** Includes biodiesel and biodiesel blends

Purpose. Use this form to claim fuels tax refunds, pay fuels use tax or sales use tax.

Who Can Use This Form

Refund Claim. Any person or entity purchasing and consuming Idaho tax-paid fuel for a nontaxable purpose can claim a refund when using:

- Gasoline (50 gallons or more).
- Special fuels (any quantity) includes diesel, biodiesel, biodiesel blends or tax-paid gaseous special fuels like propane, compressed natural gas (CNG), or liquefied natural gas (LNG).
- AIRCRAFT: See the Applying Tax to Runways Instead of Roads guide at tax.idaho.gov/fuelshub.

Pay Tax. Any person or business consuming untaxed fuel in Idaho can use this form to pay the Idaho fuels use tax or sales use tax. You can pay tax when:

- You bought any untaxed fuel and used it for a taxable purpose.
- You're a Qualified Consumer. See Motor Fuels Tax Rule 135 (IDAPA 35.01.05).
- You owe fuels tax because you used dyed diesel on a taxable road.
- You owe sales use tax because you didn't pay it when you purchased dyed diesel.

Who Claims a Refund for a Business:

A partnership or corporation itself must claim refunds or report and pay fuels tax. Partners or shareholders can't claim refunds or report and pay tax for the business on their income tax returns or Form 75.

Individuals and sole proprietors must claim refunds or report and pay fuels tax on their income tax returns or Form 75.

How Often Can I Claim a Refund or Pay Tax. You can claim a refund or report and pay fuels tax with your annual income tax return or with the Form 75 alone. When you file a Form 75, remember to include all required worksheets.

- When you file a Form 75 by itself, the filing period must be at least one month but not more than a year.
- When claiming a refund or reporting and paying tax with your Idaho income tax return, include the Form 75.

Taxable and Nontaxable Use. See the Fuels Consumers guide at tax.idaho.gov/fuelshub.

Don't claim a refund twice. Be careful not to file a refund claim during the year and file a refund claim for the same fuel on your income tax return at the end of the year. You'll have to pay back the tax plus penalty and interest.

No refund for dyed diesel. You can't claim a fuels tax refund for dyed diesel. Dyed diesel doesn't include fuels tax in the price. You owe sales use tax on dyed diesel unless you give the seller a sales tax exemption form. You owe fuels use tax when you use dyed diesel on a taxable road.

Other Times No Refund is Paid. See the Fuels Consumers guide at tax.idaho.gov/fuelshub.

Recordkeeping Requirements. You must keep records to prove your fuels tax refund claim or payment is correct. Records can include, but aren't limited to:

- All motor fuels receipts with date, time, place of purchase
- Total gallons and evidence you paid tax
- Gallons used in all vehicles and equipment

You waive all rights to a refund if you don't provide these records upon request. Go to tax.idaho.gov/fuelshub for more information.

Required Worksheets. You may be required to complete and include one or more of these worksheets with your refund claim:

- Form 75-NM Fuels Tax Refund Worksheet -Nontaxable Miles (Special Fuels Only). Refunds won't offset tax due on your IFTA report.
- Form 75-PTO Fuels Tax Refund Worksheet -Power Take-off and Auxiliary Engine.
- Form 75-BST Fuels Tax Refund Worksheet -Idaho Consumers with Bulk Storage Tanks.
- Form 75-LFA Fuels Tax Refund Worksheet -Line Flush Allowance.

Sales Use Tax Due. Anyone claiming a refund of fuels tax must complete Section VII. SALES USE TAX DUE. Not completing this section means you're claiming an exemption from sales use tax.

Motor fuel is exempt from sales or use tax when fuels tax is included in the price. Motor fuels isn't exempt from sales use tax when you claim a refund of fuels tax.

Sales use tax doesn't apply when the fuel claimed for a refund qualifies for production, manufacturing, farming, or other exemptions.

See the Exemptions guide at tax.idaho.gov/salesusehub.

When you owe sales use tax, you must report it on your Idaho income tax return, Idaho sales or use tax return, or Form 75 by completing Section VII.
