Notes

- No California form must be used.
- Yes If there is no difference between California and federal amounts, you may use a copy of the federal form. If there is a difference between California and federal amounts, use the California form. If there is no California form, complete the federal form using California amounts and attach it to your California tax return.
- Not applicable Federal form is not applicable to California tax or California form is not applicable for federal tax.
- (1) Copies of paper information returns (1099 series, 1098, and 5498) filed with the Internal Revenue Service are not required to be filed with the Franchise Tax Board (FTB). However, if California and federal amounts differ, information returns may be attached to federal Form 1096 and filed with the FTB.
- (2) Form number may vary based on industry-specific registration.
- (3) FTB 3840 is required if California property is exchanged for like-kind property located out of state. If the taxpayer exchanges California property for California property, use federal Form 8824 with California amounts.
