General Instructions

Purpose of Form

Use Form 804 to claim a refund on behalf of a deceased taxpayer.

Who Must File

If you are claiming a refund on behalf of a deceased taxpayer, you may be required to file Form 804.

If you are unable to cash the refund check that was sent to you, you should return it with a completed Form 804. If you are a personal representative, you should also attach your domiciliary letter showing your appointment.

Where To File

Send this completed and signed form along with the decedent's refund check to:

Tax Operations Bureau
Mail Stop 3-164
PO Box 8903
Madison WI 53708-8903

Personal Representative

For purposes of this form, a personal representative is the executor or administrator of the decedent's estate, as appointed or certified by the court. A copy of the decedent's will cannot be accepted as evidence that you are the personal representative.

Specific Instructions

Foreign Address

If your address is outside the United States or its possessions or territories, enter the information in the following order: City, province or state, and county. Follow the country's practice for entering the postal code. Do not abbreviate the country name.

Court Appointed or Certified Personal Representative

Check the box only if you are the decedent's court-appointed personal representative claiming a refund for the decedent. You must attach a copy of the domiciliary letter showing your appointment.

Line 1

Check the box on line 1 if you are a surviving spouse of the deceased and there is no court appointed personal representative. If you check the box on line 1, you must have proof of death.

Line 2

Check the box on line 2 if you are a surviving child of the deceased and there is no court appointed personal representative. If you check the box on line 2, you must have proof of death.

Line 3

Check the box on line 3 if you are the surviving parent of the deceased. If you check the box on line 3, you must have proof of death.

Line 4

Check the box on line 4 if you are the surviving brother or sister of the deceased. If you check the box on line 4, you must have proof of death.

Line 5

Check the box on line 5 if you are a creditor of the decedent. If you check the box on line 5, you must have proof of death.

NOTE:

The proof of death is either of the following:

- The death certificate, or
- The formal notification from the appropriate government office (for example, Department of Defense) informing the next of kin of the decedent's death.

Do not attach the death certificate or other proof of death to Form 804. Instead, keep it for your records and provide it if requested.
