You might be eligible for a refund of local sales tax!

Most city and county local tax ordinances contain a local sales tax maximum, which varies among the local tax jurisdictions. If you pay local sales tax in excess of the jurisdiction's maximum amount, you may apply to the Office of State Tax Commissioner to obtain a refund of the excess local sales tax paid. For example, if you purchase $4,000 of furniture in a city having a 1% sales tax and a local sales tax maximum of $25, the retailer will collect $200 in state sales tax ($4,000 x 5%) and $40 in local sales tax ($4,000 x 1%) at the time of purchase. You may apply to the Office of State Tax Commissioner to obtain a refund of $15, which is the excess of the $40 local sales tax paid over the $25 local sales tax maximum. Apply for a Local Tax Refund on our North Dakota Taxpayer Access Point (ND TAP) at www.tax.nd.gov/LocalTaxRefund.

Do you owe use tax?

If you purchased goods from a source outside North Dakota that you use or consume in North Dakota on which you did not pay North Dakota sales tax, you may have to pay state and local sales taxes to North Dakota. Technically, what you have to pay is called a "use tax." The use tax applies to the same goods that are subject to North Dakota's sales tax. The use tax applies whether you purchased the goods in person at an out-of-state location, or by mail, phone, or over the Internet.

If you purchased the goods in another state and did not pay any sales tax to that state, you must pay the full use tax to North Dakota. However, if you did pay the other state's sales tax but paid less than what you would have paid in North Dakota, you must pay use tax to North Dakota equal to the difference. If you purchased the goods in another country, you must pay the full use tax to North Dakota regardless of whether you paid any tax to that country on the purchase.

If you owe use tax to North Dakota, you must file a North Dakota use tax return using the One Time Remittance Form. You can obtain it from our website at www.tax.nd.gov, or you may call us at 701-328-1246.

Privacy Act Notification. In compliance with the Privacy Act of 1974, disclosure of the individual's social security number on this form is required under N.D.C.C. §§ 57-01-15 and 57-38-31, and will be used for tax reporting, identification and administration of North Dakota tax laws. Disclosure is mandatory. Failure to provide the social security number may delay or prevent the processing of this form.

Changes affecting you and your income tax

Developments, updates, and items of interest relating to individual income tax

EXPIRED: Tax relief credit for North Dakota residents

The $350/$700 nonrefundable income tax credit for full-year North Dakota residents effective for tax years 2021 and 2022 expired with tax year 2022.

Income tax rate reduction

Effective beginning with tax year 2023, the existing five-bracket system for individuals, estates, and trusts was replaced with a three-bracket system. Notably, there is now a 0% bracket and the highest rate was reduced from 2.9% to 2.5%. Please see the Tax Rate Schedule found on page 28 of the individual income tax booklet for more information.

North Dakota withholding

With the effective date of the rate changes being January 1, 2023, new wage withholding tables were made available to employers so wage withholding could be adjusted due to the income tax rate reductions.

The highest tax rate was lowered to 2.5% and income tax withholding rates on nonresident owners of passthrough entities and nonresident royalty owners were also lowered and are reflected on the 2023 income tax forms and instructions.

Military pay deduction

Beginning with tax year 2023, a new individual income tax deduction is provided for all military pay. Previously, deductions were only allowed for military pay related to servicemembers mobilized for active duty under Title 10 orders and for military retirement pay.

In addition to service members on active duty, the deduction is applicable for all military pay received by members of the national guard and reserve members, and includes pay for bonuses, education, and training. The deduction is applicable to the extent the pay was includable in the individual's North Dakota taxable income.

If you had used Schedule ND-1SA in prior tax years, you will now find the entry for this deduction on Form ND-1, line 10.

Peace officer retirement benefits deduction

Beginning with tax year 2023, a new individual income tax deduction is provided for certain peace officer retirement benefits. A deduction is provided for the retirement benefit received from a retirement plan maintained by an employer from which the individual retired as a peace officer. An individual is eligible for the deduction if the individual has at least 20 years of combined service as a peace officer or was a peace officer that has been medically certified with a mental or physical disability resulting in the inability to perform their duties. For purposes of eligibility for the deduction, a peace officer is a licensed individual authorized by federal, state, or local law to investigate and enforce violations of law. See Form ND-1, line 9.

Adoption tax credit

An individual is allowed an income tax credit for adoptions beginning with tax year 2023. The credit is equal to 10% of the federal adoption credit claimed and allowed against federal income tax for the tax year and is limited to 50% of the individual's tax liability. Any credit earned in excess of the limit may be carried forward up to three tax years. See Schedule ND-1AC.

Contributions to maternity home, child placing agency, or pregnancy help center

An income tax credit is allowed for contributions to a child placing agency licensed by the North Dakota Department of Health and Human Services (DHS), a nonprofit maternity home located in North Dakota, or a pregnancy help center recognized by DHS.

The credit is equal to 100% of the contribution. The credit is limited to 50% of a taxpayer's tax liability. Any credit earned in excess of the limit may not be carried over or back to other tax years.

The credit is available to corporations, individuals, estates, trusts, and passthrough entities.

Disabled employment tax credit

In 2023, the North Dakota Legislature reenacted and made permanent the existing income tax credit related to the employment of an individual with developmental disabilities or severe mental illness. The existing provisions of the tax credit were unchanged, except the statewide limitation on the number of eligible employees was removed and there is no limit. See Schedule ND-1TC, line 22.

Free electronic filing available to many individuals

Nearly 92% of all individual filers electronically filed their 2022 North Dakota income tax return. Many North Dakotans are eligible to efile their taxes for free, depending on income and age.

Using the online ND Free File tool, taxpayers can easily find out if they qualify to file their federal and state returns for free through certain tax software products. Go to www.tax.nd.gov and click on "I Need To . . ." at the top of the page. Then select "E-File My Taxes" to learn more.

Civilian spouse of U.S. armed forces service member—

- You are required to file a 2023 federal individual income tax return.
- You were a full-year resident of North Dakota for the 2023 tax year. You are treated as a resident for this purpose if you elect under the federal Servicemembers Civil Relief Act to be a North Dakota resident for state tax purposes.

For more information, see the Civilian Spouses of Military Service Members income tax guideline.

Full-year nonresident

If you were a full-year nonresident of North Dakota for the 2023 tax year, you must file a 2023 North Dakota individual income tax return if both of the following apply:

- You are required to file a 2023 federal individual income tax return.
- You derived gross income from North Dakota sources during the 2023 tax year. (See the box on page 5 for what is included in gross income from North Dakota sources.)

You were a full-year nonresident if you were not a resident of North Dakota for any part of the tax year and do not meet the statutory 7-month rule—see "Statutory 7-month rule" on this page.

Nonresident in U.S. armed forces—

If you were a full-year nonresident of North Dakota serving in the U.S. armed forces during the 2023 tax year and you are required to file a 2023 federal individual income tax return, you must file a 2023 North Dakota individual income tax return as a full-year nonresident if you have gross income from North Dakota sources other than your military compensation.

Who must file a return

Full-year resident

If you were a full-year resident of North Dakota for the 2023 tax year and you are required to file a 2023 federal individual income tax return, you must file a 2023 North Dakota individual income tax return. This applies even if you worked outside North Dakota (including employment overseas) during the tax year or have income from sources outside North Dakota. You were a full-year resident of North Dakota if you were a resident of North Dakota for the entire tax year or meet the statutory 7-month rule—see "Statutory 7-month rule" on this page.

Definition of resident—In these instructions, the term "resident" refers to an individual who is a legal resident of North Dakota. Legal residence (which is also called domicile) means the place that is your permanent home to which you always intend to return whenever absent from it. If you have more than one physical place of abode, only one of them may be your legal residence. Legal residence is based on your intent and your actions.

Statutory 7-month rule—Even though you were not a resident of North Dakota for any part of the tax year—that is, you were a full-year nonresident—you must file as a full-year resident of North Dakota if you maintain a permanent place of abode in North Dakota and spend in the aggregate more than 210 days of the tax year in North Dakota. A permanent place of abode means a house, apartment, or other dwelling containing cooking and bathroom facilities that is suitable for year-round living and is maintained on a permanent or indefinite basis. This 7-month rule does not apply if you were (1) a part-year resident of North Dakota, (2) a full-year nonresident serving in the U.S. armed forces, or (3) a full-year resident of Montana or Minnesota covered by reciprocity.

Resident in U.S. armed forces—If you were a full-year resident of North Dakota serving in the U.S. armed forces during the 2023 tax year and you are required to file a 2023 federal individual income tax return, you must file a 2023 North Dakota individual income tax return as a full-year resident. This applies regardless of where you were stationed during 2023.

Civilian spouse of U.S. armed forces service member

—If you are a civilian spouse of a U.S. armed forces service member, you are not required to file a 2023 North Dakota individual income tax return if all of the following apply:

- Your service member spouse's permanent duty station is in North Dakota.
- Your only gross income from North Dakota sources was wages for work performed in North Dakota.
- You resided in North Dakota only because you wanted to live with your service member spouse.
- Both you and your service member spouse were full-year nonresidents of North Dakota for the 2023 tax year. You are treated as a nonresident for this purpose if you elect under the federal Servicemembers Civil Relief Act to be a resident of a state other than North Dakota for state tax purposes.

For more information, see the Civilian Spouses of Military Service Members income tax guideline.

Minnesota or Montana resident

—If you were a full-year resident of Minnesota for the 2023 tax year, you do not have to file a 2023 North Dakota individual income tax return if both of the following apply:

- Your only gross income from North Dakota sources was compensation for personal or professional services.
- You returned to your home in Minnesota at least once each month during the time you worked in North Dakota.

If you were a full-year resident of Montana for the 2023 tax year, you do not have to file a 2023 North Dakota individual income tax return if your only gross income from North Dakota sources was wages.

See "Reciprocity" on page 6 for more information.

Nonresident alien—If you were a nonresident alien of the United States and received gross income from North Dakota sources during the 2023 tax year, you must file a 2023 North Dakota individual income tax return.

Except where an income tax treaty between the United States and a foreign country specifically exempts income from taxation by a U.S. state, income tax treaties between the U.S. and foreign countries do not apply for North Dakota income tax purposes. Therefore, you may have to pay North Dakota income tax on gross income from North Dakota sources even though the income is exempt from U.S. income tax because of a treaty. For more information, see the guideline Income Taxation of Nonresident Aliens under "Guidelines" at www.tax.nd.gov.

Disaster recovery tax exemptions—Exemptions from state and local tax filing and payment obligations are available to out-of-state businesses and their employees who are in North Dakota on a temporary basis for the sole purpose of repairing or replacing natural gas, electrical, or telecommunication transmission property that is damaged, or under threat of damage, from a state- or presidentially-declared disaster or emergency. For more information, go to www.tax.nd.gov.

Gross income from North Dakota sources for nonresidents only

For a nonresident, "gross income from North Dakota sources" includes the following:

- Compensation for services performed in North Dakota, such as wages, salaries, tips, commissions, and fees.
- Income from tangible property in North Dakota, such as rents, oil and gas royalties, and gain from the sale or exchange of the property.
- Income from a trade or business carried on in North Dakota, whether as a sole proprietorship, partnership, S corporation, or limited liability company treated like a partnership or S corporation.
- Income from an estate or trust, but only to the extent the income is derived from tangible property or a trade or business in North Dakota.
- Income from gambling activity carried on in North Dakota.

- Unemployment compensation attributable to previous employment in North Dakota.

Exceptions

Gross income from North Dakota sources does not include these items received while a nonresident of North Dakota: military pay, interest, dividends, pensions, annuities, gain from the sale or exchange of intangible property, compensation exempted under reciprocity with Minnesota or Montana, compensation exempted under federal military and interstate commerce laws, or compensation exempted under North Dakota's mobile workforce exemption.

Note: Interest, dividends, gains, and other income from intangible property are included in gross income from North Dakota sources if derived from a trade or business carried on in North Dakota, such as a sole proprietorship, partnership, or S corporation.

Part-year resident

If you were a part-year resident of North Dakota for the 2023 tax year, you must file a 2023 North Dakota individual income tax return if both of the following apply:

- You are required to file a 2023 federal individual income tax return.
- You derived gross income from (1) any source inside or outside North Dakota while you were a resident of North Dakota or (2) a North Dakota source while you were a nonresident of North Dakota. (See the box on this page for what is included in gross income from North Dakota sources while a nonresident.)

You were a part-year resident of North Dakota if you were a resident of North Dakota for only part of the year. This generally applies if you moved into or out of North Dakota and the move constituted a change in your legal residence. See "Definition of resident" on page 4.

Native Americans

If you are a Native American, you are not subject to North Dakota income tax and do not have to file a North Dakota income tax return if all of the following apply:

- You are enrolled as a member of a federally-recognized Indian tribe.
- You lived on any Indian reservation in North Dakota.
- You derived all of your income from sources on any Indian reservation in North Dakota.

If any of the above criteria are not met, you may be subject to North Dakota income tax. For more information, see the guideline Income Taxation of Native Americans under "Guidelines" at www.tax.nd.gov.

Which form to use

If you are required to file a 2023 North Dakota individual income tax return, see the box on this page to determine whether you should use Form ND-EZ or Form ND-1.

Reciprocity

North Dakota has income tax reciprocity agreements with the states of Minnesota and Montana. If certain conditions in the agreements are met, compensation for services is taxable only by the state of residence.

Minnesota and Montana residents

If you are a resident of Minnesota and maintain a permanent home in Minnesota to which you return at least once each month during the time you work in North Dakota, the compensation you receive for personal or professional services performed in North Dakota is not taxable by North Dakota. If you are a resident of Montana, wages you receive for work performed in North Dakota are not taxable by North Dakota.

If you received wages covered by reciprocity, and your employer withheld North Dakota income tax of $5.00 or more from them, you must file a North Dakota individual income tax return at the end of the tax year to obtain a refund of the amount

When and where to file

If you are filing on a calendar year basis, you must file your 2023 North Dakota individual income tax return on or before April 15, 2024. If you are filing on a fiscal year basis, you must file on or before the 15th day of the fourth month following the close of your fiscal tax year. If the due date falls on a Saturday, Sunday or holiday, you have until the next day that is not a Saturday, Sunday, or holiday to file your return.

Mail your return to:

Office of State Tax Commissioner
PO Box 5621
Bismarck, North Dakota 58506-5621

Extension of time to file

You may obtain an extension of time to file your North Dakota individual income tax return by obtaining either a federal extension or a North Dakota extension.

Federal extension

If you obtain an extension of time to file your federal return, it will be recognized for North Dakota individual income tax purposes. This includes the automatic extension allowed for being outside the U.S. and Puerto Rico on April 15. You do not have to file a separate state extension form or notify the Office of State Tax Commissioner that you have obtained a federal extension prior to filing your North Dakota return. Fill in the circle next to "Extension" at the top of Form ND-EZ or Form ND-1, whichever applies.

North Dakota extension

If you do not obtain a federal extension, but need additional time to file your North Dakota return, you may apply for a North Dakota extension by completing and filing Form 101. This is not an automatic extension—you must have good cause to request a North Dakota extension. Form 101 must be postmarked on or before the due date of your return. You will be notified whether your extension request is approved or rejected. If approved, fill in the circle next to "Extension" at the top of Form ND-EZ or Form ND-1, whichever applies.

Extension interest

If you obtain an extension and file your North Dakota return on or before the extended due date, and you pay any tax balance due with the return, no penalty will be charged. Interest on any tax due on the return will be charged at the rate of 12% per year from the original due date of your return to the earlier of the date you file your return or the extended due date.

Prepayment of tax due

If you are applying for an extension of time to file, you may prepay the tax that you expect to owe to avoid paying extension interest. For payment options, go to www.tax.nd.gov and select "Make A Payment." If submitting a payment by paper check or money order, you must complete and submit a 2023 Form ND-1EXT payment voucher with the payment. Alternatively, you may submit a paper check or money order along with a letter containing the following:

- Your name.
- Your social security number.
- Your address and phone number.
- Statement that you are making a 2023 Form ND-1EXT payment.

If you prepay your tax, you must file Form ND-1 and claim the payment on page 2, line 27; you may not file Form ND-EZ.

Penalty and interest

If you obtain an extension of time to file your return, you may pay the tax due by the extended due date of the return without penalty, but extension interest will apply—see "Extension interest" and "Prepayment of tax due" on this page.

If you file your return by its due date (or extended due date), but you do not pay all of the tax due on it by the return's due date (or extended due date), a penalty equal to 5% of the unpaid tax due or $5.00, whichever is greater, must be paid.

If you file your return after its due date (or extended due date), and there is an unpaid tax due on it, a penalty equal to 5% of the unpaid tax due or $5.00, whichever is greater, applies for the month the return was due, with an additional 5% of the unpaid tax due for each month (or fraction of a month) the return remains delinquent, not to exceed 25% of the tax due.

In addition to any penalty, interest must be paid at the rate of 1% per month or fraction of a month, except for the month in which the tax was due, on any tax due that remains unpaid after the return's due date (or extended due date).

Federal income tax return

You must complete your 2023 federal individual income tax return (Form 1040 or 1040-SR) before you complete your 2023 North Dakota individual income tax return. Certain information from your federal return is needed to complete your North Dakota return.

If you are filing your North Dakota return on paper, you must attach a complete copy of your federal income tax return to your North Dakota return. A complete copy consists of Form 1040 or 1040-SR and all supplemental forms and schedules. You do not have to include depreciation schedules or any other statements that you may have prepared as supporting documentation to your federal return.

Changing your return

If you need to change your North Dakota return after you file it, you must file an amended return. There is no special form for this purpose. See "How to prepare an amended return" on page 8.

If you paid too much tax because of an error in your return, you generally have three years after you file your original return to file an amended return to correct the error and claim a refund of the overpayment. For other time periods that may apply, see North Dakota Century Code § 57-38-40 or contact the Office of State Tax Commissioner.

Penalty and interest apply to additional tax due on an amended return.

Change to federal return

By law, you must file an amended North Dakota return to report changes made to your federal return. This applies whether the changes are attributable to your filing of an amended federal return or an audit or correction by the IRS. The amended North Dakota return must be filed within 90 days after filing the amended federal return or within 90 days after the final determination of the IRS changes.

How to prepare an amended return

1. Obtain a blank Form ND-1 for the tax year affected by the changes.
2. Enter your name, current address, social security number, and other information required at top of return.
3. Fill in the circle next to "Amended return: General" or "Amended return: Federal NOL," whichever applies, in the top right-hand corner of the return. See "Amended return" on page 11 for more information.
4. Complete the return through the net tax liability line.
5. Leave the line for income tax withholding blank unless you are claiming an additional amount not previously claimed.
6. On the "Total payments" line, enter the net tax liability shown on your original return or previously filed amended return. If the net tax liability has not been fully paid at the time the amended return is filed, only enter the amount of tax that has been paid.
7. Complete the remaining portion of the return according to the instructions. On an amended return, you may not adjust the amount of any voluntary contribution, nor the amount of an overpayment applied to the next year's estimated tax.
8. Attach a statement explaining why you are changing your return. If you are doing so because of changes you or the IRS made to your federal return, attach a copy of the amended federal return or IRS notice. If amending to claim a net operating loss carryback, attach Form 1045 or 1040X.

Estimated tax requirement (for 2024)

You must pay estimated North Dakota income tax for the 2024 tax year if all of the following conditions apply:

1. You are required to pay estimated federal income tax for 2024.
2. Your North Dakota net tax liability for 2023 is $1,000 or more. (If you are not required to file a North Dakota return for 2023, you do not have to pay estimated tax for 2024.)

How to file a return for a deceased taxpayer

If a final federal income tax return is required to be filed for a decedent for the year of death, a final North Dakota income tax return also must be filed. A court-appointed personal representative is responsible for filing the decedent's final return, even if there is a surviving spouse. The information from the final federal return is used to complete the final North Dakota return, and the North Dakota return is to be signed in the same manner as required for federal income tax purposes. If there is a personal representative and no surviving spouse, a copy of the court document showing the appointment must be attached to the final return. If there is a surviving spouse and the final return will be filed on a joint basis, a refund will be mailed in both spouses' names.

If there is no surviving spouse and no personal representative has been appointed for the decedent, attach a copy of the death certificate and a copy of one of the following:

- Letter of Testamentary.
- Letter of Administration.
- Affidavit for Collection of Personal Property of Decedent.

For assistance, see back cover of booklet.

Fill in the circle for "Deceased" and enter the date of death next to the deceased taxpayer's name on Form ND-EZ or Form ND-1, whichever applies.

Disclosure notification

Upon written request from the chairman of a North Dakota legislative standing committee or Legislative Management, the law requires the Office of State Tax Commissioner to disclose the amount of any deduction or credit claimed on a tax return. Any other confidential information, such as a taxpayer's name or social security number, may not be disclosed.

Line 23 - Other credits

For other credits that may apply to you, see Schedule ND-1TC and its instructions. Enter on this line the total credits from Schedule ND-1TC. Include Schedule ND-1TC.

Line 26 - Withholding

Enter the North Dakota income tax withholding shown on a 2023 Form W-2, Form 1099, or North Dakota Schedule K-1. Also enter North Dakota income tax withholding shown on a 2022 North Dakota Schedule K-1 if the tax year of the partnership, S corporation, estate, or trust shown on the Schedule K-1 is a fiscal year ending in your 2023 tax year. Be sure the state identified on the Form W-2 or Form 1099 is North Dakota. Do not enter on this line North Dakota extraction or production taxes withheld from mineral interest income, such as an oil or gas royalty, because they are not income taxes. Include a copy of the Form W-2, Form 1099, or North Dakota Schedule K-1.

Line 27 - Estimated tax payment

Enter on this line any estimated income tax payments made on a 2023 Form ND-1ES or Form ND-1EXT. Also enter the amount of an overpayment on your 2022 North Dakota income tax return that you elected to leave on deposit as an estimated payment for 2023. Do not enter on this line North Dakota income tax withheld from a Form W-2, Form 1099, or North Dakota Schedule K-1; enter withheld tax on line 26.

Line 30 - Application of overpayment to 2024

If you have an overpayment on line 29, you may elect to apply part or all of it as an estimated payment toward your 2024 income tax liability. Once made, the election or the amount cannot be changed after you file your return.

Line 31 - Voluntary contribution of overpayment

If you have an overpayment on line 29, you may make a voluntary contribution of part or all of it to any of the three funds on this line. Enter the amount you wish to contribute on the line to the right of the fund name. If contributing, you must contribute at least $1.00. A contribution will reduce your refund.

Line 32 - Direct deposit of refund

If you want us to deposit your refund directly into your bank account, complete items a, b, and c below line 32. Check with your financial institution to see if it will accept direct deposit and to obtain the correct routing and account numbers.

Routing number (Item a)—Enter the 9-digit routing number. The first two digits must be within the range of 01 through 12 or 21 through 32.

Account number (Item b)—Enter the account number. It may have up to 17 digits (both letters and numbers). Include hyphens, but omit special symbols.

If depositing into a checking account, see the sample check on this page for where to find the routing and account numbers. If depositing into a savings account without a check writing feature, ask your financial institution for the correct account number to use.

Please note:

- Do not use the number on a deposit slip for the routing or account number.
- You will not receive notification of when the deposit is made by our office. Contact your bank or check your bank statement to verify the deposit.
- If the routing or account number is incorrect, or if your bank does not accept the direct deposit, a paper check will be issued.
- Due to changes in the electronic banking rules, the Office of State Tax Commissioner will not allow a direct deposit to or through a foreign financial institution. In this case, a paper check will be issued.

Line 34 - Penalty and interest

Our office will notify you of any penalty and interest owed for late filing or late payment, or interest owed on tax due during an extension period. However, you may calculate the amount of penalty, interest, or both, that you owe and pay it with your return. See "Penalty and interest" on page 7 for how to calculate penalty and interest.

Line 35 - Voluntary contribution

If you have a tax due on line 33, you may make a voluntary contribution to any of the three funds on this line. Enter the amount you wish to contribute on the line to the right of the fund name. If contributing, you must contribute at least $1.00 to a fund. A contribution will increase your balance due.

Line 36 - Balance due

The balance due must be paid in full with your return. You may pay the balance due online with an electronic check or a debit or credit card. To pay online, go to www.tax.nd.gov and select "Make A Payment."

If you are filing a paper return and paying the balance due with a paper check or money order, complete a 2023 Form ND-1PRV payment voucher and enclose it with the payment.

However, if you are filing your return electronically, complete and submit a 2023 Form ND-1V with the paper check or money order. Make check or money order payable to "ND State Tax Commissioner," and write the last four digits of your social security number and "2023 Form ND-1" on your check or money order. A check must be drawn on a U.S. or Canadian bank, be in U.S. dollars, and use a standard 9-digit routing number. A check drawn on a foreign bank (except one in Canada) cannot be accepted.

Line 37 - Interest on underpaid estimated tax

If you were required to pay estimated North Dakota income tax for 2023, but you did not pay enough or you paid it late, interest is charged on the underpayment or late payment. To determine if you owe interest, obtain and complete the 2023 Schedule ND-1UT.

Signatures

Sign and date your return. If you are filing a joint return, both spouses must sign.

Form 1099-G consent and disclosure authorization

At the bottom of Form ND-1, page 2 (below line 37), fill in the applicable circle(s) to indicate if you want either or both of the following items to apply.

Form 1099-G consent. If there is an overpayment on your 2023 Form ND-1, line 29, federal tax law requires our office to file with the IRS and mail to you a Form 1099-G showing the overpayment amount. You may need this information when preparing your 2024 federal income tax return. Fill in the circle for this item if you want to obtain Form 1099-G electronically from our website instead of receiving it by mail. The 2024 Form 1099-G will be available on our website in January 2025. For more information, go to our website at www.tax.nd.gov.

Disclosure authorization. Fill in the circle for this item if you want to authorize our office to communicate directly with your tax return preparer about your 2023 return. This may include requesting information needed to process the return and responding to inquiries from your preparer about correction notices you receive from us. The authorization does not allow your preparer to receive your refund check, to bind you in any way, or to legally represent you. The authorization only applies to the individual whose printed name and signature appear in the preparer's signature area, and it automatically expires on the due date (including extensions) for filing your 2024 return.

Before you file, did you—

- ☐ Sign your return?
An unsigned return is incomplete.
- ☐ Include a complete copy of your federal return?
Return is incomplete without it.
- ☐ Write your social security number on return? We use this number to identify your return.
- ☐ Check your math? This is one of the most common errors made.
- ☐ Include all Form W-2s?
Also include a copy of a 1099 or Schedule K-1 showing North Dakota withholding.
- ☐ Use the correct postage?
Avoid mailing problems by using the correct postage.

Important! If your return is missing your signature or a copy of your federal return, it will be sent back to you. This may result in late filing and payment charges if you resubmit it after the due date.

For worry-free filing, file your return electronically—see page 1!

2023 Tax Table

Example. Taxpayers are residents of North Dakota and are married filing jointly. Their North Dakota taxable income is $90,375. Find "$90,350 - $90,400" in the ND taxable income column. Read across to the amount shown in the "Married filing jointly" column. Their tax is $305.

Part- or full-year nonresident. If either or both spouses were part- or full-year nonresidents of North Dakota, they must enter the $305 on Schedule ND-1NR, line 22, to calculate their tax.
