

Effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2018, individuals who make estimated tax payments must submit all of their individual income tax payments electronically if any installment payment of estimated tax exceeds $7,500, or any payment made with regard to a return or an extension of time to file exceeds $7,500, or the total estimated income tax due in any taxable year exceeds $30,000. If any of the thresholds above apply to you, all future individual income tax payments must be made electronically. This includes all payments for estimated taxes, extensions of time to file, and any other amounts due when a return is filed. Visit our website at www.tax.virginia.gov for information on electronic payment options.

If you filed a 2019 Form 760, Form 760PY or Form 763 and owe tax, but did not submit payment with the return, use this form to send in your payment on or before the due date.

- If the return was filed electronically through e-File or mailed directly to the Department, make your check payable to the Department of Taxation and mail the payment with the voucher below to:

- If the return was filed with the Commissioner of the Revenue for your locality, make your check payable to your local Treasurer and mail the payment to your locality so that the payment will be credited to your account at the local office.

Do not send a copy of your return with your payment. If a copy of the return is sent, the payment will not be posted properly to the account.
