You will be informed about the fee during the transaction, at which point you may continue or cancel the transaction. To make an electronic payment, go to www.nd.gov/tax/payment.
If paying with a paper check or money order, complete a Form ND-1PRV payment voucher and enclose it with the payment. ## Signatures

Form 1099-G consent and disclosure authorization

At the bottom of Form ND-1, page 2 (below line 37), fill in the applicable circle(s) to indicate if you want either or both of the following items to apply.

Form 1099-G consent. If there is an overpayment on your 2017 Form ND-1, line 29 , federal tax law requires our office to file with the IRS and mail to you a Form 1099-G showing the overpayment amount. You may need this information when preparing your 2018 federal income tax return. Fill in the circle for this item if you want to obtain Form 1099-G electronically from our website (www.nd.gov/tax) instead of receiving it by mail. The 2018 Form 1099-G will be available on our website in January 2019. For more information, go to our website at www.nd.gov/tax.

Disclosure authorization. Fill in the circle for this item if you want to authorize our office to communicate directly with your tax return preparer about your 2017 return. This may include requesting information needed to process the return and responding to inquiries from your preparer about correction notices you receive from us. The authorization does not allow your preparer to receive your refund check, to bind you in any way, or to legally represent you. The authorization only applies to the individual whose printed name and signature appear in the preparer's signature area, and it automatically expires on the due date (including extensions) for filing your 2018 return.

The Trees for North Dakota Income Tax Check-Off

The Threat: Emerald ash borer (EAB) is a highly invasive, exotic insect that attacks and kills all species of ash trees. It is as close as St. Paul, Minnesota. If EAB becomes established here, the economic and environmental impacts will be overwhelming. There are an estimated 78 million ash trees within North Dakota's forests and woodlands. Ash is the most common tree planted in communities, reaching $60 \%$ of the tree population in some towns. Ash also represents a large percentage of the state's 55,000 miles of field and farmstead windbreaks. Costs of removing, disposing and replacing trees lost to EAB, coupled with the economic benefits associated with trees lost, such as reduced energy costs and ecosystem services, the insect's impact could far exceed $$ 1$ billion dollars!

How You Can Help: Each of us has the ability to play an important role in the overall health and well-being of our forest resources by making a donation to the Trees for North Dakota Trust Fund. The "Community Family Forest" grant program, funded by private donations to the Trees for North Dakota Trust Fund, helps communities diversify their forest resources by planting a variety of trees adapted to North Dakota's climate. Our collective efforts can make incredible contributions to the quality of life in North Dakota for all who live and visit here. Please consider a donation today.

To contribute to the Trees for North Dakota Trust Fund, consult your tax preparer or enter a voluntary contribution on the 2015 North Dakota Individual Income Tax Return (see below):

Form ND-EZ: Refund return (Line 5)/Tax due (Line 8)
Form ND-1: Refund return (Line 31)/Tax due (Line 35)
"Community Family Forest" grants are awarded to purchase and plant trees on public property across the state. The grants help strengthen the tradition of annual tree planting.

The return is incomplete if unsigned or missing a copy of the federal return and will be sent back to you. This could result in late filing or payment charges.

Before sealing the envelope, have you done the following:

- Signed the return
- Enclosed copy of federal return
- Made a copy for your records
- Enclosed your check or money order payable to "ND State Tax Commissioner" along with a Form ND-1PRV
- Affixed adequate postage to envelope
