

FSA Remote Sponsor Agreement

We appreciate your willingness and commitment to serve as a sponsor of a Facilitated Self Assistance (FSA) Remote site, by promoting web link(s) to a third-party provider offering free online tax preparation services to taxpayers.

To maintain program integrity and provide for reasonable protection of information provided by the taxpayers serviced through the FSA Program, it is essential that partners adhere to the following key principles:

- Partner agrees not to connect the promotion of the above referenced web link(s) with any request for compensation or donation from the user.
- Partner agrees to refer any taxpayer questions about the FSA Program back to the third-party provider website for resolution.
- Partner agrees not to engage in criminal, infamous, dishonest, notoriously disgraceful conduct, or other conduct deemed to have a negative effect on the FSA Program.

Privacy Act Notice

The Privacy Act of 1974 requires that when we ask for information we tell you our legal right to ask for the information, why we are asking for it, and how it will be used. We must also tell you what could happen if we do not receive it, and whether your response is voluntary, required to obtain a benefit, or mandatory. Our legal right to ask for information is 5 U.S.C. 301. We are asking for this information to assist us in contacting you relative to your interest and/or participation in the IRS volunteer income tax preparation and outreach programs. The information you provide may be furnished to others who coordinate activities and staffing at volunteer return preparation sites or outreach activities. The information may also be used to establish effective controls, send correspondence and recognize volunteers. Your response is voluntary. However, if you do not provide the requested information, the IRS may not be able to use your assistance in these programs.
