Application for New Mexico Retail Food Store Certification for the Food Deduction

Instructions

Who is required to file RPD-41295

Effective January 1, 2005, receipts of certain retail food stores from the sale of food intended for home consumption are deductible from gross receipts pursuant to Section 7-9-92 NMSA 1978. Additional information can be located in FYI-201, Gross Receipts Tax and Certain Foods.

To qualify as a retail food store eligible to take the new deduction for sales of certain foods against gross receipts tax, the establishment either must file this application for New Mexico Retail Food Store Certification, or be currently authorized to accept Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) under the federal Food Stamp Act of 1964.

A taxpayer who can accept SNAP under the federal Food Stamp Act is a retail food store for purposes of Section 7-9-92 NMSA 1978 for tax periods during which the taxpayer is authorized to accept SNAP. Such a taxpayer does not require state certification to take the food deduction against gross receipts.

Qualifying As a Retail Food Store

To qualify, a retail store must meet at least one of two criteria the federal government sets forth in 7 USCA 2012(o)(1):

1. An establishment, house-to-house trade route, or online entity that sells food for home preparation and consumption and—
 - A. offers for sale, on a continuous basis, a variety of at least 7 foods in each of the 4 categories of staple foods specified in subsection (q)(1), including perishable foods in at least 3 of the categories; or
 - B. has over 50 percent of the total sales of the establishment or route in staple foods,

Important Definitions

- Food- (1) Any food or food product intended for home consumption, except alcoholic beverages, tobacco, hot foods, and hot food products prepared for immediate consumption other than those authorized by the federal government. (2) Seeds and plants for use in gardens to produce food for the personal consumption of the eligible household. Important: Refer to 7 USCA 2012(k)(1) for a full list as set forth by the federal government.
- Staple Food- (1) Meat, poultry, or fish, (2) Bread or cereals, (C) Vegetables or fruits, or (D) Dairy Products. Note: Staple foods does not include food items such as coffee, tea, cocoa, carbonated and noncarbonated drinks, candy, condiments, and spices.
- Perishable Foods- staple food that is fresh, refrigerated, or frozen.

Completing This Form

Taxpayer must file one application for each location. Complete all parts of this application and all information as requested. An incomplete application may result in the denial of your request. All information submitted on this application is subject to verification by physical inspection.

Be sure to transfer the business name and the New Mexico Business Tax Identification Number (NMBTIN) from the first page to the top of the second page. Sign the application.

If approved, you will receive a New Mexico Retail Food Store Certification and may begin taking the deduction for qualified sales of certain foods pursuant to Section 7-9-92 NMSA 1978.
