General Information

What is the purpose of this form?

This form allows a surviving spouse, a personal representative, or a claimant for the estate of the deceased taxpayer to claim a refund on behalf of a deceased taxpayer.

Who must complete this form?

You must complete this form (and attach it to the decedent's Form IL-1040, Individual Income Tax Return) if you are claiming a refund on behalf of a deceased taxpayer. However, if you are a surviving spouse filing a joint return with your deceased spouse, do not complete this form.

ENote If you are claiming a refund on behalf of a deceased taxpayer, you must write "in care of" and your name and address on the decedent's Form IL-1040 in addition to writing "deceased" and the date of death above the decedent's name. See "Filing a decedent's return" in the Form IL-1040 Step-by-Step Instructions for more information.

What should be used as proof of death?

Proof of death may be a death certificate or may, if appropriate, be the original or an authentic copy of a telegram or letter from the Department of Defense notifying the next of kin of the taxpayer's death while in active service or a death certificate issued by an appropriate officer of the Department of Defense.

Step-by-Step Instructions

Step 1: Provide the claimant's information

Lines 1 through 4 – Follow the instructions on the form.

Line 5 – Check the box that applies to you.

Box a – Check "Box a" if you are a surviving spouse claiming a refund on behalf of your deceased spouse's separate tax return, and there is no court-appointed personal representative for your deceased spouse.

Complete Schedule A, and attach proof of death.

Box b – Check "Box b" if you are the executor, executrix, administrator, or administratrix of the decedent's estate, as certified or appointed by the court.

Attach a court certificate showing your appointment. A copy of the decedent's will is not acceptable as evidence that you are the decedent's court-appointed personal representative.

Box c – Check "Box c" if you are not a surviving spouse or a personal representative of the deceased.

Complete Schedule A, and attach proof of death.

Step 2: Provide the deceased taxpayer's information

Lines 6 through 9 – Follow the instructions on the form.
