myPATH | PENNSYLVANIA TAX HUB

Offering a New Way to File Your PA Personal Income Tax Return

Taxpayers now have the option to file their Pennsylvania personal income tax returns for free through myPATH. Visit mypath.pa.gov to access the new system, which also allows taxpayers to make payments, view notices, find answers to frequently asked questions and speak with a virtual assistant through an online chat. You can also visit the department's website, www.revenue.pa.gov, to find other information on filing your personal income tax return.

• Features myPATH offers to Pennsylvania Personal Income Tax filers include:

- » Fast and free return/refund processing
- » The “Where’s My Refund?” system to track the status of a refund
- » Instant confirmation of a successful filing
- » The benefit of error-reducing automatic calculators
- » User-friendly options that are not available to taxpayers filing by paper
- » Options to make annual and estimate payments
- » The ability to submit documentation online in response to correspondence from the department

NOTE: Starting in 2021, myPATH will replace the Pennsylvania Department of Revenue’s prior personal income tax filing system, padirectfile.

• Features myPATH offers to all filers include:

- » The ability to view a detailed Statement of Account for personal income tax
- » Verifying 1099 amounts, changing 1099 delivery preferences and viewing complete 1099s

Visit mypath.pa.gov to access the myPATH system, or visit the department’s website, www.revenue.pa.gov, to find other information on filing your personal income tax return. ▾
