Instructions for Automatic Extension of Time to File Oregon Individual Income Tax Return

General information

Use Publication OR-40-EXT to determine if you need to file for an automatic extension of time for filing an Oregon individual income tax return.

Oregon honors all federal automatic six-month extensions of time to file individual income tax returns (federal Form 4868) as valid Oregon extensions.

Only request an Oregon extension if you don't have a federal extension, you owe for Oregon, and you can't file your return by the return due date (April 18, 2023). Note: You don't need to request an Oregon extension unless you owe Oregon tax.

If you need an Oregon filing extension, request the extension based upon your extension payment method:

- Electronic payments. Submit your payment prior to the return due date, selecting the "Return payment" type. Don't use Form OR-40-V.
- Cash, check, or money order. Complete Form OR-40-V, mark the "Original return" payment type box, and make your payment prior to the return due date.

An extension of time to file your return isn't an extension of time to pay your tax. If you don't pay all the tax due when you file your extension, you'll owe interest on the unpaid balance from April 19, 2023 until the date you pay it in full. The 2023 interest rate is 6 percent. You may also owe a late payment penalty. See "Penalties and interest" information under "Specific instructions."

Specific instructions

If you owe Oregon tax for 2022 and you need more time to file your Oregon return, use the tax payment worksheet on the next page to calculate your extension payment and follow the payment instructions under "Payment options." To avoid penalty and interest, make your extension payment by April 18, 2023.

Whether you owe Oregon tax for 2022 or not, mark the "Extension filed" check-box (even if you had an Oregon or federal extension) when you file your Oregon return.

When filing an Oregon tax return for 2022, include your extension payment as an estimated payment on Form OR-40, line 34; Form OR-40-N, line 59; or Form OR-40-P, line 58. Don't include a copy of the tax payment worksheet with your Oregon return. Keep it with your records.

Fiscal-year filers. If you're a fiscal-year taxpayer, make your extension payment by the regular due date of your return. If you're using Form OR-40-V, be sure to include the beginning and ending dates of your fiscal year on Form OR-40-V.

Were you stationed in a designated combat zone? If so, did you get more time to file your 2022 federal return and pay your 2022 federal tax? Oregon allows you the same additional time to file and pay your tax. Check the "Extension filed" checkbox when you file your return.

Are you filing an extension for a composite return? If so, use Form OR-OC to file your extension and Form OR-OC-V to send your payment. You can download these forms at www.oregon.gov/dor.

Penalties and interest. You must pay at least 90 percent of your total tax liability by April 18, 2023. If you don't, we could add a 5 percent late-payment penalty to your tax due. If you don't file your return within three months after the return's due date, including extensions, we may add a 20 percent late filing penalty. You will owe interest on the unpaid tax from April 19, 2023 until the date you pay it in full.
