2020 Schedule M1NR Instructions

Should I file this schedule?

File this schedule with your Form M1 if you meet the minimum filing requirement and in 2020 you were either a:

- Full-year nonresident of Minnesota
- Part-year resident of Minnesota

See Income Tax Fact Sheets 1, Residency; 2, Part-Year Residents; and 3, Nonresidents, to determine your residency status for Minnesota tax purposes.

If you are married and file a joint federal return, you must file a joint Minnesota return even if only one spouse is a Minnesota resident or has Minnesota income. You must include Schedule M1NR when you file your return.

What is the minimum filing requirement?

If your gross income assignable to Minnesota is $12,400 or more, you must file Form M1 and Schedule M1NR.

If you are considered a nonresident alien for federal tax purposes, and have gross income of at least $5 assignable to Minnesota, you must file a Minnesota tax return and Schedule M1NR.

What is gross income assignable to Minnesota?

Gross income assignable to Minnesota includes all income you received while a Minnesota resident and income from Minnesota sources while a nonresident, such as income passed through to you from:

- Partnerships (line 27 of Schedule KPI)
- S corporations (line 27 of Schedule KS)
- Estates or trusts (line 33 of Schedule KF)

Gross income is income before any deductions or expenses. Gross income does not include any military pay a Minnesota resident received for military services outside Minnesota.

If your Minnesota gross income is below the minimum filing requirement, and you had tax withheld or paid estimated tax, follow the steps below to complete your Schedule M1NR:

2. Complete line 29 of Schedule M1NR.

Complete Schedule M1NR only if you received income from sources in Minnesota that does not qualify under reciprocity. (Income that is not excluded under reciprocity includes Minnesota source gambling winnings, capital gains, rental income, etc.)
