Taxpayer Bill of Rights

Obtain a copy of the North Dakota Taxpayer Bill of Rights from our website at www.nd.gov/tax

If you need a form or document mentioned in this booklet, you may obtain it from our website at www.nd.gov/tax, or request it by phone, e-mail, fax, or letter—see the back cover of this booklet for phone numbers and addresses.

You might be eligible for a refund of local sales tax!

Most city and county local tax ordinances contain a local sales tax maximum, which varies among the local tax jurisdictions. If you pay local sales tax in excess of the jurisdiction's maximum amount, you may apply to the Office of State Tax Commissioner to obtain a refund of the excess local sales tax paid. For example, if you purchase $4,000 of furniture in a city having a 1% sales tax and a local sales tax maximum of $25, the retailer will collect $200 in state sales tax ($4,000 x 5%) and $40 in local sales tax ($4,000 x 1%) at the time of purchase. You may apply to the Office of State Tax Commissioner to obtain a refund of $15, which is the excess of the $40 local sales tax paid over the $25 local sales tax maximum. You can obtain the application form, Claim For Refund - Local Sales and Use Tax Paid Beyond Maximum Tax, from our website at www.nd.gov/tax, or you may call us at 701.328.1246 or e-mail us at salestax@nd.gov.

Do you owe use tax?

If you purchased goods from a source outside North Dakota that you use or consume in North Dakota on which you did not pay North Dakota sales tax, you may have to pay state and local sales taxes to North Dakota. Technically, what you have to pay is called a "use tax." The use tax applies to the same goods that are subject to North Dakota's sales tax. The use tax applies whether you purchased the goods in person at an out-of-state location, or by mail, phone, or over the Internet.

If you purchased the goods in another state and did not pay any sales tax to that state, you must pay the full use tax to North Dakota. However, if you did pay the other state's sales tax but paid less than what you would have paid in North Dakota, you must pay use tax to North Dakota equal to the difference. If you purchased the goods in another country, you must pay the full use tax to North Dakota regardless of whether you paid any tax to that country on the purchase.

If you owe use tax to North Dakota, you must file a North Dakota use tax return using the One Time Remittance Form. You can obtain it from our website at www.nd.gov/tax, or you may call us at 701.328.1246.

Disclosure is mandatory. Failure to provide the social security number may delay or prevent the processing of this form.

Changes affecting you and your income tax

Developments, updates, and items of interest relating to individual income tax

Estimated income tax: COVID-19 interest waiver

As part of its COVID-19 health emergency tax relief measures, the Office of State Tax Commissioner granted a waiver of interest on the 1st and 2nd quarter estimated income tax payments due on April 15 and June 15, 2020, respectively, if they are paid on or before July 15, 2020.

The 2020 Schedule ND-1UT, Underpayment Or Late Payment Of Estimated Income Tax For Individuals, has been modified as follows:

- The estimated tax payment due date shown on the form for the 1st and 2nd quarters is July 15, 2020.
- The instructions to Part 3 (computation of interest) provide that, for the 1st and 2nd quarters, a reference to a payment due date means July 15, 2020, and a reference to a late payment means a payment made after July 15, 2020.

Differing treatment of social security benefits and U.S. Railroad Retirement Board benefits

North Dakota tax law allows an individual to subtract the taxable portion of social security benefits from North Dakota taxable income if the individual's federal adjusted gross income is $50,000 or less (or $100,000 or less if married filing jointly). If eligible for the subtraction, the taxable portion of social security benefits reported on Form 1040 or 1040 SR, line 6b, is entered on Form ND-1, line 15.

For federal income tax purposes, Tier 1 social security equivalent benefits from the U.S. Railroad Retirement Board, which are reported on a Form RRB-1099, are taxed in the same manner as social security benefits received from the Social Security Administration. The taxable portion, if any, of Tier 1 benefits reported on Form 1040 or 1040-SR, line 6b, is exempt from state income tax under the federal law governing the U.S. Railroad Retirement Board. An individual may deduct taxable Tier 1 benefits from North Dakota taxable income regardless of the amount of the individual's federal adjusted gross income. The taxable portion of Tier 1 benefits reported on Form 1040 or 1040-SR, line 6b, is entered on Form ND-1, line 9.

An individual may receive both social security benefits from the Social Security Administration and Tier 1 social security equivalent benefits from the U.S. Railroad Retirement Board. Both types of benefits are combined for purposes of determining the taxable amount on the federal return. In this case, the amounts to enter on Form ND-1, lines 9 and 15, are determined by multiplying the taxable amount of the benefits on Form 1040 or 1040-SR, line 6b, by a ratio equal to the gross amount of each type of benefit divided by the combined gross amounts of both benefits.

Reminder: Expiration of 2019 changes to nonprofit private school contribution credits

The 2019 North Dakota Legislature changed the law governing the income tax credits for making a charitable contribution to nonprofit private primary schools, high schools, and colleges in North Dakota. The changes allowed the credits to individuals who made direct contributions to qualifying schools and increased the limitation based on the tax liability from 20% to 25%. These changes, however, were limited to the 2019 and 2020 tax years. Unless the 2021 legislature passes legislation to extend these changes, the law will revert to how it was prior to 2019 starting with the 2021 tax year. These credits are claimed on Schedule ND-1PSC.

Reminder: Expiration of 2019 changes to disabled or mentally ill person employment credit

The 2019 North Dakota Legislature changed the law governing the income tax credit for employing a developmentally disabled or mentally ill individual. The changes expanded the credit and changed the qualifying criteria. These changes, however, were limited to the 2019 and 2020 tax years. Unless the 2021 legislature passes legislation to extend these changes, the law will revert to how it was prior to 2019 starting with the 2021 tax year.

Reminder: Deduction available to parents of stillborn child

A deduction is available to parents who experience a stillbirth. The deduction, which is adjusted annually for inflation, increases to $4,301 for the 2020 tax year. See Schedule ND-1SA, line 5.

The deduction is allowed to an individual who meets the following requirements:

- The individual is the parent of a child who was stillborn in 2020.
- The individual obtains a certified copy of a Fetal Death Record (Certification of Fetal Death) from the North Dakota Department of Health, Division of Vital Records.
- The individual would have been eligible to claim the child as a dependent on the 2020 federal income tax return if the child had been born alive.

A certified copy of a Fetal Death Record can be obtained from the North Dakota Division of Vital Records online at www.ndhealth.gov/vital, or by submitting a request form by fax or mail. It can also be obtained in person at the agency's office in the State Capitol, Judicial Wing, First Floor, Room 118.

Who must file a return

Full-year resident

If you were a full-year resident of North Dakota for the 2020 tax year and you are required to file a 2020 federal individual income tax return, you must file a 2020 North Dakota individual income tax return. This applies even if you worked outside North Dakota (including employment overseas) during the tax year or have income from sources outside North Dakota. You were a full-year resident of North Dakota if you were a resident of North Dakota for the entire tax year or meet the statutory 7-month rule—see "Statutory 7-month rule" on this page.

Definition of resident—In these instructions, the term "resident" refers to an individual who is a legal resident of North Dakota. Legal residence (which is also called domicile) means the place that is your permanent home to which you always intend to return whenever absent from it. If you have more than one physical place of abode, only one of them may be your legal residence. Legal residence is based on your intent and your actions.

Statutory 7-month rule—Even though you were not a resident of North Dakota for any part of the tax year—that is, you were a full-year nonresident—you must file as a full-year resident of North Dakota if you maintain a permanent place of abode in North Dakota and spend in the aggregate more than 210 days of the tax year in North Dakota. A permanent place of abode means a house, apartment, or other dwelling containing cooking and bathroom facilities that is suitable for year-round living and is maintained on a permanent or indefinite basis. This 7-month rule does not apply if you were (1) a part-year resident of North Dakota, (2) a full-year nonresident serving in the U.S. armed forces, or (3) a full-year resident of Montana or Minnesota covered by reciprocity.

Resident in U.S. armed forces—If you were a full-year resident of North Dakota serving in the U.S. armed forces during the 2020 tax year and you are required to file a 2020 federal individual income tax return, you must file a 2020 North Dakota individual income tax return as a full-year resident. This applies regardless of where you were stationed during 2020.

Civilian spouse of U.S. armed forces service member—If you are a civilian spouse of a U.S. armed forces service member, you must file a 2020 North Dakota individual income tax return if both of the following apply:

- You are required to file a 2020 federal individual income tax return.
- You were a full-year resident of North Dakota for the 2020 tax year. You are treated as a resident for this purpose if you elect under the federal Servicemembers Civil Relief Act to be a North Dakota resident for state tax purposes.

For more information, see the Civilian Spouses of Military Service Members income tax guideline.

Full-year nonresident

If you were a full-year nonresident of North Dakota for the 2020 tax year, you must file a 2020 North Dakota individual income tax return if both of the following apply:

- You are required to file a 2020 federal individual income tax return.
- You derived gross income from North Dakota sources during the 2020 tax year. (See the box on page 5 for what is included in gross income from North Dakota sources.)

You were a full-year nonresident if you were not a resident of North Dakota for any part of the tax year and do not meet the statutory 7-month rule—see "Statutory 7-month rule" on this page.

Nonresident in U.S. armed forces—If you were a full-year nonresident of North Dakota serving in the U.S. armed forces during the 2020 tax year and you are required to file a 2020 federal individual income tax return, you must file a 2020 North Dakota individual income tax return as a full-year nonresident if you have gross income from North Dakota sources other than your military compensation.

Civilian spouse of U.S. armed forces service member—If you are a civilian spouse of a U.S. armed forces service member, you are not required to file a 2020 North Dakota individual income tax return if all of the following apply:

- Your service member spouse’s permanent duty station is in North Dakota.
- Your only gross income from North Dakota sources was wages for work performed in North Dakota.
- You resided in North Dakota only because you wanted to live with your service member spouse.
- Both you and your service member spouse were full-year nonresidents of North Dakota for the 2020 tax year. You are treated as a nonresident for this purpose if you elect under the federal Servicemembers Civil Relief Act to be a resident of a state other than North Dakota for state tax purposes.

For more information, see the Civilian Spouses of Military Service Members income tax guideline.

Minnesota or Montana resident—If you were a full-year resident of Minnesota for the 2020 tax year, you do not have to file a 2020 North Dakota individual income tax return if both of the following apply:

- Your only gross income from North Dakota sources was compensation for personal or professional services.
- You returned to your home in Minnesota at least once each month during the time you worked in North Dakota.

If you were a full-year resident of Montana for the 2020 tax year, you do not have to file a 2020 North Dakota individual income tax return if your only gross income from North Dakota sources was wages.

See “Reciprocity” on page 6 for more information.

Nonresident alien—If you were a nonresident alien of the United States and received gross income from North Dakota sources during the 2020 tax year, you must file a 2020 North Dakota individual income tax return. Except where an income tax treaty between the United States and a foreign country specifically exempts income from taxation by a U.S. state, income tax treaties between the U.S. and foreign countries do not apply for North Dakota income tax purposes. Therefore, you may have to pay North Dakota income tax on gross income from North Dakota sources even though the income is exempt from U.S. income tax because of a treaty. For more information, including the instructions on how to complete the North Dakota return, see the Taxation of Nonresident Aliens income tax guideline.

Disaster recovery tax exemptions—Exemptions from state and local tax filing and payment obligations are available to out-of-state businesses and their employees who are in North Dakota on a temporary basis for the sole purpose of repairing or replacing natural gas, electrical, or telecommunication transmission property that is damaged, or under threat of damage, from a state- or presidentially-declared disaster or emergency. For more information, go to www.nd.gov/tax.

Gross income from North Dakota sources for nonresidents only

For a nonresident, “gross income from North Dakota sources” includes the following:

- Compensation for services performed in North Dakota, such as wages, salaries, tips, commissions, and fees.
- Income from tangible property in North Dakota, such as rents, oil and gas royalties, and gain from the sale or exchange of the property.
- Income from a trade or business carried on in North Dakota, whether as a sole proprietorship, partnership, S corporation, or limited liability company treated like a partnership or S corporation.
- Income from an estate or trust, but only to the extent the income is derived from tangible property or a trade or business in North Dakota.
- Income from gambling activity carried on in North Dakota.

- Unemployment compensation attributable to previous employment in North Dakota.

Exceptions

Gross income from North Dakota sources does not include these items received while a nonresident of North Dakota: military pay, interest, dividends, pensions, annuities, gain from the sale or exchange of intangible property, compensation exempted under reciprocity with Minnesota or Montana, compensation exempted under federal military and interstate commerce laws, or compensation exempted under North Dakota’s mobile workforce exemption.

Note: Interest, dividends, gains, and other income from intangible property are included in gross income from North Dakota sources if derived from a trade or business carried on in North Dakota, such as a sole proprietorship, partnership, or S corporation.

Part-year resident

If you were a part-year resident of North Dakota for the 2020 tax year, you must file a 2020 North Dakota individual income tax return if both of the following apply:

- You are required to file a 2020 federal individual income tax return.
- You derived gross income from (1) any source inside or outside North Dakota while you were a resident of North Dakota or (2) a North Dakota source while you were a nonresident of North Dakota. (See the box on this page for what is included in gross income from North Dakota sources while a nonresident.)

You were a part-year resident of North Dakota if you were a resident of North Dakota for only part of the year. This generally applies if you moved into or out of North Dakota and the move constituted a change in your legal residence. See “Definition of resident” on page 4.

Native Americans

If you are a Native American, you are not subject to North Dakota income tax and do not have to file a North Dakota income tax return if all of the following apply:

- You are enrolled as a member of a federally-recognized Indian tribe.
- You lived on any Indian reservation in North Dakota.
- You derived all of your income from sources on any Indian reservation in North Dakota.

If any of the above criteria are not met, you may be subject to North Dakota income tax. For more information, see the Income Taxation of Native Americans income tax guideline.

Which form to use

If you are required to file a 2020 North Dakota individual income tax return, see the box on this page to determine whether you should use Form ND-EZ or Form ND-1.

Reciprocity

North Dakota has income tax reciprocity agreements with the states of Minnesota and Montana. If certain conditions in the agreements are met, compensation for services is taxable only by the state of residence.

Minnesota and Montana residents

If you are a resident of Minnesota and maintain a permanent home in Minnesota to which you return at least once each month during the time you work in North Dakota, the compensation you receive for personal or professional services performed in North Dakota is not taxable by North Dakota. If you are a resident of Montana, wages you receive for work performed in North Dakota are not taxable by North Dakota.

If you received wages covered by reciprocity, and your employer withheld North Dakota income tax of $5.00 or more from them, you must file a North

North Dakota residents

If you are a resident of North Dakota and maintain a permanent home in North Dakota to which you return at least once each month during the time you work in Minnesota, the compensation that you receive for personal or professional services performed in Minnesota is not taxable by Minnesota. Also, wages you receive for work performed in Montana while a resident of North Dakota are not taxable by Montana.

When and where to file

If you are filing on a calendar year basis, you must file your 2020 North Dakota individual income tax return on or before April 15, 2021. If you are filing on a fiscal year basis, you must file on or before the 15th day of the fourth month following the close of your fiscal tax year. If the due date falls on a Saturday, Sunday or holiday, you have until the next day that is not a Saturday, Sunday, or holiday to file your return.

Mail your return to:

Office of State Tax Commissioner
PO Box 5621
Bismarck, North Dakota 58506-5621

Extension of time to file

You may obtain an extension of time to file your North Dakota individual income tax return by obtaining either a federal extension or a North Dakota extension.

Federal extension

If you obtain an extension of time to file your federal return, it will be recognized for North Dakota individual income tax purposes. This includes the automatic extension allowed for being outside the U.S. and Puerto Rico on April 15. You do not have to file a separate state extension form or notify the Office of State Tax Commissioner that you have obtained a federal extension prior to filing your North Dakota return. Fill in the circle next to “Extension” at the top of Form ND-EZ or Form ND-1, whichever applies.

North Dakota extension

If you do not obtain a federal extension, but need additional time to file your North Dakota return, you may apply for a North Dakota extension by completing and filing Form 101. This is not an automatic extension—you must have good cause to request a North Dakota extension. Form 101 must be postmarked on or before the due date of your return. You will be notified whether your extension request is approved or rejected. If approved, fill in the circle next to “Extension” at the top of Form ND-EZ or Form ND-1, whichever applies.

Extension interest

If you obtain an extension and file your North Dakota return on or before the extended due date, and you pay any tax balance due with the return, no penalty will be charged. Interest on any tax due on the return will be charged at the rate of 12% per year from the original due date of your return to the earlier of the date you file your return or the extended due date.

Prepayment of tax due

If you are applying for an extension of time to file, you may prepay the tax that you expect to owe to avoid paying extension interest. For electronic and paper payment options, go to www.nd.gov/tax and click on “Make A Payment” at top of page. If submitting a payment by paper check or money order, you must complete and submit a 2020 Form ND-1EXT payment voucher with the payment. Alternatively, you may submit a paper check or money order along with a letter containing the following:

- Your name.
- Your social security number.
- Your address and phone number.
- Statement that you are making a 2020 Form ND-1EXT payment.

If you prepay your tax, you must file Form ND-1 and claim the payment on page 2, line 27; you may not file Form ND-EZ.

Penalty and interest

If you obtain an extension of time to file your return, you may pay the tax due by the extended due date of the return without penalty, but extension interest will apply—see “Extension interest” and “Prepayment of tax due” on this page.

If you file your return by its due date (or extended due date), but you do not pay all of the tax due on it by the return’s due date (or extended due date), a penalty equal to 5% of the unpaid tax due or $5.00, whichever is greater, must be paid.

If you file your return after its due date (or extended due date), and there is an unpaid tax due on it, a penalty equal to 5% of the unpaid tax due or $5.00, whichever is greater, applies for the month the return was due, with an additional 5% of the unpaid tax due for each month (or fraction of a month) the return remains delinquent, not to exceed 25% of the tax due.

In addition to any penalty, interest must be paid at the rate of 1% per month or fraction of a month, except for the month in which the tax was due, on any tax due that remains unpaid after the return’s due date (or extended due date).

Federal income tax return

You must complete your 2020 federal individual income tax return (Form 1040 or 1040-SR) before you complete your 2020 North Dakota individual income tax return. Certain information from your federal return is needed to complete your North Dakota return.

If you are filing your North Dakota return on paper, you must attach a complete copy of your federal income tax return to your North Dakota return. A complete copy consists of Form 1040 or 1040-SR and all supplemental forms and schedules. You do not have to include depreciation schedules or any other statements that you may have prepared as supporting documentation to your federal return.

Changing your return

If you need to change your North Dakota return after you file it, you must file an amended return. There is no special form for this purpose. See “How to prepare an amended return” on page 8.

If you paid too much tax because of an error in your return, you generally have three years after you file your original return to file an amended return to correct the error and claim a refund of the overpayment. For other time periods that may apply, see North Dakota Century Code § 57-38-40 or contact the Office of State Tax Commissioner.

Penalty and interest apply to additional tax due on an amended return.

Change to federal return

By law, you must file an amended North Dakota return to report changes made to your federal return. This applies whether the changes are attributable to your filing of an amended federal return or an audit or correction by the IRS. The amended North Dakota return must be filed within 90 days after filing the amended federal return or within 90 days after the final determination of the IRS changes.

How to prepare an amended return

1. Obtain a blank Form ND-1 for the tax year affected by the changes.
2. Enter your name, current address, social security number, and other information required at top of return.
3. Fill in the circle next to “Amended return: General” or “Amended return: Federal NOL,” whichever applies, in the top right-hand corner of the return. See “Amended return” on page 11 for more information.
4. Complete the return through the net tax liability line.
5. Leave the line for income tax withholding blank unless you are claiming an additional amount not previously claimed.
6. On the “Total payments” line, enter the net tax liability shown on your original return or previously filed amended return. If the net tax liability has not been fully paid at the time the amended return is filed, only enter the amount of tax that has been paid.
7. Complete the remaining portion of the return according to the instructions. On an amended return, you may not adjust the amount of any voluntary contribution, nor the amount of an overpayment applied to the next year’s estimated tax.

8. Attach a statement explaining why you are changing your return. If you are doing so because of changes you or the IRS made to your federal return, attach a copy of the amended federal return or IRS notice. If amending to claim a net operating loss carryback, attach Form 1045 or 1040X.

Estimated tax requirement (for 2021)

You must pay estimated North Dakota income tax for the 2021 tax year if all of the following conditions apply:

1. You are required to pay estimated federal income tax for 2021.
2. Your North Dakota net tax liability for 2020 is $1,000 or more. (If you are not required to file a North Dakota return for 2020, you do not have to pay estimated tax for 2021.)
3. You expect to owe (after subtracting any estimated North Dakota income tax withholding) at least $1,000 in North Dakota income tax for 2021.
4. You expect your North Dakota income tax withholding for 2021 to be less than the smaller of the following:
 - (a) 90% of your 2021 North Dakota net tax liability. Note: Substitute 66 2/3% if a qualified farmer—see instructions for 2021 Form ND-1ES.
 - (b) 100% of your 2020 North Dakota net tax liability. If you moved into North Dakota during 2020 and had no income from North Dakota prior to the move, this 100% threshold does not apply; you must satisfy the 90% threshold in part (a).

In general, one-fourth (25%) of the total estimated tax required to be paid for the 2021 tax year must be paid by April 15, June 15, and September 15, 2021, and January 15, 2022.

For electronic and paper payment options, go to www.nd.gov/tax and click on “Make A Payment” at top of page.

If submitting a payment by paper check or money order, you must complete and submit a 2021 Form ND-1ES payment voucher with the payment.

How to file a return for a deceased taxpayer

If a final federal income tax return is required to be filed for a decedent for the year of death, a final North Dakota income tax return also must be filed. A court-appointed personal representative is responsible for filing the decedent’s final return, even if there is a surviving spouse. The information from the final federal return is used to complete the final North Dakota return, and the North Dakota return is to be signed in the same manner as required for federal income tax purposes. If there is a personal representative and no surviving spouse, a copy of the court document showing the appointment must be attached to the final return. If there is a surviving spouse and the final return will be filed on a joint basis, a refund will be mailed in both spouses’ names.

If there is no surviving spouse and no personal representative has been appointed for the decedent, attach a copy of the death certificate and a copy of one of the following:

- Letter of Testamentary.
- Letter of Administration.
- Affidavit for Collection of Personal Property of Decedent.

For assistance, see back cover of booklet.

Fill in the circle for “Deceased” and enter the date of death next to the deceased taxpayer’s name on Form ND-EZ or Form ND-1, whichever applies.

Disclosure notification

Upon written request from the chairman of a North Dakota legislative standing committee or Legislative Management, the law requires the Office of State Tax Commissioner to disclose the amount of any deduction or credit claimed on a tax return. Any other confidential information, such as a taxpayer’s name or social security number, may not be disclosed.

- If the routing or account number is incorrect, or if your financial institution does not accept the direct deposit, a paper check will be issued.
- Due to electronic banking rules, the Office of State Tax Commissioner will not allow a direct deposit to or through a foreign financial institution. In this case, a paper check will be issued.

If you are filing a paper return and paying the balance due with a paper check or money order, complete a 2020 Form ND-1PRV payment voucher and enclose it with the payment. However, if you are filing your return electronically, complete and submit a 2020 Form ND-1V with the paper check or money order. Make check or money order payable to "ND State Tax Commissioner," and write the last four digits of your social security number and "2020 Form ND-EZ" on your check or money order. A check must be drawn on a U.S. or Canadian bank, be in U.S. dollars, and use a standard 9-digit routing number. A check drawn on a foreign bank (except one in Canada) cannot be accepted.

Form 1099-G consent and disclosure authorization

At the bottom of Form ND-EZ (below line 9), fill in the applicable circle(s) to indicate if you want either or both of the following items to apply.

Form 1099-G consent. If there is an overpayment on your 2020 Form ND-EZ, line 4, federal tax law requires our office to file with the IRS and mail to you a Form 1099-G showing the overpayment amount. You may need this information when preparing your 2021 federal income tax return. Fill in the circle for this item if you want to obtain Form 1099-G electronically from our website (www.nd.gov/tax) instead of receiving it by mail. The 2021 Form 1099-G will be available on our website in January 2022. For more information, go to our website at www.nd.gov/tax.

Disclosure authorization. Fill in the circle for this item if you want to authorize our office to communicate directly with your tax return preparer about your 2020 return. This may include requesting information needed to process the return and responding to inquiries from your preparer about correction notices you receive from us. The authorization does not allow your preparer to receive your refund check, to bind you in any way, or to legally represent you. The authorization only applies to the individual whose printed name and signature appear in the preparer's signature area, and it automatically expires on the due date (including extensions) for filing your 2021 return.

Before you file, did you—

- Taxable portion of IRAs, pensions, annuities, and social security benefits reported on Form 1040 or 1040-SR, lines 4b, 5b, and 6b. Reduce this total by amounts entered on Form ND-1, lines 9 and 15.

Line 23 - Other credits

For other credits that may apply to you, see Schedule ND-1TC and its instructions. Enter on this line the total credits from Schedule ND-1TC. Attach Schedule ND-1TC.

Line 26 - Withholding

Enter the North Dakota income tax withholding shown on a 2020 Form W-2, Form 1099, or North Dakota Schedule K-1. Also enter North Dakota income tax withholding shown on a 2019 North Dakota Schedule K-1 if the tax year of the partnership, S corporation, estate, or trust shown on the Schedule K-1 is a fiscal year ending in your 2020 tax year. Be sure the state identified on the Form W-2 or Form 1099 is North Dakota. Do not enter on this line North Dakota extraction or production taxes withheld from mineral interest income, such as an oil or gas royalty, because they are not income taxes. Attach a copy of the Form W-2, Form 1099, or North Dakota Schedule K-1.

Line 27 - Estimated tax payment

If you made an advance payment of North Dakota income tax on a 2020 Form ND-1ES or Form ND-1EXT, you paid estimated income tax to North Dakota. Enter the estimated income tax paid to North Dakota for the 2020 tax year on this line. If you overpaid your income tax on your 2019 North Dakota income tax return, and you elected to leave part or all of it on deposit to be applied as an estimated income tax payment for 2020, enter that amount on this line. Do not enter on this line any North Dakota income tax withholding shown on a Form W-2, Form 1099, or North Dakota Schedule K-1. Income tax withholding must be entered on line 26.

Line 30 - Application of overpayment to 2021

If you have an overpayment on line 29, you may elect to apply part or all of it as an estimated payment toward your 2021 income tax liability. If you make this election, you may not change the election or the amount you applied after you file your return.

Line 31 - Voluntary contribution of overpayment

If you have an overpayment on line 29, you may make a voluntary contribution of part or all of it to any of the three funds on this line. Enter the amount you wish to contribute on the line to the right of the fund name. If contributing, you must contribute at least $1.00. A contribution will reduce your refund.

Line 32 - Direct deposit of refund

If you want us to deposit your refund directly into your bank account, complete items a, b, and c below line 32. Check with your financial institution to see if it will accept direct deposit and to obtain the correct routing and account numbers.

Routing number (Item a)—Enter the 9-digit routing number. The first two digits must be within the range of 01 through 12 or 21 through 32.

Account number (Item b)—Enter the account number. It may have up to 17 digits (both letters and numbers). Include hyphens, but omit special symbols.

If depositing into a checking account, see the sample check on this page for where to find the routing and account numbers. If depositing into a savings account without a check writing feature, ask your financial institution for the correct account number to use.

Please note:

- Do not use the number on a deposit slip for the routing or account number.
- You will not receive notification of when the deposit is made by our office. Contact your bank or check your bank statement to verify the deposit.
- If the routing or account number is incorrect, or if your bank does not accept the direct deposit, a paper check will be issued.
- Due to changes in the electronic banking rules, the Office of State Tax Commissioner will not allow a direct deposit to or through a foreign financial institution. In this case, a paper check will be issued.

Line 34 - Penalty and interest

Our office will notify you of any penalty and interest owed for late filing or late payment, or interest owed on tax due during an extension period. However, you may calculate the amount of penalty, interest, or both, that you owe and pay it with your return.

See “Penalty and interest” on page 7 for how to calculate penalty and interest. Enter the separate penalty and interest amounts, and the total of the two amounts, on the applicable lines.

Line 35 - Voluntary contribution

If you have a tax due on line 33, you may make a voluntary contribution to any of the three funds on this line. Enter the amount you wish to contribute on the line to the right of the fund name. If contributing, you must contribute at least $1.00 to a fund. A contribution will increase your balance due.

Line 36 - Balance due

The balance due must be paid in full with your return. You may pay the balance due online with an electronic check or a debit or credit card. The electronic check option is free. North Dakota contracts with a national payment service to provide the debit or credit card option. There is a fee for the debit or credit option, none of which goes to the State of North Dakota. To pay online, go to www.nd.gov/tax/payment.

If you are filing a paper return and paying the balance due with a paper check or money order, complete a 2020 Form ND-1PRV payment voucher and enclose it with the payment. However, if you are filing your return electronically, complete and submit a 2020 Form ND-1V with the paper check or money order. Make check or money order payable to “ND State Tax Commissioner,” and write the last four digits of your social security number and “2020 Form ND-1” on your check or money order. A check must be drawn on a U.S. or Canadian bank, be in U.S. dollars, and use a standard 9-digit routing number. A check drawn on a foreign bank (except one in Canada) cannot be accepted.

Line 37 - Interest on underpaid estimated tax

If you were required to pay estimated North Dakota income tax for 2020, but you did not pay enough or you paid it late, interest is charged on the underpayment or late payment. To determine if you owe interest, obtain and complete the 2020 Schedule ND-1UT.

Signatures

Sign and date your return. If you are filing a joint return, both spouses must sign.

Form 1099-G consent and disclosure authorization

At the bottom of Form ND-1, page 2 (below line 37), fill in the applicable circle(s) to indicate if you want either or both of the following items to apply.

Form 1099-G consent. If there is an overpayment on your 2020 Form ND-1, line 29, federal tax law requires our office to file with the IRS and mail to you a Form 1099-G showing the overpayment amount. You may need this information when preparing your 2021 federal income tax return. Fill in the circle for this item if you want to obtain Form 1099-G electronically from our website (www.nd.gov/tax) instead of receiving it by mail. The 2021 Form 1099-G will be available on our website in January 2022. For more information, go to our website at www.nd.gov/tax.

Disclosure authorization. Fill in the circle for this item if you want to authorize our office to communicate directly with your tax return preparer about your 2020 return. This may include requesting information needed to process the return and responding to inquiries from your preparer about correction notices you receive from us. The authorization does not allow your preparer to receive your refund check, to bind you in any way, or to legally represent you. The authorization only applies to the individual whose printed name and signature appear in the preparer’s signature area, and it automatically expires on the due date (including extensions) for filing your 2021 return.

Before you file, did you—

- Sign your return?
An unsigned return is incomplete.
- Include a complete copy of your federal return?
Return is incomplete without it.
- Write your social security number on return? We use this number to identify your return.
- Check your math?
This is one of the most common errors made.
- Include all Form W-2s?
Also include a copy of a 1099 or Schedule K-1 showing North Dakota withholding.
- Use the correct postage?
Avoid mailing problems by using the correct postage.

Important! If your return is missing your signature or a copy of your federal return, it will be sent back to you. This may result in late filing and payment charges if you resubmit it after the due date.

The Trees for North Dakota Income Tax Check-Off

The Threat: Emerald ash borer (EAB) is a highly invasive, exotic insect that attacks and kills all species of ash trees. It is as close as St. Paul, Minnesota. If EAB becomes established here, the economic and environmental impacts will be overwhelming. There are an estimated 78 million ash trees within North Dakota's forests and woodlands. Ash is the most common tree planted in communities, reaching 60% of the tree population in some towns. Ash also represents a large percentage of the state's 55,000 miles of field and farmstead windbreaks. Costs of removing, disposing and replacing trees lost to EAB, coupled with the economic benefits associated with trees lost, such as reduced energy costs and ecosystem services, the insect's impact could far exceed $1 billion dollars!

How You Can Help: Each of us has the ability to play an important role in the overall health and well-being of our forest resources by making a donation to the Trees for North Dakota Trust Fund. The “Community Family Forest” grant program, funded by private donations to the Trees for North Dakota Trust Fund, helps communities diversify their forest resources by planting a variety of trees adapted to North Dakota's climate. Our collective efforts can make incredible contributions to the quality of life in North Dakota for all who live and visit here. Please consider a donation today.

To contribute to the Trees for North Dakota Trust Fund, consult your tax preparer or enter a voluntary contribution on the current North Dakota Individual Income Tax Return (see below):

Form ND-EZ: Refund return (Line 5)/Tax due (Line 8)

Form ND-1: Refund return (Line 31)/Tax due (Line 35)

“Community Family Forest” grants are awarded to purchase and plant trees on public property across the state. The grants help strengthen the tradition of annual tree planting.

2020 Tax Table

Example. Taxpayers are residents of North Dakota and are married filing jointly. Their North Dakota taxable income is $49,935. Find "$49,900 - $49,950" in the ND taxable income column. Read across to the amount shown in the "Married filing jointly" column. Their tax is $549.

Part- or full-year nonresident. If either or both spouses were part- or full-year nonresidents of North Dakota, they must enter the $549 on Schedule ND-1NR, line 22, to calculate their tax.
