Obtain a copy of the North Dakota Taxpayer Bill of Rights from our website at www.tax.nd.gov

If you need a form or document mentioned in this booklet, you may obtain it from our website at www.tax.nd.gov, or request it by phone, e-mail, fax, or letter-see the back cover of this booklet for phone numbers and addresses.

You might be eligible for a refund of local sales tax!

Most city and county local tax ordinances contain a local sales tax maximum, which varies among the local tax jurisdictions. If you pay local sales tax in excess of the jurisdiction's maximum amount, you may apply to the Office of State Tax Commissioner to obtain a refund of the excess local sales tax paid. For example, if you purchase $$ 4,000$ of furniture in a city having a $1 \%$ sales tax and a local sales tax maximum of $$ 25$, the retailer will collect $$ 200$ in state sales tax ( $$ 4,000 \times 5 \%$ ) and $$ 40$ in local sales tax ( $$ 4,000 \times 1 \%$ ) at the time of purchase. You may apply to the Office of State Tax Commissioner to obtain a refund of $$ 15$, which is the excess of the $$ 40$ local sales tax paid over the $$ 25$ local sales tax maximum. Apply for a Local Tax Refund on our North Dakota Taxpayer Access Point (ND TAP) at www.tax.nd.gov/LocalTaxRefund.

Do you owe use tax?

If you purchased goods from a source outside North Dakota that you use or consume in North Dakota on which you did not pay North Dakota sales tax, you may have to pay state and local sales taxes to North Dakota. Technically, what you have to pay is called a "use tax." The use tax applies to the same goods that are subject to North Dakota's sales tax. The use tax applies whether you purchased the goods in person at an out-of-state location, or by mail, phone, or over the Internet.
If you purchased the goods in another state and did not pay any sales tax to that state, you must pay the full use tax to North Dakota. However, if you did pay the other state's sales tax but paid less than what you would have paid in North Dakota, you must pay use tax to North Dakota equal to the difference. If you purchased the goods in another country, you must pay the full use tax to North Dakota regardless of whether you paid any tax to that country on the purchase.
If you owe use tax to North Dakota, you must file a North Dakota use tax return using the One Time Remittance Form. You can obtain it from our website at www.tax.nd.gov, or you may call us at 701-328-1246.

Privacy Act Notification. In compliance with the Privacy Act of 1974, disclosure of the individual's social security number on this form is required under N.D.C.C. $\S \S 57-01-15$ and 57-38-31, and will be used for tax reporting, identification and administration of North Dakota tax laws. Disclosure is mandatory. Failure to provide the social security number may delay or prevent the processing of this form.

REMINDER: Tax relief credit for North Dakota residents

House Bill 1515 passed by the 2021 North Dakota Legislature, in Special Session in November 2021, created a nonrefundable tax relief income tax credit for full-year residents of North Dakota. The credit is available only for the 2021 and 2022 tax years, after which it expires. Fullyear residency is the only qualifying condition, and so the credit is allowed to all full-year resident filers who have a tax liability (before any credits) on their return. A credit of $$ 350$ is allowed to single, head of household, qualifying widow(er), and married filing separately filers. For married persons filing jointly, both of whom are full-year residents, a credit of $$ 700$ is allowed. In the case of married persons filing jointly, where one spouse is a full-year resident of North Dakota and the other spouse is a nonresident of North Dakota for part or all of the year, a $$ 350$ credit is allowed. The amount of the credit is limited to the lesser of the credit or the tax (before any credits) on the return. If the credit exceeds the tax on the return, the excess credit is not refundable and cannot be carried over and used in any other tax year. The credit is claimed on Form ND-1, line 20.

Form ND-EZ filers. Form ND-EZ is for full-year residents of North Dakota who have no state adjustments to income and no state income tax credits. Because all full-year residents qualify for the new tax relief income tax credit, any full-year resident who has a tax liability in 2022 must use Form ND-1 to get the credit. The credit is not available on Form ND-EZ. Individuals who, except for the new credit, would qualify to use Form ND-EZ may still use it if their North Dakota taxable income and tax are zero.

REMINDER: 2-year extension of 2019 changes to disabled employment credit

In 2019, the North Dakota Legislature expanded the income tax credit for hiring a qualifying developmentally disabled or mentally ill individual. Eligibility for the credit was extended to all taxpayers (not just C corporations), the credit rate was increased from $5 \%$ to $25 \%$, and the wages on which the credit is allowed was changed from the first $$ 6,000$ paid in the first 12 months of employment to the first $$ 6,000$ paid annually. The 2019 changes were effective only for the 2019 and 2020 tax years. House Bill 1405 passed by the 2021 North Dakota Legislature reinstated the 2019 changes for two additional tax years-2021 and 2022-after which the changes will expire, and the law will revert to how it read prior to 2019. To qualify for the credit, an employer must apply for and obtain from the North Dakota Department of Human Services, Vocational Rehabilitation Division, a letter certifying that the individual has a severe developmental or mental disability, is eligible for the agency's services, and requires customized or supported employment to become employed. See Schedule ND-1TC, line 23.

REMINDER: Deduction available to parents of stillborn child

A deduction is available to parents who experience a stillbirth. The deduction, which is adjusted annually for inflation, increases to $$ 4,530$ for the 2022 tax year. See Schedule ND-1SA, line 5.
The deduction is allowed to an individual who meets the following requirements:

- The individual is the parent of a child who was stillborn in 2022.
- The individual obtains a certified copy of a Fetal Death Record (Certification of Fetal Death) from the North Dakota Department of Health, Division of Vital Records.
- The individual would have been eligible to claim the child as a dependent on the 2022 federal income tax return if the child had been born alive.

A certified copy of a Fetal Death Record can be obtained from the North Dakota Division of Vital Records online at www.ndhealth.gov/vital, or by submitting a request form by fax or mail. It can also be obtained in person at the agency's office in the State Capitol, Judicial Wing, First Floor, Room 118.

Free electronic filing available to many individuals

Nearly $90 \%$ of all individual filers electronically filed their 2020 North Dakota income tax return. Many North Dakotans are eligible to efile their taxes for free, depending on income and age.

Using the online ND Free File tool, taxpayers can easily find out if they qualify to file their federal and state returns for free through certain tax software products. Go to www.tax.nd.gov and click on "I Need To . . ." at the top of the page. Then select "E-File My Taxes" to learn more.

Taxpayers may also utilize free tax preparation services available at the IRS's Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) and Tax Counseling for the Elderly (TCE) sites around the state. These sites are run by either AARP or the IRS. To find a VITA or TCE site near you, use the VITA Locator Tool on the IRS's website at www.irs.gov or call toll free 800-906-9887.

Who must file a return

Full-year resident

If you were a full-year resident of North Dakota for the 2022 tax year and you are required to file a 2022 federal individual income tax return, you must file a 2022 North Dakota individual income tax return. This applies even if you worked outside North Dakota (including employment overseas) during the tax year or have income from sources outside North Dakota. You were a full-year resident of North Dakota if you were a resident of North Dakota for the entire tax year or meet the statutory 7-month rulesee "Statutory 7-month rule" on this page.

Definition of resident-In these instructions, the term "resident" refers to an individual who is a legal resident of North Dakota. Legal residence (which is also called domicile) means the place that is your permanent home to which you always intend to return whenever absent from it. If you have more than one physical place of abode, only one of them may be your legal residence. Legal residence is based on your intent and your actions.Statutory 7-month rule-Even though you were not a resident of North Dakota for any part of the tax year-that is, you were a fullyear nonresident-you must file as a full-year resident of North Dakota if you maintain a permanent place of abode in North Dakota and spend in the aggregate more than 210 days of the tax year in North Dakota. A permanent place of abode means a house, apartment, or other dwelling containing cooking and bathroom facilities that is suitable for yearround living and is maintained on a permanent or indefinite basis. This 7-month rule does not apply if you were (1) a part-year resident of North Dakota, (2) a full-year nonresident serving in the U.S. armed forces, or (3) a full-year resident of Montana or Minnesota covered by reciprocity.

Resident in U.S. armed forces-If you were a full-year resident of North Dakota serving in the U.S. armed forces during the 2022 tax year and you are required to file a 2022 federal individual income tax return, you must file a 2022 North Dakota individual income tax return as a fullyear resident. This applies regardless of where you were stationed during 2022.

Civilian spouse of U.S. armed forces service member-If you are a civilian spouse of a U.S. armed forces service member, you must file a 2022 North Dakota individual income tax return if both of the following apply:- You are required to file a 2022 federal individual income tax return.

- You were a full-year resident of North Dakota for the 2022 tax year. You are treated as a resident for this purpose if you elect under the federal Servicemembers Civil Relief Act to be a North Dakota resident for state tax purposes.

For more information, see the Civilian Spouses of Military Service Members income tax guideline.

Full-year nonresident

If you were a full-year nonresident of North Dakota for the 2022 tax year, you must file a 2022 North Dakota individual income tax return if both of the following apply:

- You are required to file a 2022 federal individual income tax return.
- You derived gross income from North Dakota sources during the 2022 tax year. (See the box on page 5 for what is included in gross income from North Dakota sources.)

You were a full-year nonresident if you were not a resident of North Dakota for any part of the tax year and do not meet the statutory 7-month rule-see "Statutory 7-month rule" on this page.

Nonresident in U.S. armed forces-

 If you were a full-year nonresident of North Dakota serving in the U.S. armed forces during the 2022 tax year and you are required to file a 2022 federal individual income tax return, you must file a 2022 North Dakota individual income tax return as a full-year nonresident if you have gross income from North Dakota sources other than your military compensation.
Civilian spouse of U.S. armed forces service member-If you are a civilian spouse of a U.S. armed forces service member, you are not required to file a 2022 North Dakota individual income tax return if all of the following apply:- Your service member spouse's permanent duty station is in North Dakota.

- Your only gross income from North Dakota sources was wages for work performed in North Dakota.
- You resided in North Dakota only because you wanted to live with your service member spouse.
- Both you and your service member spouse were full-year nonresidents of North Dakota for the 2022 tax year. You are treated as a nonresident for this purpose if you elect under the federal Servicemembers Civil Relief Act to be a resident of a state other than North Dakota for state tax purposes.
For more information, see the Civilian Spouses of Military Service Members income tax guideline.

Minnesota or Montana resident-
If you were a full-year resident of Minnesota for the 2022 tax year, you do not have to file a 2022 North Dakota individual income tax return if both of the following apply:

- Your only gross income from North Dakota sources was compensation for personal or professional services.
- You returned to your home in Minnesota at least once each month during the time you worked in North Dakota.
If you were a full-year resident of Montana for the 2022 tax year, you do not have to file a 2022 North Dakota individual income tax return if your only gross income from North Dakota sources was wages.

See "Reciprocity" on page 6 for more information.

Nonresident alien-If you were a nonresident alien of the United States and received gross income from North Dakota sources during the 2022 tax year, you must file a 2022 North Dakota individual income tax return.

Gross income from North Dakota sources for nonresidents only

For a nonresident, "gross income from North Dakota sources" includes the following:

- Compensation for services performed in North Dakota, such as wages, salaries, tips, commissions, and fees.
- Income from tangible property in North Dakota, such as rents, oil and gas royalties, and gain from the sale or exchange of the property.
- Income from a trade or business carried on in North Dakota, whether as a sole proprietorship, partnership, S corporation, or limited liability company treated like a partnership or S corporation.
- Income from an estate or trust, but only to the extent the income is derived from tangible property or a trade or business in North Dakota.
- Income from gambling activity carried on in North Dakota.
- Unemployment compensation attributable to previous employment in North Dakota.

Exceptions

Gross income from North Dakota sources does not include these items received while a nonresident of North Dakota: military pay, interest, dividends, pensions, annuities, gain from the sale or exchange of intangible property, compensation exempted under reciprocity with Minnesota or Montana, compensation exempted under federal military and interstate commerce laws, or compensation exempted under North Dakota's mobile workforce exemption.

Note: Interest, dividends, gains, and other income from intangible property are included in gross income from North Dakota sources if derived from a trade or business carried on in North Dakota, such as a sole proprietorship, partnership, or S corporation.

Except where an income tax treaty between the United States and a foreign country specifically exempts income from taxation by a U.S. state, income tax treaties between the U.S. and foreign countries do not apply for North Dakota income tax purposes. Therefore, you may have to pay North Dakota income tax on gross income from North Dakota sources even though the income is exempt from U.S. income tax because of a treaty. For more information, see the guideline Income Taxation of Nonresident Aliens under "Guidelines" at www.tax.nd.gov.

Disaster recovery tax

exemptions-Exemptions from state and local tax filing and payment obligations are available to out-ofstate businesses and their employees who are in North Dakota on a temporary basis for the sole purpose of repairing or replacing natural gas, electrical, or telecommunication transmission property that is damaged, or under threat of damage, from a state-or presidentially-declared disaster or emergency. For more information, go to www.tax.nd.gov.

Part-year resident

If you were a part-year resident of North Dakota for the 2022 tax year, you must file a 2022 North Dakota individual income tax return if both of the following apply:

- You are required to file a 2022 federal individual income tax return.
- You derived gross income from (1) any source inside or outside North Dakota while you were a resident of North Dakota or (2) a North Dakota source while you were a nonresident of North Dakota. (See the box on this page for what is included in gross income from North Dakota sources while a nonresident.)
You were a part-year resident of North Dakota if you were a resident of North Dakota for only part of the year. This generally applies if you moved into or out of North Dakota and the move constituted a change in your legal residence. See "Definition of resident" on page 4.

Native Americans

If you are a Native American, you are not subject to North Dakota income tax and do not have to file a North Dakota income tax return if all of the following apply:

- You are enrolled as a member of a federally-recognized Indian tribe.
- You lived on any Indian reservation in North Dakota.
- You derived all of your income from sources on any Indian reservation in North Dakota.

If any of the above criteria are not met, you may be subject to North Dakota income tax. For more information, see the guideline Income Taxation of Native Americans under "Guidelines" at www.tax.nd.gov.

Which form to use

If you are required to file a 2022 North Dakota individual income tax return, see the box on this page to determine whether you should use Form ND-EZ or Form ND-1.

Reciprocity

North Dakota has income tax reciprocity agreements with the states of Minnesota and Montana. If certain conditions in the agreements are met, compensation for services is taxable only by the state of residence.

Minnesota and Montana residents

If you are a resident of Minnesota and maintain a permanent home in Minnesota to which you return at least once each month during the time you work in North Dakota, the compensation you receive for personal or professional services performed in North Dakota is not taxable by North Dakota. If you are a resident of Montana, wages you receive for work performed in North Dakota are not taxable by North Dakota.

If you received wages covered by reciprocity, and your employer withheld North Dakota income tax of $$ 5.00$ or more from them, you must file a North Dakota individual income tax return at the end of the tax year to obtain a refund of the amount

North Dakota residents

If you are a resident of North Dakota and maintain a permanent home in North Dakota to which you return at least once each month during the time you work in Minnesota, the compensation that you receive for personal or professional services performed in Minnesota is not taxable by Minnesota. Also, wages you receive for work performed in Montana while a resident of North Dakota are not taxable by Montana.

When and where to file

If you are filing on a calendar year basis, you must file your 2022 North Dakota individual income tax return on or before April 15, 2023. If you are filing on a fiscal year basis, you must file on or before the 15th day of the fourth month following the close of your fiscal tax year. If the due date falls on a Saturday, Sunday or holiday, you have until the next day that is not a Saturday, Sunday, or holiday to file your return.

Mail your return to:
Office of State Tax Commissioner PO Box 5621
Bismarck, North Dakota 58506-5621

Extension of time to file

You may obtain an extension of time to file your North Dakota individual income tax return by obtaining either a federal extension or a North Dakota extension.

Federal extension

If you obtain an extension of time to file your federal return, it will be recognized for North Dakota individual income tax purposes. This includes the automatic extension allowed for being outside the U.S. and Puerto Rico on April 15. You do not have to file a separate state extension form or notify the Office of State Tax Commissioner that you have obtained a federal extension prior to filing your North Dakota return. Fill in the circle next to "Extension" at the top of Form ND-EZ or Form ND-1, whichever applies.

North Dakota extension

If you do not obtain a federal extension, but need additional time to file your North Dakota return, you may apply for a North Dakota extension by completing and filing Form 101. This is not an automatic extension-you must have good cause to request a North Dakota extension. Form 101 must be postmarked on or before the due date of your return. You will be notified whether your extension request is approved or rejected. If approved, fill in the circle next to "Extension" at the top of Form ND-EZ or Form ND-1, whichever applies.

Extension interest

If you obtain an extension and file your North Dakota return on or before the extended due date, and you pay any tax balance due with the return, no penalty will be charged. Interest on any tax due on the return will be charged at the rate of $12 \%$ per year from the original due date of your return to the earlier of the date you file your return or the extended due date.

Prepayment of tax due

If you are applying for an extension of time to file, you may prepay the tax that you expect to owe to avoid paying extension interest. For payment options, go to www.tax.nd.gov and select "Make A Payment." If submitting a payment by paper check or money order, you must complete and submit a 2022 Form ND-1EXT payment voucher with the payment. Alternatively, you may submit a paper check or money order along with a letter containing the following:

- Your name.
- Your social security number.
- Your address and phone number.
- Statement that you are making a 2022 Form ND-1EXT payment.

If you prepay your tax, you must file Form ND-1 and claim the payment on page 2, line 27; you may not file Form ND-EZ.

Penalty and interest

If you obtain an extension of time to file your return, you may pay the tax due by the extended due date of the return without penalty, but extension interest will apply-see "Extension interest" and "Prepayment of tax due" on this page.
If you file your return by its due date (or extended due date), but you do not pay all of the tax due on it by the return's due date (or extended due date), a penalty equal to $5 \%$ of the unpaid tax due or $$ 5.00$, whichever is greater, must be paid.

If you file your return after its due date (or extended due date), and there is an unpaid tax due on it, a penalty equal to $5 \%$ of the unpaid tax due or $$ 5.00$, whichever is greater, applies for the month the return was due, with an additional $5 \%$ of the unpaid tax due for each month (or fraction of a month) the return remains delinquent, not to exceed $25 \%$ of the tax due.

In addition to any penalty, interest must be paid at the rate of $1 \%$ per month or fraction of a month, except for the month in which the tax was due, on any tax due that remains unpaid after the return's due date (or extended due date).

Federal income tax return

You must complete your 2022 federal individual income tax return (Form 1040 or 1040-SR) before you complete your 2022 North Dakota individual income tax return. Certain information from your federal return is needed to complete your North Dakota return.

If you are filing your North Dakota return on paper, you must attach a complete copy of your federal income tax return to your North Dakota return. A complete copy consists of Form 1040 or 1040-SR and all supplemental forms and schedules. You do not have to include depreciation schedules or any other statements that you may have prepared as supporting documentation to your federal return.

Changing your return

If you need to change your North Dakota return after you file it, you must file an amended return. There is no special form for this purpose. See "How to prepare an amended return" on page 8.
If you paid too much tax because of an error in your return, you generally have three years after you file your original return to file an amended return to correct the error and claim a refund of the overpayment. For other time periods that may apply, see North Dakota Century Code § 57-38-40 or contact the Office of State Tax Commissioner.

Penalty and interest apply to additional tax due on an amended return.

Change to federal return

By law, you must file an amended North Dakota return to report changes made to your federal return. This applies whether the changes are attributable to your filing of an amended federal return or an audit or correction by the IRS. The amended North Dakota return must be filed within 90 days after filing the amended federal return or within 90 days after the final determination of the IRS changes.

How to prepare an amended return

1. Obtain a blank Form ND-1 for the tax year affected by the changes.
2. Enter your name, current address, social security number, and other information required at top of return.
3. Fill in the circle next to "Amended return: General" or "Amended return: Federal NOL," whichever applies, in the top right-hand corner of the return. See "Amended return" on page 11 for more information.
4. Complete the return through the net tax liability line.
5. Leave the line for income tax withholding blank unless you are claiming an additional amount not previously claimed.
6. On the "Total payments" line, enter the net tax liability shown on your original return or previously filed amended return. If the net tax liability has not been fully paid at the time the amended return is filed, only enter the amount of tax that has been paid.
7. Complete the remaining portion of the return according to the instructions. On an amended return, you may not adjust the amount of any voluntary contribution, nor the amount of an overpayment applied to the next year's estimated tax.
8. Attach a statement explaining why you are changing your return. If you are doing so because of changes you or the IRS made to your federal return, attach a copy of the amended federal return or IRS notice. If amending to claim a net operating loss carryback, attach Form 1045 or 1040X.

Estimated tax requirement (for 2023)

You must pay estimated North Dakota income tax for the 2023 tax year if all of the following conditions apply:

Line 31 - Voluntary contribution of overpayment

If you have an overpayment on line 29 , you may make a voluntary contribution of part or all of it to any of the three funds on this line. Enter the amount you wish to contribute on the line to the right of the fund name. If contributing, you must contribute at least $$ 1.00$. A contribution will reduce your refund.

Line 32 - Direct deposit of refund

Account number (Item b)—Enter the account number. It may have up to 17 digits (both letters and numbers). Include hyphens, but omit special symbols.
If depositing into a checking account, see the sample check on this page for where to find the routing and account numbers. If depositing into a savings account without a check writing feature, ask your financial institution for the correct account number to use.

Please note:

- Do not use the number on a deposit slip for the routing or account number.
- You will not receive notification of when the deposit is made by our office. Contact your bank or check your bank statement to verify the deposit.
- If the routing or account number is incorrect, or if your bank does not accept the direct deposit, a paper check will be issued.
- Due to changes in the electronic banking rules, the Office of State Tax Commissioner will not allow a direct deposit to or through a foreign financial institution. In this case, a paper check will be issued.

Line 34 - Penalty and interest

Our office will notify you of any penalty and interest owed for late filing or late payment, or interest owed on tax due during an extension period. However, you may calculate the amount of penalty, interest, or both, that you owe and pay it with your return. See "Penalty and interest" on page 7 for how to calculate penalty and interest.

Line 35 - Voluntary contribution

If you have a tax due on line 33, you may make a voluntary contribution to any of the three funds on this line. Enter the amount you wish to contribute on the line to the right of the fund name. If contributing, you must contribute at least $$ 1.00$ to a fund. A contribution will increase your balance due.

Line 36 - Balance due

The balance due must be paid in full with your return. You may pay the balance due online with an electronic check or a debit or credit card. To pay online, go to www.tax.nd.gov and select "Make A Payment."

If you are filing a paper return and paying the balance due with a paper check or money order, complete a 2022 Form ND-1PRV payment voucher and enclose it with the payment.

However, if you are filing your return electronically, complete and submit a 2022 Form ND-1V with the paper check or money order. Make check or money order payable to "ND State Tax Commissioner," and write the last four digits of your social security number and "2022 Form ND-1" on your check or money order. A check must be drawn on a U.S. or Canadian bank, be in U.S. dollars, and use a standard 9-digit routing number. A check drawn on a foreign bank (except one in Canada) cannot be accepted.

Line 37 - Interest on underpaid estimated tax

If you were required to pay estimated North Dakota income tax for 2022, but you did not pay enough or you paid it late, interest is charged on the underpayment or late payment. To determine if you owe interest, obtain and complete the 2022 Schedule ND-1UT.

Signatures

Sign and date your return. If you are filing a joint return, both spouses must sign.

Form 1099-G consent and disclosure authorization

At the bottom of Form ND-1, page 2 (below line 37), fill in the applicable circle(s) to indicate if you want either or both of the following items to apply.

Form 1099-G consent. If there is an overpayment on your 2022 Form ND-1, line 29, federal tax law requires our office to file with the IRS and mail to you a Form 1099-G showing the overpayment amount. You may need this information when preparing your 2023 federal income tax return. Fill in the circle for this item if you want to obtain Form 1099-G electronically from our website instead of receiving it by mail. The 2023 Form 1099-G will be available on our website in January 2024. For more information, go to our website at www.tax.nd.gov.

Disclosure authorization. Fill in the circle for this item if you want to authorize our office to communicate directly with your tax return preparer about your 2022 return. This may include requesting information needed to process the return and responding to inquiries from your preparer about correction notices you receive from us. The authorization does not allow your preparer to receive your refund check, to bind you in any way, or to legally represent you. The authorization only applies to the individual whose printed name and signature appear in the preparer's signature area, and it automatically expires on the due date (including extensions) for filing your 2023 return.

Before you file, did you-

O Sign your return? An unsigned return is incomplete.
O Include a complete copy of your federal return?
Return is incomplete without it.
○ Write your social security number on return? We use this number to identify your return.
○ Check your math?
This is one of the most common errors made.
O Include all Form W-2s? Also include a copy of a 1099 or Schedule K-1 showing North Dakota withholding.
O Use the correct postage? Avoid mailing problems by using the correct postage.

Important! If your return is missing your signature or a copy of your federal return, it will be sent back to you. This may result in late filing and payment charges if you resubmit it after the due date.
For worry-free filing, file your return electronically-see page 1!

Before sealing the envelope, have you done the following:

- Made a copy for your records
