2020 Automatic Filing Extension for Composite Nonresident Income Tax Return (Calendar year—Due April 15, 2021)

Filing extensions are granted automatically.
Return this form only if you need to make an additional payment of tax.

Colorado income tax returns are due the fifteenth day of the fourth month after the end of your tax year, or by April 15, 2021 for traditional calendar year filers. If you are unable to file by your prescribed due date, you may file under extension. This will allow you an additional six months to file your return, or until October 15, 2021 for traditional calendar year filers. While there is an extension to file, there is not an extension to the payment due date. Penalty and interest are assessed if certain payment criteria are not met. Please review FYI General 11 for more information on penalty and interest.

Pay Online

Visit Colorado.gov/RevenueOnline to pay online. Online payments reduce errors and provide instant payment confirmation. Revenue Online also allows users to submit various forms and to monitor their tax account. Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT) Debit and Credit options are free services offered by the department. EFT services require pre-registration before payments can be made. Visit Colorado.gov/Revenue/EFT for more information.

The DR 0158-N is not required to be sent if an online payment is made. Please be advised that a nominal processing fee may apply to e-check or credit card payments.

Pass-Through Entities

Use this form only if the entity intends to file a composite return and claim the extension payment against the tax reported on the composite return. Payments made using the DR 0158-N for the composite entity cannot be distributed to or claimed on individual partner or shareholder returns.
