WHAT TO KNOW AND DO BEFORE YOU BEGIN

Who Must File

Compensating tax is an excise tax imposed on persons using property, services, a license or a franchise in New Mexico as described in Section 7-9-7 NMSA 1978.

What is Compensating Tax

Compensating Tax is imposed based on the value of the property, service, license, or franchise being used. For property, this is the adjusted basis of the property for federal income tax purposes determined at the time of acquisition or introduction into New Mexico, or at the time conversion to use, whichever is later. For services, the value is the value of the services at the time the services were performed, or the product of the service was acquired. The value of a license or franchise is the value of the license or franchise in its use in this state.

Compensating Tax must be reported to specific location codes. See Gross Receipts and Compensating Tax Rate Table for more information.

- Compensating tax is designed to protect New Mexico businesses from unfair competition from out-of-state businesses not subject to gross receipts tax.
- "Use" means use, consumption or storage other than storage for subsequent sale in the ordinary course of business or storage for use solely outside New Mexico (7-9-3[N]). See Regulation 3.2.1.30 NMAC for further clarification of the definition of "use".

For more detail, see FYI-230, Compensation Tax and FYI-105, Gross Receipts & Compensating Taxes: An Overview available at <https://www.tax.newmexico.gov/forms-publications/> or through your local district office.

Gross Receipts and Compensating Tax Rate Table

Compensating tax is reported using the rates from the Gross Receipts and Compensating Tax Rate Schedule based on municipality/county locations and reported/collected based on location code. The Department releases the Gross Receipts and Compensating Tax Rate Schedule semiannually. The Tax Rate Schedule has the listing of counties, municipalities, location codes for each, and the tax rate. The location codes are used to determine which tax rate should be used when filing your return. The gross receipts and compensating tax rates can change on January 1 and July 1 of each year, so it is important to check the tax rate schedule for new rates. You can locate the Gross Receipts and Compensating Tax Rate Schedule online at <https://www.tax.newmexico.gov/governments/gross-receipts-location-code-and-tax-rate-map/>.

Location Code and Tax Rate

Compensating tax is required to be reported by municipality, county, and location code as described in Section 7-1-14 NMSA 1978 as follows:

- G. Except as provided in Subsection H of this section, uses of property or services subject to the compensating tax shall be reported at the reporting location at which gross receipts would have been required to be reported had the transaction been subject to the gross receipts tax.
- H. If a person subject to the compensating tax can demonstrate that the first use upon which compensating tax is imposed occurred at a time and place different from the time and place of the purchase, then compensating tax shall be reported at the business location of the first use.

More detail on the reporting location for compensating tax may be found in the publication FYI-230, Compensation Tax, and, for determining the reporting location for gross receipts tax, in the FYI-200, Gross Receipts Reporting Location and the Appropriate Tax Rate available online at <https://www.tax.newmexico.gov/forms-publications/> or through your local district office.

COLUMNS A THROUGH H

Column A. Municipality/County Name

On separate lines, enter the name of each municipality or county where you have Compensating tax to report. Refer to the Gross Receipts and Compensating Tax Rate Schedule for current rates, <https://www.tax.newmexico.gov/governments/gross-receipts-location-code-and-tax-rate-map/>. See the section on location code and tax rate at the beginning of these instructions.

Column B. Location Code

Enter the Location Code from the current Gross Receipts and Compensating Tax Rate Schedule, <https://www.tax.newmexico.gov/governments/gross-receipts-location-code-and-tax-rate-map/>. Make sure that the location code corresponds with the municipality or county you listed in Column A.

Column C. Special Rate Code

Enter the alpha Special Rate Code from table T1 if applicable. This code is account specific. Do not use this code unless it applies to your tax situation. This code alerts the Department's computer system to a special rate, distribution, or a reporting requirement that may apply to your industry or to the type of deduction being reported.

A separate row is needed for compensating tax associated with a Special Rate Code (not the tax rate listed for the Municipality/County). Do not combine with compensating tax calculated under the regular rates from the Gross Receipts and Compensating Tax Rate Schedule.

T1. Special Rate Codes
A	Local Economic Development Act (LEDA)	Only qualifying entities under Section 5-10-14 NMSA 1978 use this special rate code. For more information on who qualifies for the special rate code please refer to the Local Economic Development Act Fund Section 5-10-14 NMSA 1978.

Column D. Value (excluding Tax)

The amounts in Column D should be the value of the property, services, license, or franchise being used. For property, value is the adjusted basis of the property for federal income tax purposes determined at the time of acquisition or introduction into New Mexico, or at the time of conversion to use, whichever is later. For services, the value is the value of the services at the time the services were performed, or the product of the service was acquired. The value of a license or franchise is the value of the license or franchise in its use in this state.

Important: A separate entry is required for each different location code and for each special code that is required.

Column E. Deduction Code

When using a deduction code, the associated compensating tax and deduction amounts must be reported on a separate line. See Example 2 at the bottom of this page.

Deductions requiring separate reporting are located on page 12, table T2. Deductions Requiring Separate Reporting. All other deductions for compensating tax are not required to be reported separately. These deductions may be claimed on one line without using a deduction code. See example 2.

COLUMN F. Deduction Amount

All deductions are to be reported in this column. Deductions must be provided under New Mexico statute and must be supported by evidence that shows the deduction is allowed based on requirements stated in statute or regulation.

Note: If you are claiming a deduction that requires separate reporting (Column E), the value associated with the deduction and the deduction amount will be reported together on a separate line. See example 2.

Important: Business expenses are not deductible from compensating tax. The deduction must be provided specifically in statute in order to claim the deduction on the compensating tax return. For a listing of available deductions, please see FYI-105: Gross Receipts & Compensating Taxes - An Overview, available at your local district office or online at <https://www.tax.newmexico.gov/forms-publications/>.

Example 2 (Column E): Taxpayer A has compensating tax (CMP) for the city of Santa Fe. They have one deduction under Section 7-9-84 for $4,000 which uses deduction code D0-022. The value associated with this deduction and the deduction amount appear together on a separate line. All other values that need to be reported, as well as all other deduction amounts, are reported together on a separate line. Taxpayer A's return appears like this:

Col. A	Col. B	Col. C	Col. D	Col. E	Col. F	Col. G	Col. H	Col. I
Muni/County	Location Code	Special Rate Code	Value	Deduction Code	Deduction Amount	Taxable Value	Tax Rate	CMT Due
Santa Fe	01-123		34,000		12,500	21,500	8.4375	1,814.06
Santa Fe	01-123		10,000	D0-022	4,000	6,000	8.4375	506.25

COLUMN G. Taxable Value

Column D minus Column F. Note: This amount can never be less than zero.

COLUMN H. Tax Rate

Enter the rate from the Gross Receipts and Compensating Tax Rate Schedule, <https://www.tax.newmexico.gov/governments/gross-receipts-location-code-and-tax-rate-map/>. See the instructions for Column B.

COLUMN I. Compensating Tax Due

Enter the Compensating Tax Due for each line by multiplying Column G by Column H.

LINES 1 THROUGH 8LINE 1. Total Tax Due.

Enter the sum of all Column I on Line 1 for the total amount of compensating tax due. Remember to include all rows from Column I.

LINE 2. Business Related Tax Credits Applied

If you do not have any Business-Credits to apply, skip Line 2.

Business-Related business tax credits applied from Schedule CR, line A. Attach Schedule CR. The amount on this line should not be more than Line 1. For information about these credits, see the instructions for Schedule CR.

If you are eligible, do the following:

- Complete Schedule CR.
- From Schedule CR, line A, enter the total amount you claimed and applied to your tax due on TRD-41412, line 2,
- From Schedule CR, line B, enter the total amount of tax credit that may be refunded to you, on TRD-41412, line 7. See instructions for line 7.
- Attach Schedule CR (and any required forms or documentation to support your claim) to your TRD-41412.

LINE 3. Net Tax

Subtract Line 2 from Line 1. If no amount was claimed on Line 2, carry amount in Line 1 down to Line 3. This amount cannot be more than Line 1.

Important note about penalty and interest: If penalty and interest are due, you can leave these fields blank and the Department will compute penalty and/or interest for you.

LINE 4. Penalty.

If you file late and owe tax, or if you do not pay the tax on or before the date your return is due, enter penalty here.

Penalty is applied for failure to pay or file on time. Penalty is calculated at a rate of 2% of Line 4 per month or partial month (any fraction of a month is a full month) the TRD-41412 or payment is late, up to 20% of the tax due or a minimum of $5.00, whichever is greater.

Note: The minimum $5.00 Penalty is also imposed for failure to file this form even if no tax is due.

LINE 5. Interest

See Example 3 on the this page.

Interest is calculated daily but the rate will be set at the rate established for individual income tax purposes by the U.S. Internal Revenue Code (IRC). The IRC rate, which changes quarterly, is announced by the IRS in the last month of the previous quarter. The annual and daily interest rates for each quarter are posted on our website at <https://www.tax.newmexico.gov/individuals/file-your-taxes-overview/penalty-interest-rates/>.

Tax Due X Quarterly Interest X Number of Days
Late = Interest Due.

Example 3 (Line 5): Taxpayer's tax due on Line 3 is $1,000. The payment due is fifteen days late.

To calculate the interest due: multiply $1,000 by the daily rate of 0.01643856% (the daily interest rate for the 2nd quarter of 2019). The result is $0.1643856, which is the interest due for one day. Multiply $0.1643856 by fifteen (the number of days the payment is late). The interest is $2.465753425. (Round this number to the nearest cent) Enter the interest due of $2.47 on Line 5.

$$$1,000 \times 0.00016438356 \times 15 = $2.465753425$$

Note: You are not liable for interest if the total interest due is less than $1.00.

Important: When you pay your principal tax liability, interest stops accruing. Because it stops accruing, you do not need to calculate the amount of interest due on your return past the date you pay the principal tax.

When you pay your principal tax liability, penalty and interest stop accruing.

This penalty applies when your failure to timely file or pay is due to negligence or disregard of the rules and regulations, but without intent to defraud.

Tax Fraud

A person is guilty of tax fraud if the person:

- Falsifies any return, statement, or other document;
- Willfully assists, procures, advises, or counsels the filing of a false return, statement, or document;

YOUR RIGHTS UNDER THE TAX LAW

Your Rights

To help avoid tax problems, keep accurate tax records and stay current with tax law changes. Information in these instructions and other Department publications help you do both.

While you can resolve most tax problems informally, it is important to understand you must exercise certain rights provided to you under law within specific time frames. If the Department makes an adjustment to your return, the Department sends you a notice explaining the adjustment and the procedures to use if you disagree.

Useful Publications

Publication FYI-402, Taxpayer Remedies and FYI-406, Your Rights Under the Tax Law are available at www.tax.newmexico.gov. At the top, click FORMS & PUBLICATIONS, then select FYIs from the Publications folder.

Refunds

If the Department denies your claim for refund in whole or in part, you may file a protest with the Department within 90 days of either mailing or service of the denial, or you may file a lawsuit with the Santa Fe District Court.

If the Department requests additional relevant documentation from you, the claim is not complete until the documentation is received within the specified time period. The date the complete claim is submitted will determine when the 180 days begin. If you do not provide the additional requested relevant documentation, the claim for refund remains incomplete and will not be processed.

New Mexico Taxpayer Bill of Rights

Most tax transactions happen without problems. Sometimes, thought, troubles arise through misunderstanding, mathematical error, missed deadlines, lost papers, high volume of transactions and many other situations. Changes in the law may make earlier information outdated. Over the years the Legislature and the Department have created ways to handle difficulties according to the provisions of the state tax code. Following are some of your rights as outlined in Sections 7-1-4.1 through 7-1-4.3 NMSA 1978:

- The right to available public information and prompt and courteous tax assistance;
- The right to representation and advice by counsel or other qualified representatives at any time during your interactions with the Department according to provisions of Section 7-1-24 NMSA 1978, or with the Administrative Hearings Office in accordance with the provisions of the Administrative Hearings Office Act;

- The right to have the Department conduct its audits in a timely and efficient manner and be entitled to the correct calculation of interest as provided in the Tax Administration Act under Section 7-1-67 and 7-1-68 NMSA 1978;
- The right to simple, non-technical information explaining procedures, remedies and rights during audit, protest, appeals and collection proceedings under the Tax Administration Act;
- The right to receive an explanation of audit results and the basis for audits, assessments or denials of refunds that identify tax, interest or penalty due;
- The right to seek review through formal or informal proceedings of findings or unfavorable decisions arising from determinations during audit or protest procedures according to Section 7-1-24 NMSA 1978 and the Administrative Hearings Office Act;
- The right to have your tax information kept confidential unless otherwise specified by law in Sections 7-1-8 through 7-1-8.11 NMSA 1978;
- The right to an abatement of an assessment of taxes incorrectly, erroneously or illegally made (Section 7-1-28 NMSA 1978) and a right to seek a compromise of an asserted tax liability. When the Secretary of Taxation and Revenue in good faith doubts that you owe us what we claim you owe, you also have the right to seek a compromise if one exists in your particular case (Section 7-1-20 NMSA 1978);
- The right to clear information of the consequences if a tax assessment is not paid, secured, protested or otherwise provided for according to Section 7-1-16 NMSA 1978. If you become a delinquent taxpayer, upon notice of delinquency you have the right to timely notice of collection actions that require sale or seizure of your property under the Tax Administration Act, and
- The right to apply to pay your tax obligations by installment payment agreements according to the provisions of Section 7-1-21 NMSA 1978.

Confidentiality Provisions:

Statutes protecting the privacy of your taxes are strict and are outlined in Sections 7-1-8 through 7-1-8.11 NMSA 1978. Section 7-1-8.2 NMSA 1978 limits requiring the Department to answer questions about whether a taxpayer is registered to do business in New Mexico or is registered for other tax programs. It does not allow employees to say whether you have filed a return. Employees may discuss your account only with you or your authorized representative. A hearing officer's written ruling on questions of evidence or procedure pursuant to the Administrative Hearings Office Act are in the public domain. The name and identification number of the taxpayer requesting the ruling are not public record. Public record includes the monthly gasoline tax reports of numbers of gallons of gasoline and ethanol-blended fuels received and deducted, and the tax paid by each filer or taxpayer pays. Identities of rack operators, importers, blenders, suppliers or distributors and the number of gallons of gasoline and other fuels are public record. The Department may reveal to the Gaming Control Board the tax returns of license applicants and their affiliates.

Audit Provisions:

The Department must provide you with written, dated notice that an audit is about to begin on a specific date, and the notice must tell you which tax programs and reporting periods will be covered. We must issue a second notice, which states any outstanding records or books of account requested and not yet received, between 60 and 180 days after the audit begins. If you do not produce the records within 90 days, the Department can issue an assessment of tax on the basis of the information as it stands. If you need additional time, you must submit a specific request in writing. Interest on outstanding liabilities accrues if the Department does not issue an assessment within 180 days of the notice of outstanding records or books, or within 90 days after time has expired under your request for additional time; however, you are entitled to an abatement of interest for the period of time after you have complied with Department requests and the Department has not acted on the audit.

Administrative Hearing Procedures:

A hearing officer may not engage or participate in any way in the enforcement or formulation of general tax policy other than to conduct hearings. You may request the Chief Hearing Officer of the Administrative Hearings Office determine if a hearing officer has engaged or participated in the enforcement or formulation of tax policy and if the hearing officer's activities have affected his or her impartiality. The Chief Hearing Officer may designate another hearing officer for the matter. Hearing officers may not communicate unilaterally about a matter you have protested while that matter is still pending. The chief hearing officer may appoint another hearing officer if that occurs. You may request a written ruling on any contested question of evidence in matters in which you have filed a pending written protest. You also may request that two or more protests on related issues be combined and heard jointly, and the hearing officer shall grant the request unless it creates an unreasonable burden on the Department.

Credit Claims:

The Department has 120 days from the filing date to approve or deny a statutory tax credit. If it does not act, the credit is approved. For more information see Section 7-1-29.2 NMSA 1978.

Refund Offsets

The Secretary decides whether a refund of tax due you may be offset against your other tax liabilities, and you will receive notice that the refund will be made accordingly. You are entitled to interest until the tax liability is credited with the refund amount. Please see the paragraph above on "Audit Provisions" for interest due to you if the Department does not offset a refund or credit against your other tax liabilities within the prescribed time. The Department may make a direct refund of overpaid taxes to the taxpayer without requiring the taxpayer to file a refund claim. The Department does not have to pay interest on credits or refunds if it applies the amount to a tax interception program, to an estimated payment, or to offset prior liabilities of the taxpayer.

Awarding of Costs and Fees:

If you prevail in an administrative or court proceeding brought by you or against you after July 1, 2003, under the Tax Administration Act, you may be entitled to a judgment or a settlement for reasonable administrative costs connected to the action.

Penalty:

The Department may not assess penalty against you if you fail to pay tax when due because of a mistake of law made in good faith and on reasonable grounds. If the Secretary determines that it is unfair to hold a spouse or former spouse liable for payment of unpaid taxes, the Secretary may decline to take action against the spouse or former spouse of the person who actually owes the tax. In extreme cases of delinquency under Section 7-1-53 NMSA 1978 the Department may enjoin a taxpayer from continuing in business after a hearing and until the delinquency is cleared.
