Fill out this form if you earned a biomass producer or collector (BPC) credit or received a BPC credit from someone who earned the BPC credit in tax years 2007, 2008, or 2009. Do not use this form for tax years beginning January 1, 2010.

1. Are you a pass-through entity, such as an S corporation or partnership, passing through BPC credits to owners or partners?
 - a. Yes. Complete parts A and C and provide the form to the owners or partners to complete and attach to their individual return(s). No forms are required to be sent in by the pass-through entity.
 - b. No. Continue to question 2.
2. Did you receive a BPC credit because it passed through to you from a pass-through entity, such as an S corporation or partnership?
 - a. Yes. Complete Part B of the form you received from the pass-through entity then skip question 3 and continue to question 4. Part A must be completed by the pass-through entity.
 - b. No. Continue to question 3.
3. Are you an agricultural producer or biomass collector who earned the BPC credit by transferring biomass to a biofuel producer?
 - a. Yes. Complete parts A and B, then continue to question 4.
 - b. No. Skip question 4 and continue to question 5.
4. If you answered yes to question 2 or 3, did you transfer any BPC credits to another taxpayer?
 - a. Yes. In addition to parts A and B, complete Part C and a Transfer Notice of Certain Credits form (150-101-179) with the transferee.*
 - b. No. You only need to complete parts A and B and attach this form to your return.
5. Was the BPC credit transferred to you?
 - a. Yes. Complete Part B and the Transfer Notice of Certain Credits form and attach both forms to your tax return.*
 - b. No. You cannot claim this credit.

Note: Both the transferor and the transferee must attach Form BPC to their returns. The transferee will also attach the Transfer Notice for Certain Credits form.

Part A: Calculation of the credit

Please describe the quantity, type, and name of the biofuel producer to which the biomass was transferred only for the tax year for which this form is being filed. Attach a separate sheet if necessary. Enter the total on line 4e.

	(a) Date	(b) Biomass type	(c) Quantity of biomass (in pounds, gallons, wet tons, etc.)	(d) Credit rate	(e) Multiply credit rate by quantity; this is the amount of the credit you have earned on this transaction	(f) Name of the biofuel producer
2.
3.
4.	Total

To obtain credit rates, see *Publication 17*½ available at www.oregon.gov/dor.

Important! You must keep copies of receipts from a biofuel producer to support your calculations above. Keep these in your records for five years. You must provide a copy to the department upon request.

If Part A was completed by a pass-through entity, provide the following information:

Name of pass-through entity: _____
